EMDEN STEAMS INTO BRITISH HARBOR AND SINKS TWO WARSHIPS

Russian Cruiser and French Destroyer Sent to Bottom.

German, Flying Japanese Flag, Sails Boldly Past Penang Fort.

Escapes Safely Through the Strait of Malacca.

SQUADRON SINKS CRUISER.

Paris, Oct. 29.—A squadron of British torpedo boat destroyers has sunk in the Adriatic a German steamer which had been converted into a cruiser, according to a dispatch from Barcelona to the Havas News agency.

Tokio, Oct. 9.—The British embassy hears that the German cruiser Emden, flying the Japanese flag and disguised by the addition of a fourth smokestack, entered Penang, a British possession in the Straits Settlements, and fired torpedoes which sank the Russian cruiser Jemchug and a French destroyer.

The Russian cruiser Jemchug was a boat of about 2,100 tons and was laid down in 1902. Her main battery consisted of six 4.7-inch guns and she had a speed of twenty-four knots. She carried a crew of 324 men. After the battle of the Sea of Japan, during the Russo-Japanese war in 1905, the Jemchug was interned at Manila.

Has Changed Her Locality. The German cruiser Emden, after her exploits in the Indian ocean around India, has changed her locality and is now in the Straits Settlements. On Tuesday she

COUSIN OF KING OF ENGLAND IS DEAD

London, Oct. 29.—Prince Maurice of Battenberg, a cousin of King George and a son of Princess Henry of Battenberg, has been killed in France. He was an officer of the King's Royal Rifle corps.

Prince Maurice was the first member of the British royal family to be killed in the present war. It was reported that the prince was actually killed on the field of battle, but that he had been wounded in wounds received in an engagement.

King George and Queen Mary visited Kensington Palace to condole with Princess Henry, his mother.

Two brothers of Prince Maurice also went to the front—Lieut. Prince Alexander of the Royal Grenadier Guards and Lieut. Prince Leopold of the King's Royal Rifle corps.

Prince Henry of Battenberg, father of the three princes, died from typhoid fever while in service in the Ashanti. The prince's sister is Victoria, queen of Spain.

COPPER MEN FILE PROTEST

Complain of Holding of Two Ships at Gibraltar.

Washington Awaits Consul's Statement Before Acting.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Representatives of four copper companies in New York today protested to the state department that the Italian vessels, the San Giovanni and the Regina d'Italia, carrying several thousand tons of American copper to Italian ports, had been detained by the British authorities at Gibraltar.

No official information has been received of the detention of the Italian vessels from American Consul Sprague at Gibraltar, who yesterday reported the seizure of the American steamer Kronland, also laden with copper destined to Naples and to Greek ports.

Await Full Report. Before taking official notice of the seizure of these three vessels, state department officials will await a full report of the circumstances under which they are detained. Consul Sprague already has been asked for details of the detention of the Kronland, and officials expect he will shortly explain the reason for the detention of the Italian vessels.

It is also understood here that British warships held up the Norwegian steamer Prosper III, from New York for Copenhagen and took her to a port in North Scotland.

ARGUE OVER RATE RAISE

Eight Hours Each for Railroads and Opposing Interests.

George S. Patterson Opens the Argument for the Carriers.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Oral arguments for and against the application of Eastern railroads for a general advance in freight rates began today before the interstate commerce commission. The arguments may be concluded today or tomorrow and the commission is expected to take up the case at the November conference for an early decision.

By agreement among counsel, eight hours was allowed for argument, to be evenly divided between the sides and the case will be submitted at noon tomorrow.

George S. Patterson, general solicitor for the Pennsylvania railroad, opened the argument for the carriers, stating the case in a general way. He was followed by counsel for the shippers, each of whom dealt with specific commodities on which increased rates are asked, or with the financial position of individual lines.

In opposition Clifford Thorne, representing many shippers' organizations, said that the carriers' rates were too high and that the shippers' organizations were organized to oppose them.

WIND UP BIG TRUST SUIT

Final Arguments Are Made in the Steel Case.

Dickinson Closes for Government—Attacks the Gary Dilemma.

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—The final day's argument in the greatest corporation case ever considered by any court opened with Jacob M. Dickinson, former secretary of war and special assistant to the attorney general, continuing his address, urging that the United States Steel corporation should be disintegrated because it is violating the anti-trust laws.

Mr. Dickinson's argument was largely in rebuttal of what the six corporation lawyers who preceded him had said in defense of the Steel corporation and its subsidiaries.

Has Power to Crush. Mr. Dickinson said the Steel corporation had the power to crush out all competitors if it so desired, but it realized that if it pursued such a policy it would be swiftly crushed by the government. But, said he, it adopted a different scheme. It entered into pools, agreements and combinations with its competitors by means of which

REPUDIATES PESQUEIRA

Carranza's Agent at Washington Discredits San Antonio Statement.

Revolvers Are Drawn at the Peace Conference.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Rafael Zubaran Capmany, confidential agent of Gen. Carranza here, said at the Mexican embassy today that a statement issued at San Antonio last night by Roberto V. Pesqueira, attacking George C. Carranza, special agent of the state department in Mexico, had not been authorized by Gen. Carranza, but was a personal expression from Mr. Pesqueira. The latter was at one time Washington representative of Carranza, said Mr. Zubaran, but now holds no official position under his government.

Carranza adherents have previously expressed informally to the state department their belief that no American consul agents should accompany Gen. Villa. Secretary Bryan several weeks ago inquired into the subject, conferring with Carranza personally here. Mr. Bryan exonerated him from charges of partisanship and sent him back to Villa's territory, where he has been since.

CHECK IN POLAND IS ADMITTED BY BERLIN

Allies Count on Being Able to Win By Numbers—Germany Is Sending Reinforcements Into Flanders.

No Intention Shown of Abandoning Fight for North Sea Ports—Not One Assault on Allies Successful.

From the west and from the east German reverses are reported. Germany acknowledges a check in Russian Poland, but concerning the great battle in Flanders she preserves her silence. The only official word received by midday today was from the French, who again made indefinite claims to further progress.

FARTHER FROM COAST.

Not since the struggle along the North sea began a fortnight ago has Germany made a statement on which may be based judgment as to the course of events. The best information available indicates that, notwithstanding their dauntless attacks and heavy sacrifices of life, the Germans are farther from the coast than when the battle began.

ALLIES COUNT ON NUMBERS. The one great factor on which the allies build their hopes of an eventual triumph apparently is, according to their claims, beginning to tell. It is the almost inexhaustible supply of men that may be drawn from the vast reaches of the British and Russian empires, which are relied upon in time to crush the Germans by overwhelming numerical superiority.

In the East this influence seemingly is already being felt, and to it is ascribed the German reverse in Russian Poland.

ALWAYS FRESH MEN. The secret of the Russian victory, writes a British correspondent at Petrograd, lies in the vastness of the Russian emperor's army, which he estimates at 8,000,000 men. This enabled the Russians to keep an immense reserve for every army, changing frequently and never leaving the same men on the firing line long enough to become weary.

Meanwhile the British, who describe their forces now on the continent as merely an advance guard, are actually holding an army of 1,500,000 men, of whom 600,000 are territorials.

LITTLE DEFENSIVE DATA. Today's French statement, while again optimistic in tone, gave little specific information. On the extreme western end of the battle line, where the fighting has been fiercest, there is "nothing new."

London ascribes the lull of the last few days to the fact that the opposing armies have been utterly exhausted by incessant fighting.

There is no indication, however, that Germany intends to abandon the fight for possession of the North sea coast. Unofficial reports have it that reinforcements are being poured in from every point along the battle line where they can be spared.

In the opinion of the military critics, the outcome of this battle, the severest open fighting of the war, will determine whether it is possible for exposed columns of infantry to stand up in the fighting between Nieuport and Dixmude, which continued on the 28th.

GERMAN SOLDIERS ARE DISHEARTENED

Continually Find Themselves Facing Fresh Russian Troops.

London, Oct. 29.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Daily Mail sends the following regarding the fighting in Russia:

"The Germans are astonished and disheartened to always find themselves pitted against fresh troops of energy. The secret of this lies in the Russian plan of keeping an immense reserve for every army, changing regiments frequently and never leaving the same men on the firing line long enough to become weary."

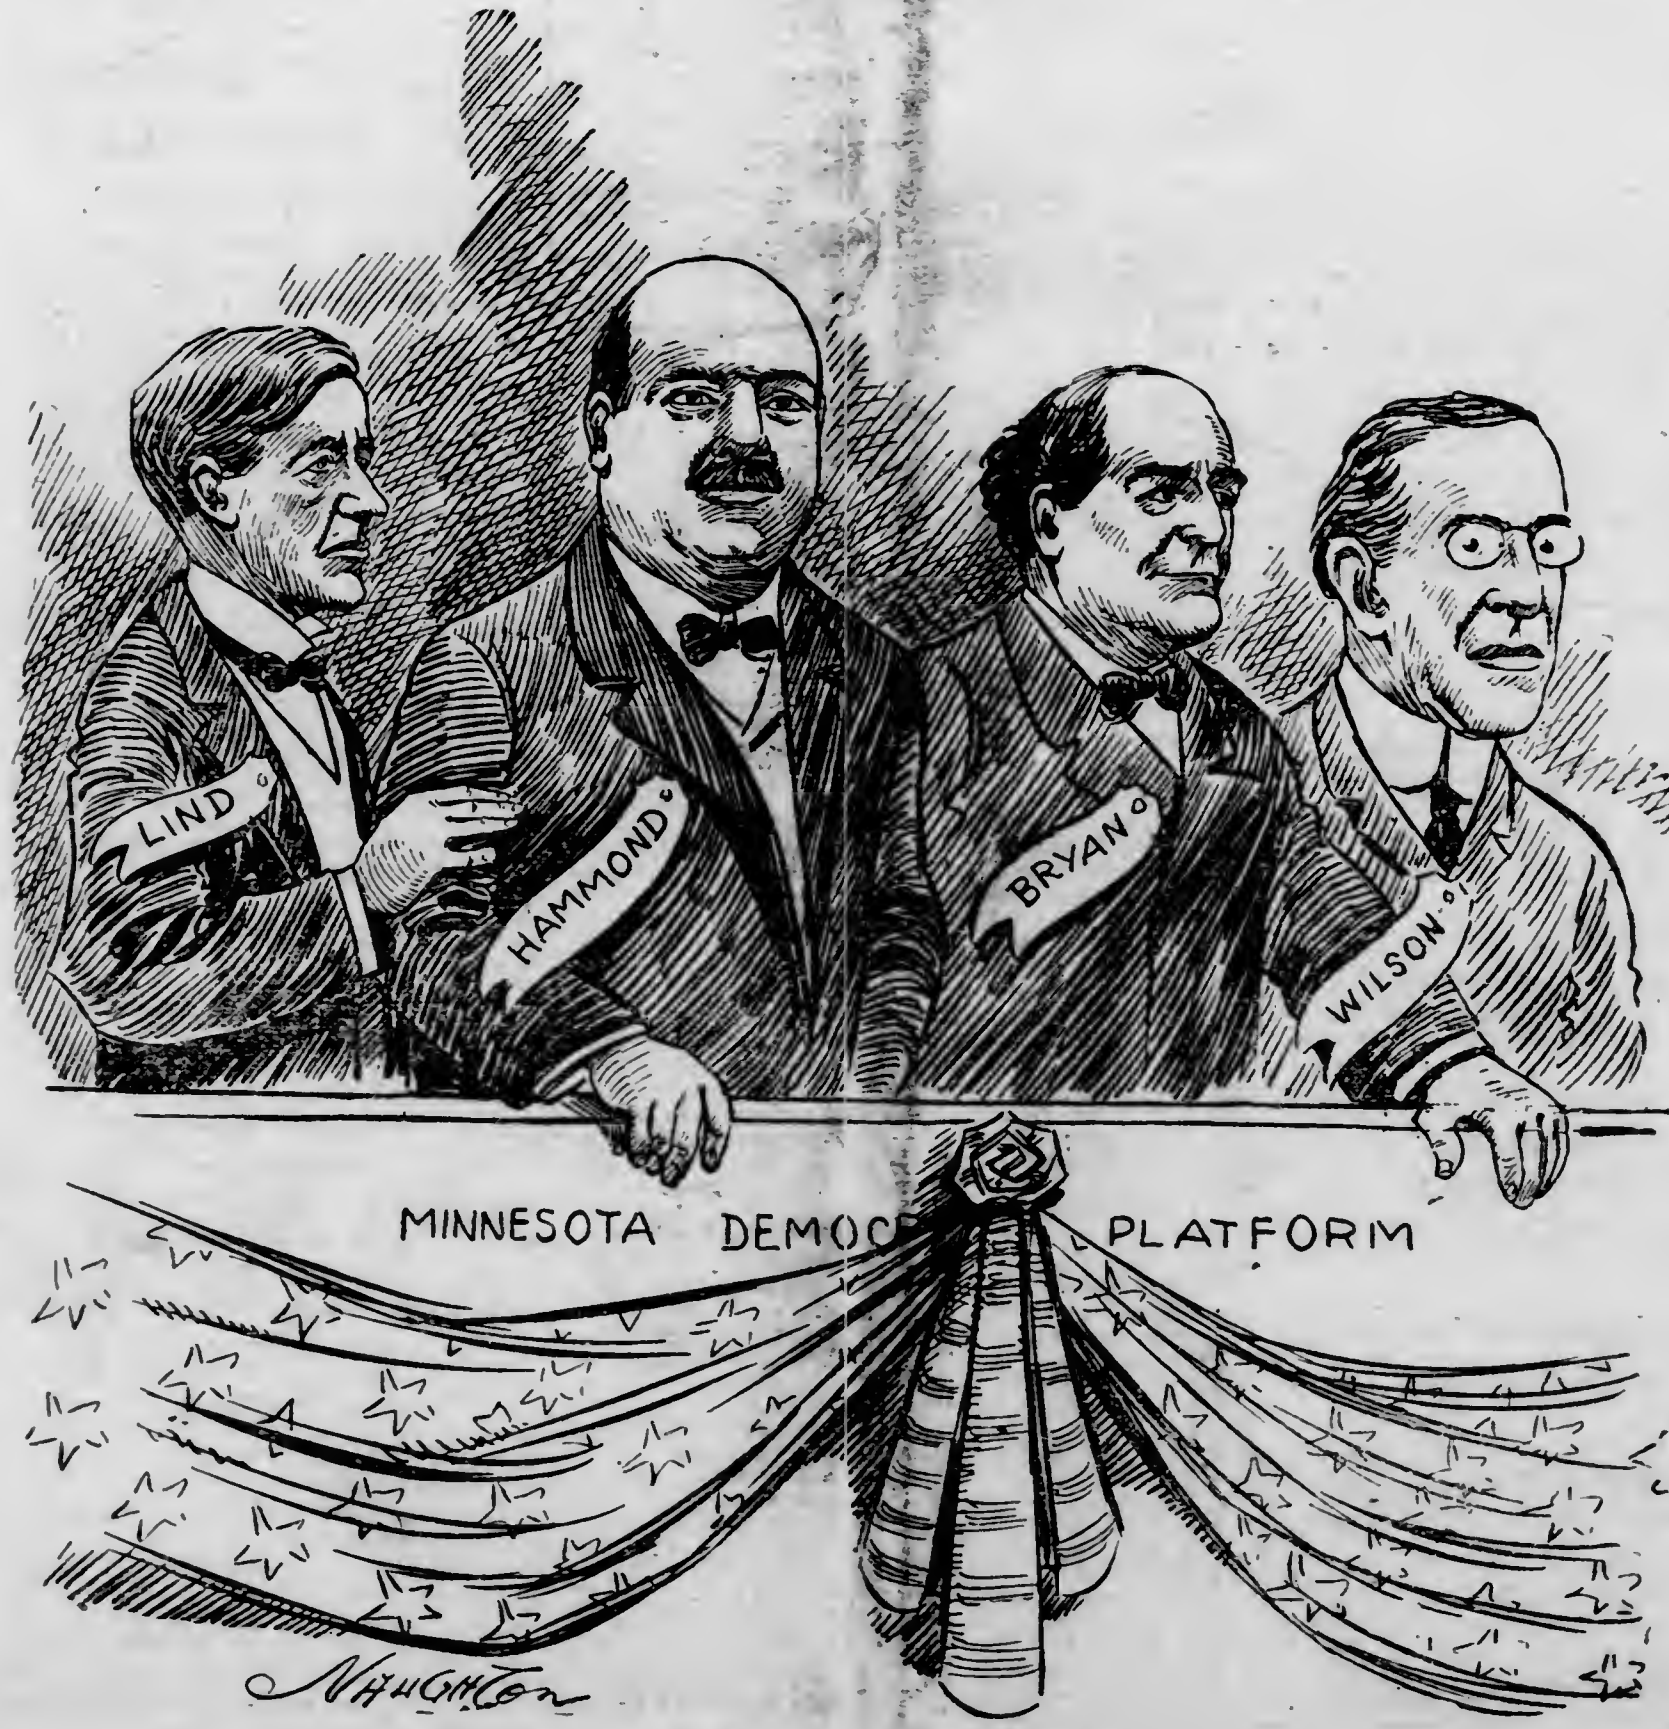

"In this way the vastness of the Russian emperor's army of 8,000,000 men is beginning to show a marked influence on the campaign."

ENGLAND REVOKES 1909 DECLARATION

Will Seize Reservists Who Travel in Neutral Ships.

London, Oct. 29.—The Morning Post announces that the government, after having consulted its allies and neutral powers, has decided to disregard the declaration of London of 1909. This means the cancellation of permission for reservists of belligerent nations to travel unmolested in neutral ships.

THE CHARACTER OF HAMMOND'S SUPPORT.

ANTWERP BUILDINGS SAVED BY AMERICAN

Germans Acted on Whitlock's Suggestion as to Bombardment.

Antwerp, Oct. 29. Via London.—To Brand Whitlock, the American minister to Belgium, is due the credit for saving the cathedral and the art galleries, churches, theaters and public buildings in Antwerp during the recent bombardment of that city by the Germans.

When the Germans approached Antwerp, Mr. Whitlock asked the German commander, Gen. von der Goltz, to spare the historic buildings. Thereupon Gen. von der Goltz agreed to use his good offices in this respect if Mr. Whitlock would prepare maps for the German aeroplanists in order that they might direct the firing. Henry W. Dieckrich, American consul general, then arranged a large number of maps on which were indicated the points which it was desired should be avoided by the German shells.

Gen. von der Goltz explained to Mr. Whitlock when he received the maps that his gunners could not absolutely regulate their shells from directions given by the aeroplanists, as the guns were located miles from the city. He added, however, that his men would do their best.

The shooting was so skillful that the Palace of Justice was the only large government building struck during the bombardment. Two shells hit it, but they did only slight damage. A bomb also struck the fence of St. Peter's. The slight damage is considered marvelous on account of the three days' bombardment with the aid of Zeppelins and Taube aeroplanes.

EGGS FROM FARM ARE MAILED TO CHICAGO.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—The first farm-to-consumer consignment of eggs by parcel post to reach Chicago arrived today. The consignment consisted of three dozen eggs from a farmer living near Buffalo, N. Y.

Lots of farmers prepared to deal direct with consumers in the city will soon be printed and distributed to Chicago householders by carrier.

RUSSIAN SUCCESS IS ADMITTED BY BERLIN

Official Wireless Message to Embassy at Washington Tells of Retirement of the Kaiser's Forces.

Details of Affair Are Given Out By the Russian Government in Communication Issued at Petrograd.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Today's official wireless from Berlin to the German embassy supplements last night's official announcement of the retirement of the German-Austrian troops before new Russian forces, and says the Belgians have been reinforced in the fighting between Nieuport and Dixmude, which continued on the 28th.

Russian Report. Petrograd, Oct. 29.—"In the battle which has been in progress for four days south of the Pilzta river in the forests on the line extending from the Bologura (Bialobrzeg) to Glogow, Poland and Janowice, our troops have inflicted upon the Austro-Germans a severe defeat."

This official communication was issued by general headquarters. The report adds: "Between the Pilzta and Glogow, the heroic efforts of our troops definitely broke down, on Oct. 26, the resistance of the twentieth corps, which the reserve guard corps of the Germans."

On the center, after fighting of a desperate character, we succeeded in establishing a firm foothold on the border of a forest in the region of the villages of Adamoff, Zvirinoff and Marlanoff."

Captured by Assault. "On the left wing, we captured by assault a defensive position established at Polczna and enveloped a portion of the Austrian troops near Boar-deje."

"On the night of Oct. 27, the enemy's corps fell back in disorder toward the line between Edlinke, Radom and Iija. We captured both cannon and prisoners."

"In the right bank of the Pilzta, between Ieloff and Novomasto, the fighting continues with the same desperation."

"In Galicia, the battle is raging along the whole front of the river San. We have taken an additional ten officers and 500 men."

"South of Przemyel our troops are advancing at certain points."

"In East Prussia the enemy has violently bombarded our positions in the operations in the region of Bakalar-jew. Repeated attacks all have been repulsed."

"The success which we have won to the south of the Pilzta and the result of which was the retreat of the enemy on the main front, is of the very great importance."

WEATHER—For Duluth, Superior and vicinity: Fair weather tonight and Friday; no decided change in temperature; moderate westerly winds.

APPLE WEEK IS AT HAND

Monday Will Open Selling
Man's Fruit.

Result Will Affect Price
Crop.

Monday will be the opening day of "apple week" and commission houses and retail grocers are already beginning to prepare for this important period. Every grocer in the city will make apples the feature of his business all of next week, and it is expected that an immense amount of the fruit will be disposed of before the week is over.

With tonight's issue of The Herald a big advertising campaign is inaugurated. The newspaper will be used to forcefully call the attention of householders to the opportunity to get apples at the lowest price that they will be sold at between now and the arrival of a new crop next year. Banner wagons and auto trucks will be utilized as a means of advertising the apple-selling campaign which will be liberal.

The reason of the dealers' anxiety to carry on a successful selling campaign is for the effect on the growers for the future. There is a tremendous apple crop this year and in consequence the price is low. If the crop, or the greater part of it, is sold, the growers will continue to operate their orchards but if they are compelled to lose heavily by reason of apples rotting on their hands, they will cut out their orchards with the result that next year there will likely be a scarcity or a near apple famine, and in consequence higher prices will be necessary.

Up to the Public.
"It's up to the public," said W. Gage Baldwin of the Fitzsimmons-Palmer company, "whether they will get apples at a reasonable price next year or not."

Apples are generally regarded as "the poor man's fruit." The commission men and grocers are warning the public that to get any advantage on prices, apples must be purchased in package lots—that is, by the barrel or box. No difference in price will be found in small purchases, but there will be a reduction in price that is worth while for purchases in package lots.

Oct. 20 was apple day all over the country, but Duluth had to wait for the reason that the dealers could not get their supplies in. The box apples from the West and the barrel apples from the East both failed to arrive, so it was decided to postpone the market until next week and have a whole week of apples arriving daily, and the barrel supplies are on the way up the country.

Duluth's allotment of apples is based on its population. The usual way the crop was allotted all over the country on a population basis—and it is believed that Duluth will use up her full quota.

PREUS MAY GO ON OPERATING TABLE
Republican Candidate for
Leave Lee Party.

J. A. O. Preus, state insurance commissioner and Republican candidate for state auditor, will probably have to be operated on for appendicitis. He had to leave the Lee party which has been touring the range, at Eveleth, and really should not have taken the trip.

Mr. Preus was unable to eat anything during the entire time he was with the party, and suffered from excruciating pains. On Sunday he was confined to bed and had to have morphine administered. On Monday he gave up the attempt to continue with the tour and returned to Duluth.

For a time it was feared that an immediate operation at Eveleth would be necessary, but that was avoided.

NEW BUSINESS BLOCK PLANNED
Substantial Building Will Be Erected Beside Grand Theater.

In the line of further improvements on West Superior street, it was announced by Moses Cook and Samuel Gittelton today that they have decided to erect a substantial business building on the frontage owned by them, adjoining the Grand Theater.

The building, which is a two-story affair at the outlet, the foundation is to be of a nature to admit of five or six stories being added later on. Its erection will be begun about April 1 next.

A ten-year lease of the proposed new business stand was taken yesterday by Paul Fantase, who at present conducts a candy and confectionery store at No. 215 West Superior street.

LACKS THE REQUIRED NUMBER OF SIGNERS.
City Attorney Harvey Clapp yesterday informed the members of the council that the petition asking that the section between Fifth and Sixth streets and Eleventh and Twelfth streets be designated as a residence district is insufficient. In order to be effective the petition must be signed by 50 per cent of the property owners owning 50 per cent of the property affected. The city attorney has checked the petition and found that the nineteen signers are less than the required number.

DULUTH DRUGGIST PLEASES CUSTOMERS
W. A. Abbott, druggist, 205 West Superior street, reports customers greatly pleased with the QUICK action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler's Laxative. This simple remedy drains the old foul matter from the bowels so THOROUGHLY that ONE SPOONFUL leaves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or easy stomach. It is so powerful that it is used successfully in appendicitis. Adler's Laxative never gives and the INSTANT action is surprising.

Interests on the buttermakers' business.

Too Much "Oleo."
The selection of Mr. Morley was the outcome of opposition to the present order in the union. A feeling had developed that W. E. Skinner, present secretary of the union, is in too close touch with the packing industry which has an interest in "oleo." So, practically a new board, save for the retention of Governor Hoard of Wisconsin, was named. The changed board, it is said, will probably mean the retirement of Mr. Skinner from the secretaryship.

SIGNIFICANCE OF
Longer Taunt St. Louis
With Bad Roads.

Travelers to Two Harbors over the North Shore road in recent years have become familiar with a large sign reading "County Line." Prominently displayed at the point where the road crosses from one county into the other.

The sign has had a greater significance than a mere idle desire to acquaint travelers with the fact that they were passing from one county to the other. It was erected by Lake County as a boast and a taunt, for the traveler from Duluth walled through mud holes and over ruts up to the sign, and then and clear sailing over a good road to Two Harbors.

The significance of the sign has been changed. The St. Louis county part of the road is now the better for a considerable distance east of the county line, and the distance will be extended just as far as the weather will permit this autumn.

Moulton's hill, the terror of those who have the North Shore road, has been cut down, at one point a cut of four feet having been made in solid rock. The rock has been crushed and spread on the road and a rock crusher is busy providing the material for extending the line of rock surfacing.

County Commissioner T. H. Little, in whose district the road lies, says that the rock crusher and a crew of men will be kept at work just as long as possible this year. Those who have been over the road in the last few days say the improvement is most satisfactory, and they now claim the county line sign for St. Louis county.

They are busy working of creating a larger sign over that which already marks the border.

NO ADVANCE IN TRUNK PRICES
Duluth Company Had Also Stocked Christmas Novelties Before War.

Retail trade in Duluth is regarded as having been satisfactory on the whole during the present year, merchants being in a position to report a gratifying volume of trade in all lines.

"Our business has shown a fair increase in the aggregate," said Dell L'Amie, secretary of the Duluth Trunk company today. "We have met with a surprising call for the higher grades of goods, and in so far as we can judge the indications for the public will appreciate it that we have not advanced our prices on trunks, bags and other lines since the war started. We were fortunate in having placed our import orders in staple and novelties early, and we were lucky in having taken them into stock before hostilities began. We are thus enabled to give customers the benefit of the heavy advance that has since come about in all leather goods."

Mr. L'Amie intimated that advance inquiries regarding goods suitable for Christmas gifts have been already received by his company. Women's party covers and automobile men have been in good demand, and lightweight bags have been the season's leaders.

PROGRAMS READY FOR HALLOWEEN

Mayor Arranges Celebrations for Various Parts of City.

Mayor W. I. Prince has practically completed his arrangements for the big Halloween parties which will be given at Lakeside, Lake Shore park and the West end under the direction of the city.

The principal celebration will be at Lake Shore park. Thirtieth avenue east and London road, but the others will be nearly equal in magnitude.

Lake Shore park gets into the line because it was there that the city had its first Halloween party, staged a year ago.

Provision has been made for showing the youngsters the finest kind of a good time. There will be apples and nuts and other good things to eat and a series of interesting games have been planned. Prominent citizens have promised to deliver addresses and arrangements have been made for plenty of music.

The idea of the mayor is to keep the children from getting into mischief by providing amusements which will occupy them until it is time for them to go to their homes.

Two Russian laborers were attacked by companions and robbed of their money amounting to $80. Jacks Rowson lost $20 and Alon Kookouch lost $50 which represented the savings from a summer's earnings on a railroad. The Beltrami county sheriff force and the Bemidji police have obtained descriptions of the robbers and are now searching for them.

WAR STRAIN ON HOLLAND

Refugees Outnumber Inhabitants in Some of the Cities.

Massing of German Troops Near Border Causes Uneasiness.

Roosendaal, Holland, Oct. 29, via London.—Holland is feeling the pressure of the war almost as much as if she were engaged in it. The report that the Germans are massing large numbers of troops on the eastern border is causing great uneasiness throughout Holland. The alleged discovery of a tunnel on the property of a German in the vicinity of Arnhem, and statements that German spies have been active near Arnhem and other points close to the German border, seem to intensify the anxiety of the Hollanders.

A Dutch army of more than 300,000 trained men is scattered at strategic points along the Belgian and German borders. The mouth of the River Scheldt and all the canals are heavily guarded. A large garrison at Flushing is guarding the docks and railway station in order to prevent an attempt to violate the neutrality of the Scheldt. The river is heavily mined and Dutch cruisers and torpedo boat destroyers are lying at its mouth to give any necessary co-operation to the land forces. The Dutch army is in fine condition, but it is just changing its uniform from blue to gray, and consequently the troops make a poor appearance because all the men have not received their new equipment.

Horror of War.—The horrors of war have been forced on virtually all the cities, towns and villages of Holland. The Belgian refugees, who are estimated to aggregate 500,000. The Dutch government is paying to the cities 30 cents daily for food for each refugee. The cities bear the other expenses connected with the influx. The strain of attending properly to its 15,000 population, Flushing with 7,000, and other towns with lesser numbers. In these places there are more refugees than inhabitants.

Amersfoort, with a population of about 16,000, has now 18,000 Belgian refugees, and interned 16,000 soldiers, combined. In Groningen there are 2,000 British marines interned.

Need of Wheat.—Holland depends on the United States and Canada for her wheat. At present the supply is very short.

It is said Great Britain is delaying food cargoes to Holland, and this is causing much adverse criticism of this alleged action. Holland is willingly feeding the refugees within her borders, but fears are expressed that famine conditions will prevail unless the embargo is slackened.

The refugees are unwilling to return to Belgium, although Holland has offered them free transportation.

The conscription of a secret fever among the refugees is causing some alarm owing to the crowded conditions there. There is a compulsory vaccination law in Belgium, and the Hollanders therefore are alarmed by reports that there is small pox among the refugees.

1,500,000 ENGLISHMEN ARE IN ARMY CAMPS

More Than One-Third of This Number Are Territorials.

London, Oct. 29.—The British army on rolls and drilling in the United Kingdom now amounts approximately to 1,500,000 men. Of this total about 800,000 men belong to what is termed "Kitchener's army"—men who have responded to his two calls for 500,000 men to serve three years for the duration of the war. About 600,000 men belong to the Territorials, while the remainder are conscripts with the regular reserves, so-called, or with the regular army. The Territorials are considered the flower of the force, as a great majority of them belong to the middle and upper middle classes and are men accustomed to athletic pursuits. They are physically and mentally they are considered the best of the army. They are about the finest body of men in the world, and are drilled under army conditions. They are anxious to go abroad for service on the firing line.

A considerable portion of Field Marshal Lord Kitchener's army, of course, is not fully equipped, but is working hard. They are being armed and clothed with great rapidity.

The Canadian contingent is not included in this total.

JAPAN WILL NOT ADD TO HER BATTLESIPS.

New York, Oct. 29.—The East and West news bureau issued the following statement which was received by them from Tokyo, under date of yesterday: "Yukio Ozaki, minister of justice, who has heretofore consistently advocated the disadvantage of Japan's entering into the race of armaments with other great powers, made the following statement with regard to the navy and army budget to be presented before the coming diet: "In the next budget no proposal for the construction of any new battleships will be made. It will only provide for the building of submarines and torpedo boat destroyers with the sole purpose of placing the defense of Japan's adjacent seas on a safer basis. This will set at rest any suspicion some naval power may have harbored toward Japan."

At present, the Russian and Chinese forces in Japan, and China relies upon us for the maintenance of territorial integrity. Consequently the increase of armaments hitherto much discussed will be undertaken so far as the people can easily bear the burden and to the extent of ensuring peace in the Far East."

FEAR AN ATTACK BY GERMAN-AMERICANS.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 29.—The board of trade of Fort Erie, Ont., opposite Buffalo, has asked the Dominion government to station troops in the nearest military force is now doing thirteen miles away. The possibility of a raid by German sympathizers in the United States has been discussed at the last meeting of the board, and the action of the board resulted.

DULUTH IS A GLASS CENTER

Paine & Nixon Connect With East, Making Duluth Distributing Point; Local Company Now a Great Factor in Western Market.

Through the completion of arrangements by the Paine & Nixon company with Eastern manufacturers whereby stock sheets of plate glass are carried here by the local house, Duluth has been placed on the map as a distributing center in that line.

It was intimated by C. S. Nixon, secretary and assistant manager of the company, today, that its enterprise in carrying heavy supplies of building glass for Western distribution has resulted satisfactorily in every way. Additional travelers have been placed on the road in the glass line, and business that was formerly under the control of jobbing houses in the Twin Cities, Minneapolis and Chicago is now being handled from here.

Cover Wide Territory.—"We are now covering Northern Michigan, Northern Wisconsin, Minnesota and North and South Dakota, and we are planning to still further extend our territory later on," he said. "The fact that we carry stocks here is greatly appreciated by the building trade and by the representatives of plate glass companies in the West. The fact that we are in a position to deliver glass and make replacements to meet the competition of outside jobbers, and it now looks as if a large portion of the trade is going to be worked from here in the future, meaning more employment and considerable labor at this point."

Paine & Nixon Glass.—The development of the Paine & Nixon company's glass trade is attested by the statement that up to twenty-five and thirty carloads are handled at this time as compared with only one carload in the same line in the year December, 1909. Rack space for 150,000 square feet of plate glass has been provided on the premises, and 10,000 to 15,000 boxes of window glass are carried at all times. Several carloads of ornamental glass are also carried continuously.

Paints, varnishes and brushes were added to the lines carried about eight years ago after taking all the various brands on the market into consideration.

BIG GUNS ARE BURDEN TO ARMY

Military Experts Question Wisdom of Transporting Such Weapons.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) London, Oct. 29.—Although the big guns used by the Germans have been the surprise of the war and are accredited with having caused the fall of Liege, Namur and Antwerp, some military experts in England question the wisdom of carrying such weapons into the field regarding them as a burden which an army cannot afford to transport.

Col. F. N. Maude, discussing this heavy guns, says in the Standard: "It would be interesting to obtain the exact facts and calculate what the policy of taking the 42-centimeter howitzers into the field really cost the Germans in loss of transport power for the 42-centimeter howitzers into the field. I am willing to grant that the 42-centimeter howitzers are indispensable for their purpose of destroying steel and concrete targets presented by the forts of Liege and Namur. But, seeing that the weight of one of the shells is nearly equal to the weight of a whole squad, and that the 42-centimeter howitzer would not be the available horsepower, whether mechanical or actual, have been better employed in hauling food for men to the front in the first instance."

Military experts writing for the English press say that big guns are not really new. The new feature is their general use in the recent campaigns. Heavy guns were tried in the Franco-Prussian war, but in the same territory where recent fighting has taken place, but their employment was found to be a burden. England has constructed a more formidable gun, the 15-inch gun, which is built for use in the Crimea war, but is not a land gun. The 15-inch gun is built in sections for transport and has a thirty-stalling bore and has a bursting power charge.

Suffered Twenty-One Years—Finally Found Relief

Having suffered for twenty-one years with a pain in his side, I have found relief in Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. Injections of morphine were my only relief for short periods of time. I became so sick that I had to undergo a surgical operation in New Orleans, which benefited me for two years. When the same pain came back one day I was so sick that I gave up hopes of living. A friend advised me to try your Swamp-Root and I at once commenced using it. The first bottle did me so much good that I purchased two more bottles. I am now on my second bottle and am feeling like a new man. I passed a gravel stone as large as a big red bean, and several small ones. I have not had the least feeling of pain since taking your Swamp-Root and I feel it my duty to recommend this great medicine to all suffering humanity. Gratefully yours,

MRS. JOSEPH CONSTANCE, Echo, La.

Personally appeared before me, this 15th day of July, 1914, Mrs. Joseph Constance, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact, WM. MORROW, Notary Public.

ALPINE CHASSEURS INTERESTING BODY.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) Basel, Oct. 18.—The mountain war going on in the Vosges has brought into action one of the most interesting bodies of French troops, the Alpine Chasseurs. They are finely built, powerful men, usually equipped for the mountains. They are dressed in hob-nailed boots, woolen leggings and navy blue uniforms. They are almost invisible in the dark pine forests.

A favorite stratagem in their fighting is to occupy positions in the branches of the trees, cleverly masked and so securely arranged that the wounded or dead man does not fall. Another device of the French Alpine troops is for part of them to be secreted in the branches, to hold their rifle fire until German troops have passed well into wood, and then to open fire on them from all sides. The light artillery is carried upon mules.

LAST CHAPTER IN HEINO CASE

Gran Recovers $1,000 Damages From Former Law Partner.

Three Juries Have Passed on the Facts in the Case.

A district court jury this morning wrote the final chapter to the sequel of the raid which Attorney Victor H. Gran and a squad of detectives made Jan. 21 on the offices of his former law partner, John R. Heino, and according to their claims, found his wife, Olga Gran, and Heino in a compromising position, when a verdict was returned against Heino for $1,000 damages. Attorney Gran asked for a $10,000 heart balm.

The verdict was reported shortly before noon after the jury had been deliberating on the case for nearly twenty-one hours. The case was given to the jury by District Judge Bert Foster at 3:47 o'clock yesterday afternoon and the verdict was reached at 11:50 o'clock this morning. The jury spent most of the night deliberating on the case and for a while it was thought that no agreement could be reached. Mr. Gran, plaintiff in the action, charged his former business associate with betraying the trust which he had reposed in him as a friend, claiming that he had undermined the character of his wife, Mrs. Gran, and stolen her love and affection away from him. He claimed that for the last two years, Heino, "by importuning and seductive tactics" finally succeeded in alienating his wife's affections and debauching her.

The plaintiff preferred specific charges of adultery against his wife and Heino, alleging that they committed the offense at the time they were found together in Heino's office in the Sallowood building last January. Both were arrested at the time and were indicted for the offense by the March grand jury. Heino was brought to trial and was acquitted by a jury.

Another jury, however, returned special findings to the effect that Mrs. Gran committed adultery with Heino on the occasion in question. This jury passed upon the question of adultery as an issue of fact in connection with the trial of a divorce action which was brought by Gran immediately following the arrest of the alleged guilty lovers.

The evidence adduced at the trial of the alienation action was substantially the same as that offered at the trial of the divorce action, in so far as it affected Heino's alleged clandestine relations with Mrs. Gran. Mr. Gran testified that he learned of his wife's relations with Heino by means of a tapped telephone wire. He produced stenographic transcripts of their conversation. He testified that it was by means of the telephone tap that he learned that his wife was in Heino's office on the day that he had them arrested.

Since the alienation action has been on trial since Oct. 12, it is estimated that the cost to the county of trying the divorce action, the criminal charges against Heino and the alienation action, has been in the neighborhood of $1,000.

In the alienation suit, A. E. McManus appeared as attorney for Mr. Gran, and Theodore Hollister and Walter E. Bacey represented the defendant.

"MISTAKE" IS DEFENSE

Road Foreman on Trial for Presenting Fraudulent Claims.

Says It Was Simply an Error in Book-keeping.

Gust Banks, former county road foreman, who is on trial today in district court charged with having presented false claims to the county board in connection with his payroll, took the stand in his own defense this morning in an endeavor to explain away the charge against him.

Banks is alleged to have carried the names of Axel Johnson and Otto Mattson on his payroll for work done on the Ryan road in July, 1912, while as a matter of fact, they were not on the job as represented by the payroll. Two men by the name of Axel Johnson and Otto Mattson were on the payroll during the previous month, and they testified that they were not working in July.

Banks' defense is that the entire affair is a mistake in the matter of making up his payroll. He alleges that he engaged two men, who gave their names as Otto Mattson and Axel Johnson, to do some work on the North Shore road, four miles away, on the days in question, but that he put their names in the Ryan road payroll as a matter of convenience. He admitted that the two men were not the same as the ones who had been on the payroll of the Ryan road the previous month.

The indictment on the time checks of the Mattson and Johnson time checks was identified by J. D. Mahoney, a handwriting expert, as identical with that contained in Banks' time-book.

SMALL VERDICT ON LARGE CLAIM

Contractor Gets About One-Twenty-Fifth of What He Sued for.

School District, No. 39, St. Louis county, is indebted to Marius Hendrickson in the sum of $1,039.48 on a contract for the erection of a brick school building at Evelev in 1908, according to a verdict which was returned at noon today by a jury in Judge Ensign's division of the district court.

Henry C. Hendrickson, a brother of the plaintiff, entered into the contract Oct. 8, 1908 and completed the building Aug. 15, 1909, according to agreement, it was claimed. Before a settlement had been made between the contractor and the school district, the former assigned his interest in it to his brother, Marius Hendrickson, sued for $25,048.92 which he alleged was the balance due. The school district denied the liability and demanded judgment for $600 on a counterclaim because of work which it was alleged was not done according to the terms of the contract.

AMMONS WOULD NOT CLOSE COAL MINES

Says He Understood Federal Troops Would Leave State.

Denver, Col., Oct. 29.—"I see no occasion for closing the Colorado coal mines and imposing another industrial burden upon the state just at a time when the greatest demand for fuel is beginning," was the statement of Governor E. M. Ammons today, when told of a Washington dispatch indicating that President Wilson was considering whether he has authority to shut down the properties owned by operators who have refused to accept the Davis-Pailey plan of settlement of the miners' strike.

The governor said that the president would withdraw the federal troops about Nov. 15. In his judgment he felt safe to do so and the state will be prepared at that time to assume responsibility for keeping order in the strike district.

Woman's Realm

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Illinois suffragists opened their forty-sixth annual convention here today with nearly 600 delegates in attendance.

The adoption of a new constitution, the election of a president and the discussion of the practical use of the ballot will be the topics to hold the attention of the suffragists until Saturday. Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout was reported to have no opposition as candidate for re-election as president of the association.

The chief event of today's program will be the report of the congressional committee of the National American Woman Suffrage association, which will be made by Mrs. Modill McCormick.

A report on the results accomplished by the women of California, Mrs. Edward L. Stewart, corresponding secretary of the Illinois association, said that the women of the Golden State have answered the argument that women would lose interest in politics as soon as the novelty had worn off, by achieving legislation that had failed before women were granted the ballot.

"The women of Illinois," she said, "must feel their responsibility and use the opportunities they now have to secure for them the right to full suffrage in the future."

A club whose only aim is to entertain large audiences with high priced musical or vaudeville programs will not long hold its members for the women of the state must wake up, she said, with all the civic reforms needed in our state they will soon demand of our clubs serious programs that treat of our duties as citizens, as well as the artistic and social side of life.

Mrs. A. W. Hartman, president of the local branch, received the following notices from the corresponding secretary of the Needlework Guild of America:

"Dear Madam—Owing to the conditions brought about by the European war, it is expected by experts in the sociological field that the coming winter will be one of great hardships and distress, throughout the world. Therefore it is advised that every effort be made to increase the totals of the collections this year for our own country."

NEW SONG WITH A PECULIAR IDEA

Has a Love Secret Hidden Between the Lines.

New York has a new song which is said to be one of the oddest things written in a long time. It is called "I'm Going to Tell Your Mother," and is full of smiles and surprises until the last line is reached. A rather pretty girl is involved. Here she is:

The secret of the song is to discover what was told her mother. Here is part of the chorus:

I'M GOING TO TELL YOUR MOTHER

(New Song Hit)

I'm going to tell your mother - er,

Something I know about you, I think she ought to know, for it's about your beauty

I'm going to tell her - all a - bout you

An Easy Way to Get Fat and Be Strong

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat. Thanks to a remarkable new scientific discovery, it is now possible to combine into simple form the very elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This miracle-stroke of modern chemistry is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through its regenerative, reconstructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to every starved, broken-down cell and tissue of your body. You can readily picture the result when this amazing transformation has taken place and you notice how your cheeks fill out, hollows about your neck, shoulders and bust disappear and you take on from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. Boyce drug store, and other leading druggists of Duluth and vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied. See the guarantee found in every package. Caution: While Sargol has given excellent results in overcoming nervous prostration and general stomach trouble it should not be taken by those who do not wish to gain too much weight. —Advertisement.

CAN THE PRESIDENT CLOSE COAL MINES?

Point Is Seriously Considered Relative to Colorado Situation.

Washington, Oct. 28.—President Wilson is seriously considering whether he has authority to close the Colorado coal mines involved in the strike, if the operators continue to refuse the plan of settlement already accepted by the miners.

Attorney General Gregory conferred with the president today, and it was understood Mr. Wilson had asked him for a legal opinion on his right to close the mines, if public necessity, in his opinion, required that step. After seeing the president, Mr. Gregory refused to discuss the question.

The president has received suggestions that he close the mines. Some of his advisers have gone further and suggested that the government operate them. He is unwilling to keep Federal troops in Colorado indefinitely, but has been told by representatives of the miners that if they were withdrawn before a settlement is reached, fighting and rioting would break out.

RETURNS AND IS ARRESTED

New Duluth Man Held for Trying to Burn His Home.

Nich Jellich, aged 30, who is alleged to have set fire to his home at 1540 Ninety-ninth avenue west, New Duluth, on Sunday forenoon following a quarrel with his wife, was arrested at 11 o'clock last night at his home. He had returned just a short time before for the purpose of attempting to "make up" with his wife.

The police have been keeping a sharp lookout for the man ever since Sunday and he was brought to the headquarters this morning for safe keeping and arranged in police court.

An examination was set for tomorrow morning in police court. Jellich is said to have sprinkled rags, the floors and mattresses in the house with kerosene, and near the spot where the fire was discovered were found a number of matches.

WILL ORATE IF GIVEN CHANCE

Rev. W. H. Farrell Offers Himself as Sacrifice for Halloween Party.

Rev. W. H. Farrell, pastor of the Asbury Methodist church, has promised to be the "strong lunged" orator when the committee in charge of the Halloween celebration at the West Duluth was instructed to get for Saturday evening. If given the opportunity he will tell the crowd why the evening is celebrated and its origin.

Plans are rapidly nearing completion according to reports given by the chairman of the various committees this morning. The finance committee members say that the merchants have liberally supported the scheme and that enough money has been secured before evening to guarantee all the bills.

The music committee has secured the service of two accordion players as well as a band of half a dozen if and drum players to provide "regular" music for the celebration. They believe this will be enough to give assurance that there will be many players who will be anything but "regular."

Principals of the various schools have been requested by members of the committee to call at their schools to the children to the celebration and inform them why it is being held.

The intention of the celebration according to committee members, is to provide an evening of harmless fun and joy for the young people.

In former years there has been more or less damage done to property in various parts of the city on Halloween," said Mr. J. J. Phelan, chairman of the committee.

"We have planned the celebration this year to provide an innocent and healthy form of amusement for the young people and hope that they will appreciate this and refrain from any work of destruction."

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have.

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician.

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets, and they will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying out the waste and poisonous matter that one's system collects.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-god feel, listless, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets daily for a time and note the pleasing results.

"Thousands of women, as well as men, take Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets and are then just to keep in the pink of complexion."

ARE OPENING THE CAMPS

Weather and Labor Conditions Very Favorable to the Loggers.

Men Plentiful in Spite of the Exodus to Europe.

The call of European countries engaged in war for subjects in America to serve in their armies will cut down considerably the supply of men available for the work of the logging camps.

Even with the supply of men available for the work of the logging camps, there will be a shortage of men for the woods, it is said. Large numbers of these are expected to cut a large supply of timber, and many men will be needed.

Camps Opening. Roads are now being built and camps are opening daily. The weather is very favorable at present, but activity will be greatly increased when snow comes and the lowlands freeze solid.

Last year the mild weather prevented extensive operations, and for this reason the supply of lumber left over is not as large as it would be if the weather had been favorable in the woods last winter. Only the best men are being employed this fall, and the companies are anxious to get experienced woodsmen who will stay at work all winter.

Employment agents say that men this fall are holding to their jobs better than a year ago, and are satisfied with lower wages, fearing that the war may cripple business and diminish the demand for labor and a boom in the lumber business is expected after the war is over, and some of the lumbermen will prepare for this by putting out a big supply of logs ready for the mills next spring. Harvest hands from the Dakotas are coming daily now and are eager to get work for the winter.

NOBODY BLAMED FOR EXPLOSION IN MINE

Deaths Due to Fan Reversal That Saved Over 200 Lives.

Royalton, Ill., Oct. 28.—"Death by an explosion," was the verdict returned by a coroner's jury at the close of the trial in the deaths of fifty miners in the Franklin Coal & Coke company mine near here. No responsibility for the accident was placed by the jury.

The widows of the fifty miners among those killed in the explosion were found dead in their homes yesterday. Physicians declared they died of grief and shock. With scores of others, their bodies were found at the mouth of the mine all on one day and late into the night, vainly waiting for their husbands.

Gas Pocket Ignited. The disaster was due to an explosion that resulted when a miner's lamp came in contact with a pocket of gas that had collected in the mine, as testified by a mine examiner, and marked dangerous.

Some of the loss of life, it is said, might have been due to the precaution of an expert in testing the ventilating fan to see if it was running after the fatal explosion; but this action, ordered by the mine examiner, saved 250 men who scattered through the underground passages and finally by their way to the open air. Mine Manager James D. Brown went to the bottom of the shaft, nearly 400 feet, and directed seventy-five men to safety after the fans were reversed.

GOOD TIMES ARE COMING

Vice President of Pittsburgh Steel Company Is Optimistic.

Says Orders for Export Are Already Very Heavy.

W. H. Rowe, president of the Pittsburgh Steel Company, John Brindley, first vice president; Emil Winters, one of the directors; and W. L. McCook, vice president, are in the city today. The officers of the company are here on a trip of inspection of several mines, and will go from Duluth to visit the mine at Riverport. Henry Nelson of Duluth is with the Pittsburgh officials.

A note of optimism was struck by Vice President Brindley. This official declared that his observation and knowledge led him to foresee only an era of good business ahead for the United States.

"We can already see unmistakable signs of a readjustment of the present business conditions. The foreign orders on hand now are heavy and the indications point to a very great increase of these orders in the immediate future. By order I refer to steel, grain, manufactured articles of various kinds and food stuffs."

"The matter of transporting these articles is being arranged for. You know that England has even gone so far as to consent to permit certain articles to be shipped to Germany, cotton, for instance. The shipping of cotton will greatly alleviate the condition in the South."

"Basically there is no reason for any financial disturbance. Our crops are large and the condition of the country at large is sound. We have permitted ourselves to become frightened and frustrated by conditions abroad. The opening of the reserve banks is going to have a beneficial effect upon business at large. This will tend to loosen money and will also have the effect of preventing any financial panic."

"The little banker in the country tells some of his customers to hold on to their money, and the word is spread forth throughout the land. The fear is broadcast that there is a business depression and that a panic is ahead."

"The manager of our Chicago office told me that he expected the coming month to be one of the largest sales months that the books of the company had shown in a long time. There is a demand for products in this country, and with the readjustment of our export business, I, for one, see a very great amount of increase in all lines of commercial endeavor."

While Mr. Brindley acted as spokesman for the visiting steel men, the other officials of the company concurred in his optimistic utterance, and declared that he had expressed the situation just about as they would have stated their view of it.

SEVERE OUTBREAK IN HAITIAN REVOLUTION

Government Troops Are Driven Back—Ministry Flees to Consulates.

Port au Prince, Haiti, Oct. 23.—A serious revolutionary outbreak occurred in Port au Prince last night as a result of the landing here of Charles Zamor, a brother of the president of the republic.

There was shooting in the streets of the city throughout the night and encounters continued today. The members of the ministry have taken refuge in the foreign consulates.

The Netherlands steamer, Prins Willem came into Port au Prince yesterday evening at 10 o'clock. On board were President Zamor and his brother, Charles.

Government Forces Routed. Charles came ashore and his landing was the signal for the outbreak. The government forces opposed the rebels, but were driven back and compelled to evacuate their positions.

A force of rebels under Davila Theodore, leader of the rebellion and the man who has been proclaimed president by the revolutionists, has occupied the city, thirty miles north-east of Port au Prince, and is now marching on this city.

The present revolution in Haiti has been going on since the United States recognized the government set up last winter by President Zamor.

Reports from Port au Prince, under date of Oct. 23, set forth that the president, defeated by the rebels, had withdrawn to Gonaives and gave the composition of the new government under Davila Theodore.

The American cruiser Tacoma is at Port au Prince and American marines were landed in the city about a week ago to protect the American consuls, after an understanding with both Haitian factions.

Mr. Hammond assured his hearers that he has the utmost regard and respect for the sincerity of persons who are favoring county option, for the good of the state, but he asserted that some are espousing it for their own personal good. This silly came after he had shown that Mr. Lee, as speaker of the house, failed to vote against the motion to table the county option bill.

Mr. Lee, who was present, said that in 1902, although he was present, the motion was defeated and county option was lost to the state.

Big Crowd Everywhere. Big crowds welcomed the congressmen at every stop yesterday, and word came from towns along the line of the Northwestern, which are to be visited today on the way to the Twin Cities, that the special train at each stop today's trip and part of yesterday's carried in Mr. Hammond's district from which he has been elected to congress four times.

At Redwood Falls, Mr. Hammond before a large audience, with eyes flashing, Mr. Hammond indignantly denied the oft-repeated charge of "brewery control," and said: "I have come to the Second district to the people whom I have served, and of whom, because of the fact that I have a right to assume that they join me in repudiating the lie."

and several Western state railroads and commissions, are prepared to address the commission and he followed by counsel for the shippers of the district. Mr. Jacobson of Madison, a coal producer, and for lumber shippers, Louis D. Brandeis, special counsel for the commission, was ready to close the case for the opposition.

Not Matter of Grace. Mr. Patterson prefaced his argument with the statement that the commission should not ask the shippers to grant the desired increase in the matter of grace, nor claim that the principle of "promoting the prosperity of those industries whose prosperity is dependent on the well-being of the railroad" should be applied, regardless of the reasonableness of the increases proposed. It was contended, he said, that the increases suggested had been shown to be reasonable.

Prices were kept up and larger returns were received on its enormous watered capital. It was the most audacious and most comprehensive policy that has ever characterized any business movement in the history of the world.

After rumors of possible prosecution abroad, after congressional and governmental investigations were started, Mr. Dickinson declared, the steel trust had changed its method to reach the same ends. It dropped pools and agreements, and larger and broader schemes were devised. These were the famous Gary dinners, and meetings which were attended by ninety per cent of the iron and steel manufacturers of the country.

At the Gary Dinners. At the Gary dinners, E. H. Gary, head of the Steel corporation, was always the most active figure, and Mr. Dickinson alleged that understandings were reached by which prices were kept up. He ridiculed the explanations of the defense that the Gary dinners were held only to discuss business conditions and not fix prices, divide territory and limit output.

Roosevelt's Action. Once again the much-discussed acquisition of the Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad company by the Steel corporation came up for review. After some discussion with the court, Mr. Dickinson said that when President Roosevelt declined to interfere with the Tennessee transaction, he was dealing with a panic in New York, and that the department of justice in attacking the transaction was dealing with an unlawful acquisition of property. The whole thing, Mr. Dickinson said, resolved itself down to the question: "Can a man stop a panic in New York by having to violate the anti-trust law to do it?"

Defense Concluded. The defense yesterday closed its side of the case, and the government began its final attack against the big organization.

John G. Johnson of Philadelphia summed up for the defense in a two-hour speech that held the close attention of the crowded court room, and the government's case, began his attack against the defense.

Mr. Johnson opened with the general statement that the weight of the evidence in the suit was against the government; that the things complained of rested upon imperfect statements, and that when the government saw that its allegations had not been substantiated by the evidence, it should have withdrawn the action.

Nobody Harmed. No one harmed by the organization of the Steel corporation, he said, so far as the record showed, nor anyone, and the government's case, began his attack against the defense.

In his peroration Mr. Johnson said the court is asked to cut up the great organization into "miserable fragments." He predicted another war in which Germans will battle for the commerce of the world, and that the steel companies of the United States will be as pickles in the present European conflict.

Defense Finites. Mr. Dickinson, before proceeding to the issues in the case, said there never was a great corporation brought into court by some big corporation or corporation, but that the case was brought in by the public. He disagreed with Mr. Johnson that the government had not substantiated its case, and proceeded to point out what he declared to be conclusive proofs of instances of violation of the anti-trust law.

With infinite detail, he produced testimony from the case to show that by the merging of competitive companies, the Steel corporation had unduly restricted trade and competition. In reply to a question of the court Mr. Dickinson said that if the Steel corporation had done nothing unlawful after the organization, the government would have still prayed for the dissolution of the corporation on the ground that its formation was illegal.

was reported as having sunk a Japanese passenger steamer bound for Singapore.

Under Guns of Fort. The Emden's entrance into the waters of the Penang was audacious. She came under the guns of the fort, and after alighting the cruiser and the destroyer, escaped through the strait of Malacca. The fate of the crew on board the Emden is not known here.

Merchant vessels belonging to the belligerent nations are taking refuge at Colombo, Ceylon.

According to Code. Washington, Oct. 23.—For the German cruiser Emden to disguise herself by flying Japanese flags was not contrary to the regular recognized practice.

ties of war, naval officials here point out today. For firing on a foreign ship, however, is committing any other hostile act, they say, the Emden would be compelled to follow international law to haul down the foreign flag and hoist that of her own country.

No objection could be made, it was said, even if the Emden were to fly the American flag of disguise herself, provided she took it down before attacking a vessel.

One naval officer recalled an interesting case during the Chinese-Japanese war when a Japanese merchant ship was painted the color of a German commercial vessel and entered the port of Wei-Hai-Wei through a cordon of blockading ships, steamed around the port, obtained all the information the Japanese desired, and escaped before any deception was discovered by the Chinese.

against modern instruments of war such as the machine gun, and the submarine.

To the south and east, along the border of France, successes are reported by the French, and the Argonne and the Meuse are in French hands. None of the German attacks, it is said, has been successful.

EMDEN'S DARING FEAT. The German cruiser Emden, whose remarkable exploit has lately earned a place in history, is reported to have been captured by the British.

Disguised as a fourth smokeless, presumably taken from some captured vessel, the Emden is said to have sailed into the waters of Penang, a British naval base, and to have sunk a Russian battleship and a British destroyer.

MORE LOSSES AT SEA. The long list of losses on the sea continues to grow. A German steamer is reported to have been sunk off the coast of South Africa, although England's naval forces are reported to have put out the forces under Gen. Christian Beyers.

French Statement. Paris, Oct. 23, 5:50 p. m.—The French official announcement given out in Paris today stated that the French troops made progress at several points on the line but particularly around Ypres and to the south of Arras.

The text of the communication follows: "During the day of yesterday we made progress at several points along the line of battle," but particularly around Ypres and to the south of Arras.

"There is nothing new on the front between Neuport and Dixmude. "Between the Aisne and the Argonne the allies where the Germans have occupied by the enemy, and not one of our divisions has been taken by the Germans. We advanced also in the forest at Apremont."

Sending 200,000 Men. Paris, Oct. 23, 5:55 a. m.—The pause in the German attacks on the left wing of the allies where the Germans have fought furiously in their efforts to break through the French lines, is considered here to be only momentary.

Reliable reports are to the effect that heavy reinforcements are on their way, and that the order of Emperor William that the French ports must be taken and the French ports must be taken and the French ports must be taken.

Further From Coast. Reports are that the next German onslaught will be undertaken further away from the coast, in order to avoid the devastating effect of the British and French warships, which had thus far floundered.

While operations in Flanders have been at a standstill, the fighting in the center and in the south have, according to reliable reports, been continuing. The German offensive is said to have been slight gains.

There was a resumption today of interest in the operations in the West, where the French offensive is said to have met with great successes.

Under Kaiser's Order. London, Oct. 23.—Telegraphing from Copenhagen, the correspondent of the Times says: "It is learned in Berlin that from all parts of the east and west battle fronts soldiers are being sent to Belgium in response to the order of Emperor William to take Calais at all costs. It is officially announced that the Germans will be able to control the southern part of the coast as soon as they possess Calais."

All the entrance to Cuxhaven, by land and by sea, have been closed by Imperial command. No civilians are allowed in the vicinity of the harbor, which is crowded with floating batteries, Zeppelins and submarines."

Lull in the Fighting. London, Oct. 23.—The fourteenth day of the battle of West Flanders, which is being fought over an area hardly greater than a small farm in the state of Iowa, found the allies holding their ground to the west of the Yser and the Germans apparently bringing up more reinforcements to repeat their previous attempts to break through and reach the coast of France.

All dispatches seem to agree that there was a temporary lull yesterday in the fighting between Neuport and Ypres, but the reports are far from unanimous as to whether this was due to a truce, to the exhaustion of the combatants, or to the German lack of ammunition.

Not Yet Over. The London press hazards all three guesses, and contends that the rate that the position of the allies is satisfactory. The public is warned, however, that the struggle in this quarter is not yet over, for the Germans, if they find the northern part of the coast and the harbor impassable, may shift to the south, with Boulogne as an objective.

It was at Boulogne that Napoleon waited in vain for his troops to embark, and the taking of this city by the Germans would stir the German people as nothing else could.

Sixteen British Ships. Berlin claims that there has been no recent progress in the struggle in Flanders, and as if explaining this, says sixteen British warships are operating on the coast. This number never has been confirmed from British sources, but a dispatch from the ports that a battleship equipped with twelve-inch guns has gone to the assistance of the British monitors which have been shelling the Germans on shore.

Other reports speak of heavy firing in the North sea, as if a big naval encounter had taken place. Taken as a whole this morning's interpretation of the situation is silent. Taken as a whole this morning's interpretation of the situation is silent.

From South Africa came a statement that the German army had suffered a sharp defeat upon Gen. Beyers, the latest report that the revolutionary movement in the Union of South Africa.

Success For Russians. In the eastern arena of the war in Europe the Russians appear to have driven in the German right wing, says a dispatch from the Russian front. The Russian official admission of this is the German official admission of their troops, together with the Austrians, had retreated in Poland.

Beginning today the British court martial at Rattenberg, the first member of the royal family to be sacrificed in the war. The prince was a cousin of King George and a son of Prince Henry of Battenberg. He held a commission in the King's Royal Rifle Corps, and died of wounds received in battle. Royal condolences already have been sent to his sister, the queen of Spain, who but a few days ago gave birth to a son. The London papers devote considerable space to the death of Prince Maurice, saying that although a mere boy, he was a gallant sportsman.

Rumors About Zeppelins. There are recurring reports that the Germans are constructing sheds on the Belgian coast for the housing of Zeppelins. A local newspaper is offering fire insurance against Zeppelins to its subscribers.

There is no official confirmation of the reported German invasion of Portugal. The first boatload of food for Belgium under American supervision left London today.

for Governor Maytorena at Nogales, Sonora, are expected tonight by the train from Ensenada, according to a report from the Mexican government.

Brig. Gen. Bliss. The reinforcements are understood to include 170 men, seventy-five of whom are mounted on horseback. The situation at Naco is reported unchanged. The Carranza garrison at Agua Prieta is being reinforced from Naco.

Near Riot at Peace Talk. Mexico City, Oct. 23.—During the discussion of the various peace plans by the Aguila Calientes convention yesterday, a riot was nearly precipitated by reason of the acrimonious speeches.

A number of delegates drew their revolvers and spectators in the galleries made a wild dash from the building. The first boatload of food for Belgium under American supervision left London today.

The majority of the delegates declared themselves in favor of the plan of Emiliano Zapata, known as the Ayala plan, in preference to the plan of Venustiano Carranza.

Gen. Zapata, Gen. Pacheco attacked the suburbs of San Angel yesterday morning, but were driven off after two hours of heavy fighting. The government sent out artillery, which forced the retreat of the attacking force.

Carranza Sees Villa. San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 9.—Venustiano Carranza, president of the republic, issued a manifesto in which he gives the full history of differences between the Constitutional government and the division of the north, and especially its commander, Francisco Villa.

Carranza predicts a bloody strife. Villa is permitted to rebel. Among other things in the manifesto, made public here, says:

"Gen. Villa, who now appears to be the chief of the revolution, has been expelled from the state of Chihuahua, and his followers are being driven out of the state. He is a traitor to the cause of the republic, and his actions are a disgrace to the name of the republic."

250,000 GERMANS IN BATTLE AT THE YSER

River Is No Longer Between Allies and the Enemy.

London, Oct. 23.—A dispatch to the Times dated "Northern France, Tuesday," estimates that Germany has a quarter of a million men fighting for the road to Calais, and probably another 100,000 on the way to reinforce them.

The dispatch says there was good reason a couple of days ago to believe that the Germans were ready to withdraw from East Belgium, but that would be a mistake to assume that the allies had been entirely successful in this river battle. The great bulk of the fighting, the dispatch adds, is now proceeding on the left bank of the Yser, and the river is, broadly speaking, no longer between the allies and the enemy.

Must Leave Petrograd. London, Oct. 23.—"The Austrians and Germans, except those of Slavish, French or Italian nationality, have been ordered to leave Petrograd within a fortnight," says the Exchange agency's correspondent in a dispatch from the Russian capital.

DO YOU KNOW THE POSSIBILITIES OF OUR TIME CARD?

Do you realize what annoyance you may save yourself during the cold winter mornings by a few minutes spent in studying it?

Do you know that you may prepare from it a little private time card to hang beside your telephone, that will save you many annoying experiences of "just missing a car?"

Residents of the suburbs have learned its uses. It can be found useful by every Duluthian who uses the cars regularly.

Let us illustrate. Let us suppose that you live at Fifteenth avenue east and take a Superior street car to your work in the vicinity of Third avenue west where you desire to arrive at about 8:30. Ask the car starter for one of our time cards; turn to page showing west bound West Duluth, Aerial Bridge, East End, Lakeside and Woodland cars at that time of morning (page 8). Under the column "Pass 3rd Ave. W." you find there are twelve cars passing Third avenue west from 8:19 to 8:39. By glancing at the columns to the left you find that three of these cars come from the Aerial Bridge. All the others come from Twenty-fourth avenue east, but the 8:25 car you will see is marked with a dagger, indicating that it runs on Sundays only. This leaves eight cars which will pass your corner (if you eliminate the half minute and allow only four minutes from Twenty-fourth avenue to be on the safe side) as follows and arrive at Third avenue west just ten minutes later:

From Lester Park	8:09
From Lester Park	8:14
From St. Paul Ave. (Hunter's Park)	8:16
From Lester Park	8:19
From 24th Ave. (from Lester Park on Sundays only)	8:23
From Lester Park	8:24
From Austin Street	8:26
From Lester Park	8:29

You may extend the arriving time at Third avenue west if you wish and this will give you a little "private time card" for your particular corner. You can then plan on the car you wish to take before leaving your house and if you keep your time piece properly regulated and arrange to get to the corner at the proper time you will about forty-nine times out of fifty have the pleasure of seeing your car just approaching the corner.

This is about the height of the "morning rush" and at this hour you must expect the cars to be crowded. You can, however, depend on those which come from Lester Park or Austin street being more crowded than those which come from St. Paul avenue and you will find those that come from Twenty-fourth avenue will have plenty of vacant seats even at this hour in the morning.

By consulting your timecard you will note that the car which passes your corner at 8:23 comes from Twenty-fourth avenue and if 8:33 will not be too late for you to reach Third avenue you should by all means select this car and we can guarantee you a seat in it. We would at the same time suggest that you avoid the car passing your corner at 8:26 as it comes from the extreme end of the Woodland avenue line and is one of the most crowded cars of the day.

Those who make regular trips on the cars will be surprised to find how much more they can add to their comfort and that of others by giving a little attention to these matters. The timecard may "look complicated" and as it shows all of the cars run and is for the guidance of our employes as well as for the convenience of patrons it must necessarily show much detail and it may not seem worth while to many in sections where cars are passing every few minutes to study it out, but we would be only too glad on application to supply anyone with a simple little "private time card" as above for any stopping place on our lines, and we will also be glad to suggest to patrons in what cars they can usually find seats and which cars to avoid at the rush hours on account of their being crowded.

"There's a Reason" why more and more coffee drinkers quit coffee and use—

Once convinced that coffee-drinking is actually harmful to health, few parents would give coffee to their children, or drink it themselves.

What proof more convincing than the unnatural aches and pains that many coffee-drinkers suffer?

What proof more conclusive than the scores of expert medical and scientific opinions against coffee?

Brain, Stomach, Heart, Liver and Kidneys are the first organs to be affected. Sometimes it shows in headache; often in nervousness, indigestion or heart disturbance; frequently in biliousness or disturbed vision.

If you are in doubt, try this test—
Stop coffee ten days and use POSTUM

This pure food-drink made of prime wheat and a small per cent of molasses, has a rich, Java-like flavour and is absolutely pure and free from the coffee-drug, caffeine, or any other harmful ingredient.

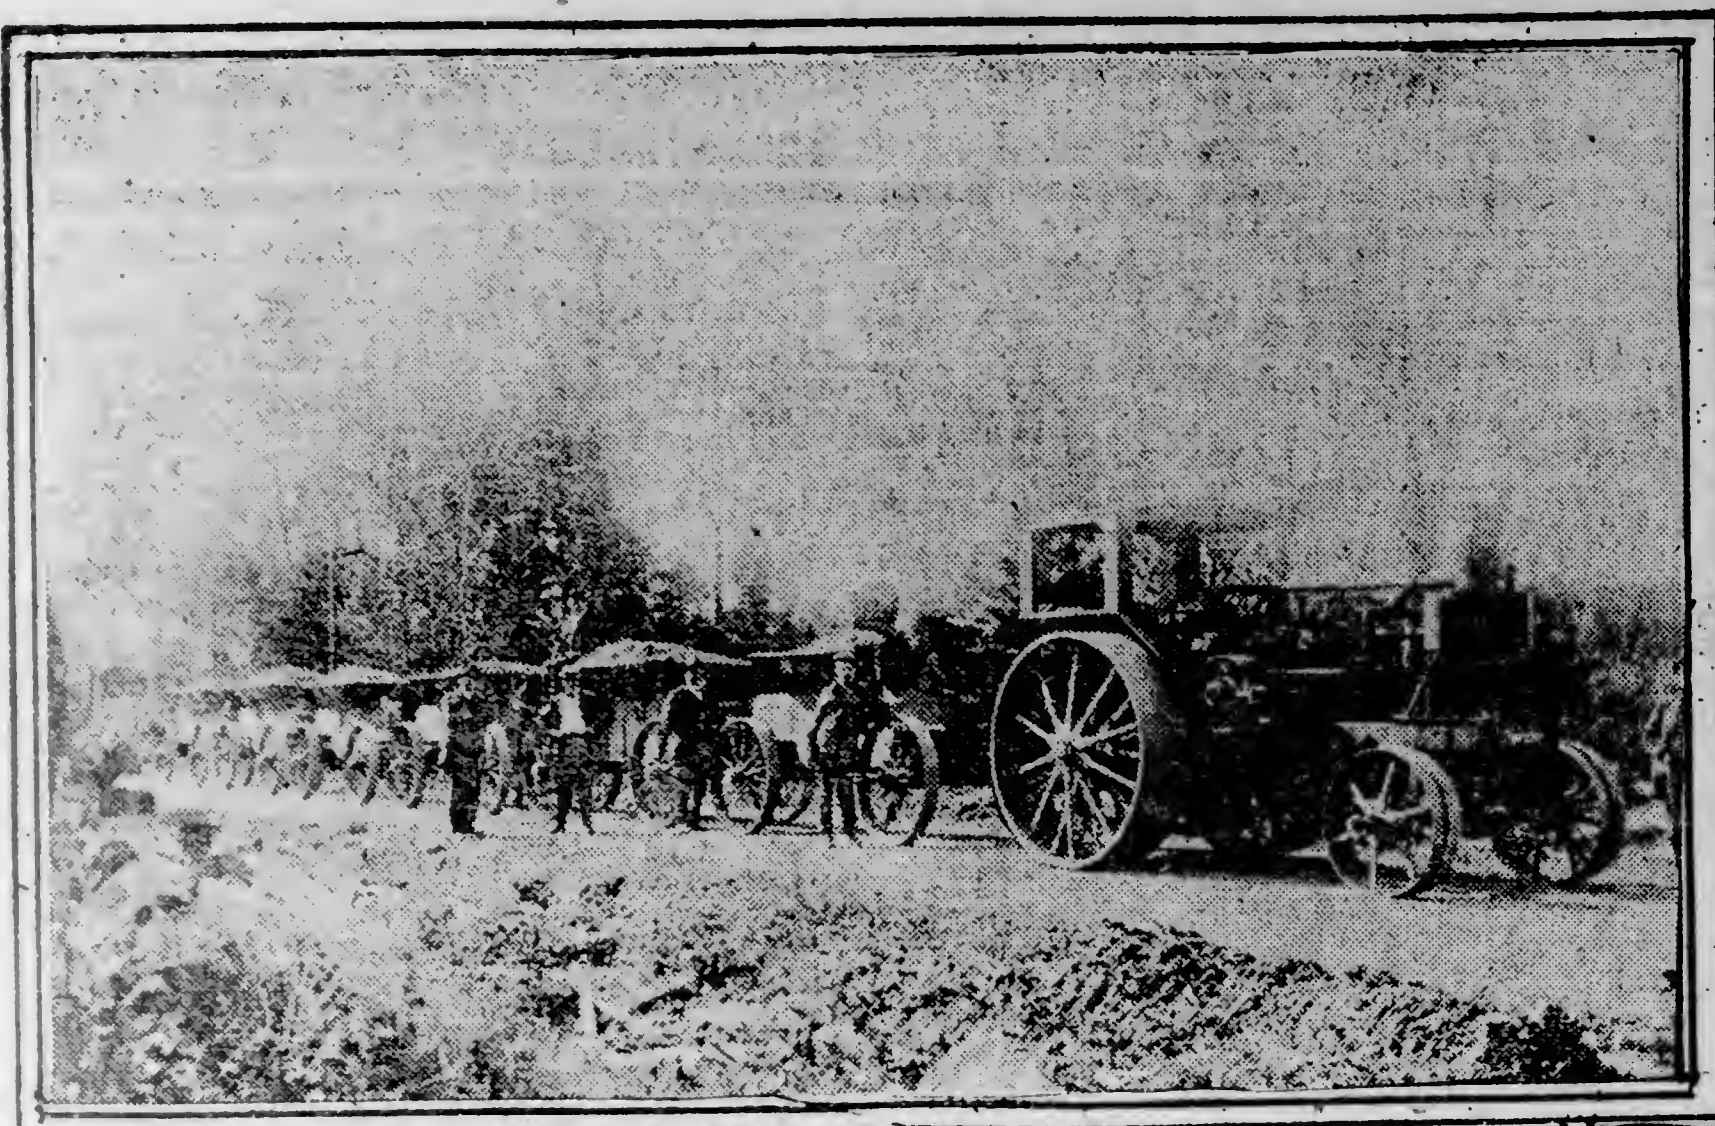

Postum comes in two forms:
Regular Postum—must be boiled. 15c and 25c packages.
Instant Postum—needs no boiling. A teaspoonful of the soluble powder stirred in a cup of hot water makes a delightful beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Grocers everywhere sell both kinds, and the cost per cup is about the same.

SPENDING HALF A MILLION A YEAR FOR ROADS

HAULING GRAVEL FOR COUNTY ROADS

NE-HALF a million a year for roads in St. Louis county? It is almost as much as the aggregate spent in the rest of the state, yet still comes the complaint of the lack of good highways. And the county commissioner, who is just as eager as the farmer and the autoist to get a road into a market as he is in having autoists riding on paved highways in cushioned comfort is a much misunderstood man. He has both the farmer and the autoist on his trail and hardly a day passes that he does not listen to many complaints and he lives awake nights wondering how he can keep within the appropriation allowed to his district.

People complain of the lack of good roads. And by this is usually meant the lack of highways paved with macadam or concrete leading from Duluth in every direction. Last year St. Louis county appropriated $550,000 for roads. It has proven to be none too large to cover an area so vast as this county.

Other Road Funds.
The amount appropriated annually by the new county board does not include the cost of upkeep and building new highways in a number of the range townships, which have their own road funds to carry on such work. Among these townships are Stuntz, Great Scott, Nichols, Missabe Junction, Faval, White and Ilwaco. It is in these localities that some of the finest roads of the state are to be found. In 1919, the road appropriation was but $125,000. It has grown steadily since. In 1911 it was $250,000. In 1912, $285,000; in 1913, $285,000 and 1914, $550,000.

During the last year more attention has been paid to the selection and use of improved road-making machinery than has been done formerly. Early in the season County Auditor Olin Halden and a number of the commissioners made a trip to the plants of some of the largest manufacturers of road machinery and were enabled to get first-hand information and good prices on a number of things which were needed in the line of machinery.

New Machinery.
Approximately $25,000 was spent in purchasing machinery for the various districts. Among other things, three tractors, three large rollers, one rock crusher and several dump cars, rock drags, plows, etc., were bought and are now being pressed into service.

One of the pictures reproduced above shows a road tractor hauling six carloads of gravel along the Miller Trunk highway. The capacity of each dump car is about three yards of gravel. The train shown in the picture was taken at a point on the Miller Trunk about six miles out of the city. The dirt from which the gravel was taken was located about three and a half miles from the place where the gravel was needed. On this haul the train made two trips a day, carrying about thirty-six yards three and one-half miles.

One of the big problems which Charles Kauppi, commissioner for the Fifth district, is working on is to straighten out the kinks in the old Miller Trunk road. The Miller Trunk, about sixty miles long, is the best single stretch of improved highway in St. Louis county. It connects Duluth direct with Eveleth and the range towns. It was built on a bond issue in 1896 and has already probably cost the county close to $200,000. When the 1914 road fund was appropriated, $20,000 was set aside for the improvement of the Miller Trunk.

Straightening Road.
"Wherever possible," said Commissioner Kauppi, in whose district the major portion of the highway lies, "we are trying to straighten out the old trail and make easier grades. In doing this, we occasionally find it necessary to cut off a little strip of land belonging to the farmer whose land fronts on the highway. In some instances, farmers are willing to take the land taken, but others raise a fuss, build a fence across the proposed road and get out an injunction. For the most part, however, the farmers are usually willing to help the improvement along."

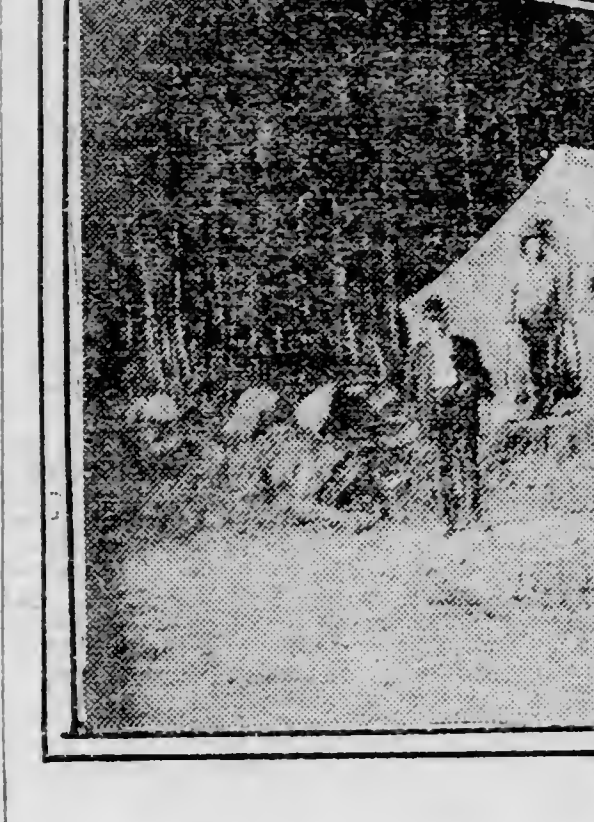

A stretch of the Miller Trunk road about thirty-two miles out of Duluth traverses lowland, which is of a more or less swampy character. A crew of men and a ditcher are now at work on this stretch, which is about twelve miles in length. Ditches are being dug on either side of the road so as to drain the bogs.

Getting out of Duluth on the Miller Trunk road is now made an easier matter since the opening up of the Fraser cut-off out of Duluth Heights and another connecting highway known as the Larson road, which joins the old Miller Trunk at a point about five miles out of the city. By taking the Fraser and Larson roads, hills are avoided and the route is shortened about three-fourths of a mile.

County Bridges.
One of the finest county highway bridges in St. Louis county has just been completed in the Third commissioner's district. It spans a ravine over Keene's creek on the Getchell bridge. The bridge is of reinforced concrete construction and was built at a cost of $2,400. The improvement is within the city limits and, according to Commissioner Walter Swanstrom, of all descriptions are kept here for use in county road work. The building was constructed at a cost of $14,000.

bridge is reproduced herewith. Above is also shown a new tool house, which was erected during the past season in Commissioner Swanstrom's district. Tools and implements of all descriptions are kept here for use in county road work. The building was constructed at a cost of $14,000.

NELSON REPLIES TO C. B. MILLER

Democratic Congressional Candidate Addresses New Duluth Audience.

Andrew Nelson, Democratic candidate for congress, and Fred L. Ryan, secretary of the congressional committee, addressed a large audience which gathered last evening at Macabee hall, New Duluth, and got a reception which astonished them by its warmth. They both felt that Mr. Nelson will get a heavy majority from that part of the city, and that Mr. Hammond, Democratic candidate for governor, will get the vote almost solid. Both spoke for Mr. Hammond's election as well as for Mr. Nelson. The chairman of the meeting was Christ Christensen.

Mr. Nelson replied to the statement recently credited to Congressman Miller, when the latter is reported as saying that the income tax was passed by the Republicans.

"Mr. Miller's memory must be slipping," said Mr. Nelson. "He says that the sixteenth amendment, which passed the way for the income tax law, was proposed by congress three years ago. In that case, it was proposed by a Democratic house and a Republican senate. It was impossible to pass such a law until after Feb. 25, 1913, and congress since that time has been far from having a Republican complexion. The law was passed by a Democratic house and senate, and Mr. Miller has no ground for his claim."

"Another thing I would like to know about is: Why did Mr. Miller vote against the income tax law?"

Mr. Ryan told his audience that he has known Mr. Nelson for seven years and felt that he was in a position to speak with some degree of authority in favor of the Democratic candidate for congress. He declared that Mr. Nelson, by reason of his ability, his gift of diplomacy, his predilection for hard work, and the fact that the Democrat is bound to have more influence with an opposite party, is better fitted than anybody else he knows for the office of congressman from the Eighth district. The address seemed to please the audience immensely and Mr. Ryan was liberally applauded.

This evening Mr. Nelson will speak at Gilbert, Minn., and on Saturday he will speak at Cook. At the latter place, another speaker will be Luke Burns of Virginia.

The Hillside Hammond club will hold a special meeting this evening at Gonska's hall on Fourth street.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Caspar Schenk, Progressive candidate for United States senator in Iowa, was offered $673.40 aid by the National Progressive committee.

Senator Clarke of Arkansas reported he had received no contributions, and his only expenditure for re-election was $37.50 to the state for having his name printed on the ballot.

BIG GERMAN GUN EXPLODES; 250 DEAD

Madrid Sends Story of Fearful Accident—Russian Troops Fresh.

London, Oct. 25.—From Madrid comes an unconfirmed story of the explosion of one of the German sixteen-inch howitzers, which possibly explains an extremely violent concussion which was supposed at the time to indicate the blowing up of the pier at Zebruge.

According to the Madrid account, this gun, which was being used on the German right wing, was overcharged and exploded. The concussion killed all the gunners in the vicinity, some 250 in all, besides wounding a number of men at a considerable distance.

The German retirement from Poland and the resumption of the offensive by Russia all along the front in the East is generally ascribed in London to the enormous reserves brought up by the Russian commander-in-chief, who has been ordered frequently on the banks of the Vistula, the Russians make daily changes.

Russians All Veterans.
A Russian is said to have been reported so often that virtually every Russian soldier within striking distance of the invaders is now a veteran. While the German retirement may not be the rout pictured in Petrograd, it is nevertheless held here to be true that the retreat has progressed so far that Warsaw is today free of the menace of investment and with the pressure on their center relieved the Russians are now devoting more attention to the campaign in Galicia.

Petrograd reports that the garrison of Przemyśl is defending this fortress with extraordinary obstinacy. The forts are well armed and tens of thousands of workmen are employed in strengthening the fortifications. In anticipation of an investment the supplies of ammunition are large.

The weakness of the fortress is reported to be in the scarcity of provisions. Enormous quantities had been collected by the Austrians in outlying villages, but the unexpectedly speedy advance of the Russians resulted in the seizure of these supplies.

CONVICT USED FOR WARDEN'S CHAUFFEUR

Sing Sing Warden Admits Taking Banker Outside of Prison.

Ossining, N. Y., Oct. 25.—T. J. McCormick, warden of Sing Sing prison, now under suspension, admitted today that David A. Sullivan, now serving a sentence in Sing Sing prison for the part he played in the kidnapping of the Union Bank of Brooklyn, had frequently been outside the prison on automobile rides.

Mr. McCormick's admission was made on the witness stand in the investigation started here today by Stephen C. Baldwin of Brooklyn, Governor Glynn's special commissioner.

McCormick testified that Sullivan had been detailed to drive the automobile, and that the detail was in line with McCormick's policy of having all work done by prisoners wherever possible.

McCormick testified that he had bought the automobile which Sullivan drove out of his own funds, expecting to be reimbursed perhaps later.

Sullivan, he said, had driven him to New York and Yonkers and had been left at times alone in the city.

"The reason I selected Sullivan," McCormick said, "was because he had the appearance of a gentleman, and I considered it necessary to have such a person driving a passenger car."

Further questioning elicited the reply that although Sullivan was senile, he was a hard worker and had done a great deal of writing shorthand, and that he was a good driver of an automobile. He also kept books.

McCormick testified that, so far as he knew, Sullivan had never transacted any personal business while absented from prison on automobile trip.

SECRETARY BRYAN TALKING IN IOWA.

Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 25.—W. J. Bryan, secretary of state, began his campaign speech-making tour of Iowa early today at North McGregor, reaching that point from La Crosse, Wis. During the day he had engagements to speak at Calmar, New Hampton, Osceola, Waterloo and Marshalltown.

A New Principle in Complexion Treatment

Most creams are injurious when used habitually. They clog the pores and eventually form a permanent, soggy, stiffening film which interferes with the skin's natural action and makes the skin sickly and pasty. There is an application—mercolized wax—which acts upon an entirely different principle. While perfectly harmless, it has the peculiar property of removing by absorption the dead and half-dead particles of sebum, skin, as well as unhealthy matter in the pores. Thus it takes away from the skin of adding to the complexion, differing in this respect from cosmetics. The results are a perfectly natural and healthy young complexion. Mercolized wax, procurable at any drug store (one ounce is sufficient), is applied at night like cold cream and washed off in the morning.

The correct principle in the treatment of wrinkles is to tighten the skin, which may be done by the use of mercolized wax. A few bath, remarkably effective in this direction, may be made by dissolving 1 oz. powder in 1 qt. of water. —Advertisement.

"AM I MY BROTHER'S KEEPER?"

By DR. SAMUEL G. DIXON,
Commissioner of Health for Pennsylvania.

Those who are ever ready to cry out that their personal liberty is being attacked, when the welfare of their neighbors demands some restriction of their actions, are as a rule among the first to denounce a similar desire for freedom on the part of others.

Modern methods of administering the health laws of the state and municipalities render strict quarantine necessary for certain communicable and infectious diseases, and in the case of children this is often followed by exclusion from school for an additional period of time.

It would seem obvious to any unprejudiced observer that to require this for the protection of the innocent and unprotected fellow citizens is not alone just from the standpoint of mankind but the higher mandates of divine law as well.

Strange as it may seem, there are many worthy people who would permit their selfish interests to blind them to these duties. Part of this is no doubt due to their ignorance of the dangers which may result from carelessness. Hundreds of deaths annually from measles, for instance, might be avoided if parents would not look upon it as a mere or less trivial condition incidental to childhood from which their own and other people's children must inevitably suffer.

The child with a sore throat who is permitted to go without medical attention and whose school may prove the source of an epidemic of diphtheria which will cost lives and heartbreak.

No matter how efficient the administration of the public health laws by the authorities, unless the public is educated to appreciate the necessity and will co-operate with the law, it will be impossible to triumph over disease. All thinking men, regardless of their political or religious affiliations, must deplore the conflict in which so large a portion of the civilized world is now engaged. The same spirit which prevents the individual from answering in the affirmative the question, "Am I my brother's keeper?" when his selfish desire is to be weighed against the welfare of his fellows, has apparently taken possession of Christian nations.

If we do our duty to others, it will redound to the protection and well-being of ourselves.

FORGOT TO ASK THE LADY.
Youth's Companion: Ludwig Wilhelm Bruggemann, a scholar, who was in 1817 a councillor of the consistory at Stettin, had got some reputation by his clever work with statistics. For many years he had been a widower, and since he found single life lonely, he began to look around for a wife.

When the thought of marrying again first came to him, he immediately confided it to one of his friends. The latter gave him every encouragement and even went so far as to mention a certain charming little widow, who was certainly attached to him, and would make him a most devoted wife.

That night Herr Bruggemann went to bed in a happy state of mind, thinking of the lovely widow. In his dreams he still saw her, and even projected to her. Did she refuse? How could she! And he spent the remainder of the night dreaming of the happiness they would enjoy as man and wife.

When he awoke it was a glorious Sunday morning; he dressed himself in his very best clothes, and wasted no time in handing to the minister the announcement of the engagement to be read in due form at the morning service. The announcement was made without a question. Hardly had the words been uttered when a little scream was heard in the rear of the church; the widow, shocked at hearing herself so unexpectedly disposed of, had fallen in a swoon.

The blunder could never be satisfactorily explained, and the visionary engagement remained visionary. The lady might not have refused an honorable proposal from the councillor, but she never could be convinced that he had not made intentional game of her.

France, in 1915, exported silk goods valued at $72,311,503.

Just Between You and Me

By BRUCE

A COMPLETE overturn of the dope would be accomplished in the defeat of Harvard by the University of Michigan.

One of the most weird pieces of football information is that which declares that Yost seems not at all visibly disheartened over the defeat at the hands of Syracuse.

"Syracuse cannot justly accuse us of not being courteous," the Michigan mentor is quoted as saying. "We did just as much to defeat ourselves as Syracuse. Two fumbles led to two touchdowns and other mistakes gave the Michigan opponents the opportunities for other success."

As we said, it would be the strangest, most weird and altogether most outlandish piece of football reading of the season, should the Wolverines come through. It would be more fiendishly improbable that some of the fiction of the late Jules Verne or H. G. Wells.

By this time the Michigan men are encamped at Ann Arbor, about ten miles out from Boston. Here, in the environment where some of the greatest history of our country has been made, Fielding H. Yost, grim with the desire of victory, will shape the mental attitude of his warriors for the big intersectional battle.

Badgers Have Great Chance. EVEN the best informed of the Chicago critics declare that the Wisconsin team has a grand opportunity to win the game Saturday from Chicago.

Walter Eckersall is one of those who comes forth and concedes the chance of the men of Madison. Eckersall declares that Chicago will have to play better football against Wisconsin than the Maroons did against Purdue to encompass the downfall of the Cardinal team.

From this point of the going it appears that the West will witness two of the greatest games that have been played in the conference for some time. Illinois comes to Minneapolis with the reputation of having one of the best teams in years. Surely the playing of the Gophers entitles the Williams team to a great amount of respect.

Hawley Strong in Iowa.

DESPITE the fact that the University of Iowa football team met with reverses at the hands of Chicago and Minnesota, the enthusiasm at Iowa City is the greatest in a decade.

Jesse Hawley, the former Dartmouth player, has already been sought to consent to return next year. It is said that the student members of the faculty and townspeople are for the retention of Hawley. When the members of a faculty rise in enthusiastic unanimity and declare their desire to see the coach back another season, the enthusiasm is some enthusiasm.

Zuppke's Big Opportunity. FOR YEARS and then some added years the Illini have been pining away for a victory over Minnesota.

In 1898 Illinois defeated Minnesota by the narrow margin of one point. The game was played back of the West hotel, on the old baseball grounds, and snow drifts banked each end of the field. The score was 11 to 10.

In 1900 the Gophers defeated the Illini team by the score of 23 to 0, and repeated the trick the following year by the score of 18 to 0. In 1902 and 1903, as well as 1911, 1912 and 1913 the Gophers defeated the Illini. Therefore it will be seen that in eight trials the Urbana team has won but one contest.

Zuppke is credited in some places with having the greatest team that has ever represented Illinois. Minnesota has a real team and the battle should be one that will be filled with thrilling interest.

Old and Honorable Foes. THE CONTEST scheduled for Saturday at Madison between Chicago and Wisconsin will be the nineteenth game between the two college teams. Of the games played, Chicago has won eleven and Wisconsin six, the 1909 game ending in a 6 to 6 tie.

Last season the Maroons downed the Cardinals by the score of 19 to 6.

o. The game was on the Chicago grounds and Stagg was represented by one of his smart and quick playing teams, if the 1913 Maroons were not an exceptional powerful aggregation. This season the Badgers will be fighting on their own grounds and with a team that is generally credited as the best that has represented Wisconsin since 1911, the year the Badgers gave the West one of its genuine surprises by holding the strong Minnesota team to an even score game.

From 1907 to 1911 there was a decided deterioration in the quality of the football teams of the University of Wisconsin. Faculty interference and the failure to secure the right kind of coaching resulted in the football slump. The Badgers have perked up right smartly during the last few years and this year are hopeful of annexing the conference championship.

In the golden period of Wisconsin's gridiron prosperity, the names of such great players as Pat O'Dea, Harvey Holmes, Sam Anderson, Jerry Rordian, Ike Karel, Gregg, Henry Cechem, Artie Curtis, Emil Skow, Findley, Juneau, Norsky Larson, and Red Abbott stand prominently forth.

Wisconsin has been called in the days of the halcyon past the Princeton of the West. The students of the Badger school have always stood gamely by their team. Win or lose, the bleacher delegation at Madison was cheering until the game was over—yes, and at times have stood bareheaded in the stands and cheered for the team after a losing game.

Madison is one of the football spots in the West where there should be a great team. On its own grounds Wisconsin is one of the hardest teams in the world to defeat. With the belief that the Cardinal team has a great chance to win the conference title, the fight against Chicago will be one of the greatest made by any Wisconsin team in years.

Several Minors Will Advocate Taking Outlaws Into Organized Baseball.

Important Meeting Next Month—Federals Tempt Roger Bresnahan.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—President Johnson of the American league yesterday returned from an outing in Wisconsin, and said the National commission would be represented probably by himself, at the meeting in Omaha on Nov. 10-12 of the National Association of Minor Leagues. It is reported that several momentous questions will come up for decision at that meeting, because of the activity last season of the Federal league.

Owing to the question of drafting players of promise, and placing those not actively employed, two minor leagues already have indicated they will favor taking into organized baseball the Federalists. President M. E. Justice of the National Association is the leader in this movement, and he has the backing of the Northern league, of which John Burmeister is chief.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Roger Bresnahan, Chicago National's catcher, admits that he has found acceptable the terms offered by the Brooklyn Federal league club, but says he has not signed. Meanwhile he and Bill Armour, manager of the Kansas City American association team, consulted together yesterday over what they admitted was a proposition to purchase a club in the association. It was rumored that the club they sought was that now representing Cleveland in the association, which they propose to move back to Toledo.

WILL BE IN GAME.

Merton Dunnigan Comes to Aid of Minnesota Team.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 29.—Merton Dunnigan, who it was announced, would not play with the University of Minnesota football team against Illinois next Saturday, probably will be in the game after all. Dr. Williams, the Gopher coach, said that Dunnigan felt a duty to the university. "Dunnigan's loss would weaken the team," explained Dr. Williams, "and he appreciates the fact. His father died Tuesday, but he believes it would be his father's wish to go in and fight for Minnesota. It is quite probable the big guard will be in his regular position."

Chicago, Oct. 29.—The University of Chicago football squad will leave Friday afternoon for Madison in a special train Saturday morning. A special trainload of rooters will leave Chicago Saturday morning for Camp Randall, accompanied by the Midway band. Defensive drill with the freshmen for Badgers, took up most of yesterday's practice drill.

DULUTH CENTRAL TEAM IS READY FOR SUPERIOR

Coach Gyler's Men Are in Best Shape of Season and Expect to Defeat Old Football Rivals After Hard Battle; Superior Credited With Having a Real Eleven.

Duluth Central high school is ready for the game of Saturday with the Superior Central high school football team. Superior is credited with having a far stronger team than last year. With the Duluth team not the equal of the great team of last year the indications are that the game will be one of the hardest fought in the history of the two schools.

"Yid" O'Brien may not be in the game of Saturday. The sturdy full-back is ill and his place in the practice of the present week has been taken by Lawson, the plugging and fighting back who played so great a game against Ironwood.

Reports from the two schools indicate that the interest in the game is the greatest in the history of the annual battle between the two Centrals. Rivalry between the two schools has always been great and the promise of a close battle this year and the uncertainty as to the outcome of the contest have added greatly to the general anticipation of the coming gridiron struggle.

Duluth in Good Shape. With the exception of O'Brien all of the players of the Duluth team are in the best of condition. Warner has been doing some remarkable punting in practice and it is figured that the booting of the crack tackle will give Duluth a decided advantage.

Duluth's line is expected to be stronger in the coming game than at any time the present season. The line made in the St. Paul game are not expected to be repeated in the contest against Superior. Another thing—the experience against the hard playing St. Paul aggregation of the season, the feeling here is that the red and white warriors will win after one of the hardest games of the season. Starting off with green and practically untired material, it has required a lot of work to whip Duluth into shape. Despite the beating received from St. Paul, that game marked the high point of development reached by the local high school team this season. Any improvement over the form shown last week will make Gyler's team one of the toughest teams in this part of the state to defeat.

Superior's team is rated as far stronger than the eleven that was given such a decisive licking last year by the Duluth team. Followers of the over-the-hay eleven expect it to trim Duluth. This belief is based upon the record of the local high school team for the entire season. Admitting that Duluth Central has nothing to boast of in the way of a record, it is nevertheless true that Central has come fast in the last two weeks and should be able to take the measure of the hated rivals.

All indications point to one of the largest crowds that has ever witnessed a football game at Athletic park. Not only does the crowd promise to be a record breaker, but the noise and general enthusiasm will be great. Duluth Central students will wear class colors and will let loose some new yells and songs for the general edification of the multitude.

The Harvard varsity team yesterday had a long session behind closed gates, going through a protracted dummy scrimmage which ended in fifteen minutes of real football. The crickets of last week were in the lineup, except Brickley and Sokey.

Mahan dropped three goals from the field in four tries, one being from outside the 40-yard line.

STALLION RACE OFF; CHAMPION TEAM SOLD

GOPHER SHIFT WORRIES ILLINI

Freshmen Team Carries Ball Against the Urbana Team.

Champaign, Ill., Oct. 23.—Scout Jones report that the Minnesota shift and general style of play was dangerous as was verified yesterday when the freshmen walked over the varsity for three touchdowns. The first two scores came within fifteen minutes of play and the last near the close of the long scrimmage.

Regulars in Lineup.
All of the regulars were in the scrimmage, fighting hard to get their positions, as Zupke has indicated some changes. Clark piloted the varsity and seemed to have completely recovered from minor injuries which kept him out of Saturday's game. Pogie, the most sensational open field runner who has done an orange and blue unit form for years, occupied his regular berth at left half. Macomber played right half, while the freshman, Schomburg, was at center.

Freshmen Use Shift.
Capt. Chapman was out of the game for a few minutes and Warner, substitute center, was sent into the left tackle job. Otherwise the regular lineup was intact. The freshmen kept the ball all evening. They received the ball from the kickoff and using

WALKER SAYS HE WILL WIN

Canadian Champion Is Confident of Beating Walter Miller.

BY BRUCE.

Wearing a gay cap and carrying several large editions of the illustrated war news, George Walker, holder of three distinct midweight championships, alighted from the Canadian Northern train yesterday. After a short rest the Canadian was out on the road and covered four miles out on London road during the afternoon.

"Sure, I'll beat Miller," said the confident Canadian; "that's what I came down here to do. I don't see where he can beat me and I do see where I have it on him. I think I will win. You know I'm pretty tough and make his going any they bring me. After the first fall I expect to go in and beat Miller handsly."

Walker is one of the cleanest cut looking wrestlers that ever came to Duluth. A fine looking boy, well built, he has the look in the eye that bespeaks real gameness and fighting ability. One good look at the Canadian and the observer will be satisfied that the Vancouver boy is a lad who knows how to take care of himself.

Come of Good Stock.
The wrestler who will attempt to win the first contest in the world's midweight tournament, is of Scotch-Irish stock, a good fighting mixture. He is a boy in years, being but 23 years of age. During his career he has wrestled from coast to coast, won two midweight championships in London, Eng., and was personally commented with several other noted Canadian athletes by King George of England.

Miller has less to say regarding the contest of tonight than any other match he has wrestled in here. The little Pole is desperately in earnest. His appearance removes all doubts concerning his condition. The referee at Washington that Miller has been undergoing to be right for this contest are confirmed by his appearance. The drama look this was noticeable before several of his contests, is absent. Miller has the appearance of an athlete primed for a real fight.

"He is a tough fellow and I look for a long and gruelling contest," was about the only words of prophecy Miller had to say.

Good Preliminary Card.
Billy Harvey and Frank Selter of Buffalo will open the show with a contest scheduled to go two falls. The Buffalo boy has been at the head of the Lakes for several months and gets his first opportunity this evening.

Bill Fleming of Duluth, a heavy-weight, and Alec Sowdy of Ashland, will furnish the semi-windup. Sowdy has had more experience than the Duluth heavy-weight, but Fleming has been working out with some of the local wrestlers and is in good condition for the bout.

Louis Ardoun, holder of the heavy-weight title of the Los Angeles Athletic club, and one of the local stars, will referee all of the contests. The first bout will start promptly at 8:30.

New York, Oct. 23.—Alfred De Oro, world's champion at three-cushion billiards, defeated George W. Moore of this city, 50 to 28 in 61 innings here last night in the first of three games played in the city. Moore made a high run of 13, a record for a championship match. Moore's high run was 6.

SHIPS ARE SOUGHT FOR COTTON TRADE

American Vessels Will Bring Dye and Chemicals From Europe.

New York, Oct. 23.—The British government having assured the state department at Washington that cotton not being contraband, would be allowed to go through to Germany and Austria, American vessels are being sought in this port to carry abroad the first shipment of the state department. The announcement said that the cotton would either be landed at ports in Holland and transported into Germany by rail, or would be shipped directly to Germany.

It is planned to have the vessels bring back dyes, cyanide, chemicals, and other goods, and to return to their return trips. Although Germany has lifted the embargo on these products, it has stipulated that cyanide and dyes must be carried in American bottoms. For that reason American vessels are being sought to carry cotton abroad.

The Matanzas steamer, laden with dyes from Germany since the embargo was lifted, was launched for New York yesterday, and the Sun, an American steamer, will leave Rotterdam for New York today. It is estimated that the cargo of cyanide is 100,000 American pounds, and the cargo of dyes is 100,000 American pounds. The movement of German dyes, and it is stated that the first shipment of gold and silver mines depend upon cyanide to extract these metals.

PANTRY THIEF IS CONVICTED

Jury Finds Richard Malcolmson Guilty After Fifteen Minutes.

It took a jury only fifteen minutes yesterday afternoon to decide that Richard Malcolmson, the alleged East end "pantry thief," was guilty of burglary in the third degree as charged in an indictment against him by the Superior grand jury. The verdict for conviction was returned shortly before 3 o'clock in District Judge Janczyk's court. Malcolmson, on the night of June 13, was found by the police in the back of the home of the Abrahamson family, 208 North Fifteenth avenue east, where it is supposed he had been stealing. The contents of the refrigerator had been taken on several former occasions and detectives watched the place.

Malcolmson was caught just as he was leaving the premises. He admitted that he had been in the yard, but declared that he did not enter the premises on the night of the theft. He had come into the house, he claimed, to steal a thief had found in the boxes who had stolen the Sunday dinner. The thefts usually took place on Saturday nights. Harry F. White, third assistant county attorney, prosecuted the case.

NAVY RECRUITS MUST BE UNDER 30 YEARS OF AGE

Peter Coyle, local navy recruiting officer, has received the following announcement regarding the change of the age limit for applicants to the navy, fixing it at 30 years instead of 25.

The maximum age limit for first enlistments in the navy has been fixed at 30 years. Heretofore a candidate possessing a mechanical trade, such as machinist, carpenter, cooper, blacksmith, fireman, coal passer, and the like, could enlist if he were under 25. This age was considered too great in view of the strenuous life of modern navy, and it resulted in having a class of men in the service who had outlived their best usefulness on board ship without, however, having performed an adequate amount of sea service. This recommendation has been approved by the department, and the change will be embodied in the next regulation order.

In order to obviate as much as possible any misunderstanding on the part of applicants over 25 who have received recruiting pamphlets or circulars, the recruiting service has given advance notice of the change. It is issued to the service in the form of a change in regulations.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The British embassy has issued a statement in denial of the report that the prince of Wales had consented to be the honorary sponsor of a ball to be held in New York for the benefit of the bereaved families and wounded soldiers of the British Empire. The statement issued the statement at the command of his royal highness.

HEALTH TALKS

William Brady, M.D. Pediculi

In former articles we have discussed the hookworm and the trichina worm, and the preceding three articles described round worms, thread worms and tape worms. Now we reach a more familiar, not to say intimate parasite, commonly called the body louse. Commonly called louse, but doctors don't always call it by the common name. Sometimes a doctor is constrained to turn a stream of Latin or Greek upon a delicate matter, so he calls infestation with lice by the technical name of pediculosis or phthiriasis, which saves him from assault and battery by his patient.

To anyone but a family doctor it may be no disgrace not to know pediculosis when one sees it. But it is the doctor's business to know all the signs, and to realize that pediculosis by no means confines itself to the poor and needy. All things come to those who rub elbows with the world at large.

To Begin With the Head Louse.
The head louse takes pride in his pre-eminence in school work. He goes to the head of nearly every class some time in the course of the term. And once he reaches the head of the class he sticks there till mother gets after him with a fine tooth comb. Even then he fathers a brood of sixty lusty youngsters that mature in a week and fight against violation of their territory. The female of the species seeks an out-of-the-way spot over the temples and deposits her eggs there on hair shafts—the nits.

Next the Body Louse.
This creature is less common nowadays than he was when the town pump used to do business on an extensive scale. He is larger and more ferocious in disposition, but he is a great coward when the light of day is cast upon him, and he seeks to hide himself in the seams of the clothing. But he leaves his mark—long, vicious scratch marks on the shoulders and the flanks, and the doctor always uses a complete hot medicated bath with sterilization of the clothing of the host.

Without carrying the discussion into the field of the horrible pediculosis may be said that it is not a disease, but a nuisance. It is a nuisance to school children, traveling men, and all whose duties bring them into contact with all sorts of folks, are the usual hosts of these parasites, and Dr. Brady will answer all questions pertaining to Health. If your question is of general interest it will be answered through this column; if not it will be answered personally if stated, addressed envelope to Dr. William Brady, care of The Herald.

THE FIRST STEAM WAR VESSEL

THEIR. One hundred years ago today the world's first steam war vessel, the Demologos, afterwards rechristened the Fulton in honor of its constructor, was launched from a privately-owned shipyard on the New York bank of the East river. Its construction had been inspired from the war of 1812. Not much longer than the modern excursion boats, it was a little more than 100 feet long, 18 feet wide, and built of wood. The vessel slipped her moorings on June 1, 1815, and proceeded into New York bay under her own steam upon her maiden voyage.

On the fourth of July she again ventured to sea for a speed trial, sailing fifty-three miles in eight and half hours. This planter of modern navies never received her baptism of fire. The Demologos was ready for battle, but she proved an instrument of destruction when her powder magazine exploded while she lay in the Brooklyn navy yard on June 4, 1815, destroying the vessel and killing twenty-six persons.

Today while steam propels nearly all of the 2,800 or more warships of the navy, already new forms of propulsive power are being adopted, such as internal combustion gas engines, and various types of turbines, while electric motors already are being experimented with and have been installed on one American warship, the USS Albatross. The horse power of the vessel which propels her is not as great as that of the modern warship, but she is a little more than 100 miles an hour, there are warships which attain a speed of thirty knots an hour and more. War vessels that could store the Demologos on their decks have made a record of between 7,000 and 8,000 miles without refueling, thus disproving the mathematical demonstration of Dionysius Lardner, who sought to prove by figures in the young days of steam that no ship could ever carry enough coal to feed her engines while crossing the Atlantic.

LEE HEADS SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS

Speakers Predict Nine Blue Ribbon Districts for County.

J. H. Lee was elected president of the Central district of Duluth at the convention held under the direction of the Minnesota Sunday School association at the First Presbyterian church yesterday. J. W. Walker was chosen vice president. W. E. Johnson, secretary. Mrs. E. Carlson, elementary superintendent; Arthur Ringstad, teen age superintendent; H. A. Sedgwick, adult superintendent; Mrs. A. Marvin, teachers' training superintendent; Mrs. Alice Warren, home department superintendent.

Considerable satisfaction was expressed that the Central district had been made into a blue ribbon district. This means that in the district 10 per cent of the Sunday schools have graded rolls, 20 per cent teachers' training classes, 20 per cent home departments, and 20 per cent teen age and adult Bible classes.

Those at the convention yesterday expressed the opinion that all the nine district associations of the county association would be blue ribbon districts by the time the next convention was held here next March.

Speakers yesterday were Dr. R. W. Bowden, Rev. E. L. Treilstad, St. Paul; Mrs. Farnes, Minneapolis. At each of the conventions held here, one for each district, the speakers were to attain the same results and discuss the same themes in a general way.

Another convention will be held this afternoon and evening at the West-end Presbyterian church, Fifty-eighth avenue west and Ramsey street. Five district conventions were held in St. Louis and Lake counties last week.

RAILROAD SUES FOR DEMURRAGE

Wants $1,102 From Duluth Universal Milling Company.

The Northern Pacific Railway company started suit in district court yesterday afternoon to collect $1,102 from the Duluth Universal Milling company, alleged to be due as demurrage for a period between Sept. 1, 1910, and July 1, 1914. During that period, the railway company claims, the milling company allowed cars to remain on the tracks without unloading the amount claimed became due. The rules of the Lake Superior Demurrage bureau, which handles the demurrage business of the Northern Pacific and other railroads entering Duluth, provide that a freight car containing merchandise must be unloaded by the consignee within a certain time or demurrage will become due at the rate of $1 per day.

MRS. SIEWERT DEMURS.

Claims Sheriff Meining's Answer Is Not Sufficient Defense.

In district court yesterday, Mrs. Ada Siewert, through her attorney, Guy W. Ross, filed a demurrer to the answer of John Meining, sheriff, and Joseph W. Allen, jailer of St. Louis county, in the mandamus proceedings which she has instituted against them on the grounds that it does not state a sufficient defense.

Mrs. Siewert obtained from Judge Cant an alternative writ of mandamus

Lessons In Good Citizenship

I. Is there anything wrong with Duluth?

Duluth's territory is a grain country. The crop this year was bountiful. It was sold or will be sold at good prices. The farmers and the towns on which farming districts center have money. They are in a position to do business with Duluth.

The steel business is looking up. There will be renewed activity on the iron ranges. Thousands of settlers are coming into Duluth territory every year. Thousands have come in this year and they are now on the land, contributing directly or indirectly to Duluth business.

Some people can trace a direct relation between the European war and Duluth business. There is some relation in a financial way, but there really is money enough for all legitimate business purposes.

Let's quit looking for the worst in the business world. Let's put on a smile of optimism and let people see that we don't run at the first cry of "Wolf."

The calamity howler is at it hard in Duluth. This is the time for the good citizen to show his public spirit.

The good citizen works with other good citizens through the Commercial Club of Duluth for the civic, commercial and industrial development of his city.

commanding the sheriff and jailer to admit her to the jail for the purpose of conducting the jail school for prisoners under authority vested in her by the county board, or show cause why they should not do so.

Mrs. Siewert conducted the jail school for several months and until after the grand jury had reported indictments against the sheriff and two of his deputies after reviewing evidence which Mrs. Siewert has presented for their consideration. She was refused admittance to the jail on Sept. 28.

The hearing on arguments in support of and in opposition to the demurrer will be held Wednesday, Nov. 4. H. B. Fryberger of Fryberger, Fulton & Spear appears in the case as attorney for the sheriff and jailer.

HUSBAND IN PRISON; WIFE SEEKS DIVORCE.

On the grounds that her husband, Floyd J. Brown, 32, is now serving time in Stillwater penitentiary as punishment for the crime of abandoning her and their two children, Mrs. Charlotte Brown, 23, started suit for divorce in district court yesterday afternoon.

Brown was arrested Aug. 4, 1913, charged with wife and children abandonment. He pleaded guilty and was paroled under a penitentiary sentence. He did not heed the terms of his parole.

PREMATURE PRANK.

Boys Roll Wagon Wheel Down Avenue and Break Window.

A premature Halloween prank was played by some boys early last evening that ended with the breaking of a large plate glass window in the Bellnet installment company. Second Avenue east and Superior street. Some boys started a large wagon wheel down Second Avenue as a joke and the wheel, after missing several pedestrians, crashed into the window. The police are looking for the culprits.

INCONVENIENT THREE DAYS.

Rolls N. H., Oct. 23.—(Special to The Herald).—Miss Erie Patterson, aged 18 years, has been unconscious three days, the result of falling downstairs at the local high school. The girl was found lying on the concrete basement floor, unconscious, and she has so far failed to regain her senses. It is believed that the girl fainted while going down, hitting her head against the concrete floor.

THIS is how news of the Real Tobacco Chew spreads! A man tucks the little chew of "Right-Cut" away—gets the rich tobacco taste and the comfort of it and feels so good about it that he just can't help talking about it to his friends.

Mellow, sappy tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to chew on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candy tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and borax. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

AMBASSADOR RECALLED.
London, Oct. 30, 1:17 p. m.—The Russian ambassador at Constantinople has been withdrawn, according to official announcement made here today, and in consequence of the Turkish attacks on Russian ports, instructions have been sent Russian consuls in Turkey to leave the country.

A Petrograd dispatch to Reuters' agency says:
"A dispatch from Kertch, a seaport in the Crimea, reports that near Takol lighthouse, the Russian steamer Yalta, from the Caucasus, was sunk by a torpedo launched by the Turkish cruiser Goeben. The crew and passengers were saved.

WINDING UP RATE PLEAS

Thorne Closes for Shippers and Brownell for the Carriers.

Brandeis Criticizes Arguments of the Railway Attorneys.

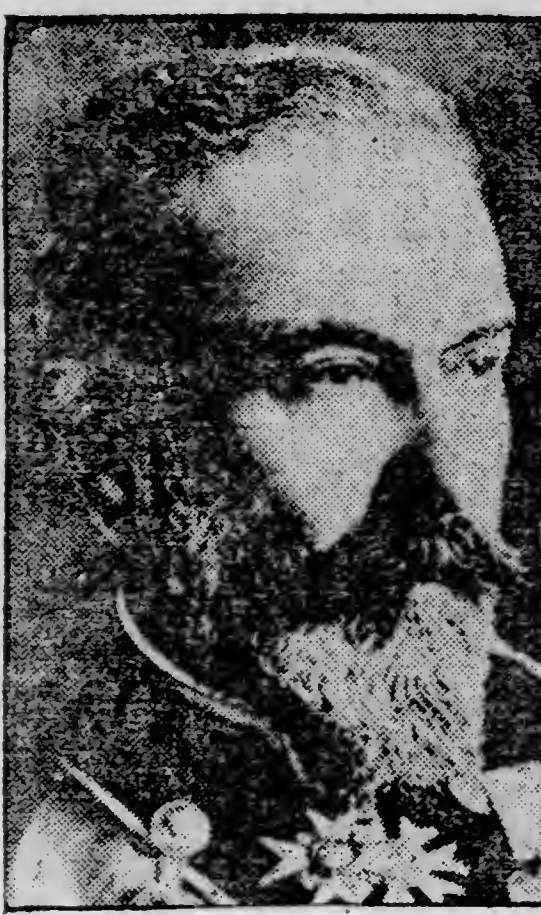

Washington, Oct. 30.—Behring on the application of Eastern railways for a general freight rate increase was concluded today before the interstate commerce commission. It is expected the case will be considered by the commission next week for an early decision.

Clifford Thorne, speaking in the interest of numerous shippers' associations, summed up the opposition to the advance. He declared nothing in the way of new developments beyond the general showing made at the hearing. He said congress had empowered the commission to reverse itself if new facts warranted and declared the previous ruling denying increases would have been greatly altered had conditions been as they are now.

Brandeis Reviewed Arguments.
Reviewing arguments presented to the commission by counsel for the thirty-five Eastern railway systems, Brandeis reviewed the arguments.

IDLE GOSSIP OUSTS PRINCE

Louis of Battenberg Forced to Resign From British Admiralty.

Noted Strategist, Who Rose
By Merit, Is of Austrian Birth.

London, Oct. 30.—Prince Louis of Battenberg, against whom there have been no open charges but much idle gossip because of his Austrian origin, has resigned his position as first sea lord of the admiralty, it is thought probably because of a newspaper campaign against his holding such high command.

Announcement of Prince Louis' resignation was made last night in the court circular, which recorded that the prince had been received in audience by the king on relinquishing his appointment. The king appointed him a member of the privy council.

Succeeded By Fisher.
The morning papers in editorial dealing with the resignation of Prince Louis as first sea lord of the admiralty, without exception express great sympathy with the prince, and regret over the unfortunate circumstances which deprive the country of his valuable services. At the same time, the newspapers generally think Prince Louis has taken the right step.

Victim of Foolish Clamor.
The Daily News and the Express, however, consider that Prince Louis is somewhat more than a victim of foolish clamor, and that the circumstances surrounding the incident are not creditable.

Battleship Kansas and

Washington, Oct. 30.—The battleship Kansas and the transport Hancock, with a full complement of marines aboard, were being towed through southern seas bound for Haitian waters as an administration step for the protection of American citizens and other foreigners in that turbulent republic. Port Au Prince, capital of Haiti, now held by the rebels, was the destination of both vessels.

Orders for the two vessels to proceed with all possible speed for the Haitian capital had been sent out by the navy department following the receipt of unofficial advice stating that President Theodore, having proclaimed himself president, was marching against Port Au Prince.

AMERICANS ARE LOSERS

Property Is Damaged in

Washington Is Notified By the Charge at Petrograd.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Acting Secretary Lansing today announced receipt of a telegram from the American charge d'affaires at Petrograd, saying Odessa has been bombarded and some American property destroyed. The dispatch from Charge Wilson transmitted a message from the American consul at Odessa, who said he would send a fuller report later on the extent of American property damaged. He did not say by whom the bombardment was done, but it is presumed here that it was Turkish ships.

Charge Wilson's dispatch was dated "Petrograd, Oct. 29, 7 p. m." and spoke of the bombardment as having taken place "last night," evidently meaning Wednesday.

May Be Damage Claims.
Secretary Lansing at once called on the American embassy at Petrograd to report the exact nature of the damage to American property. If the usual twenty-four hours notice of bombardment was not given, Americans will have a just claim for damage to all property which could have been removed. Destruction of houses or buildings owned by foreigners, however, are not regarded as the subject of claims, being classed as incidents of war to which all subjects are subject in buying property in a foreign country.

The subject of claims resulting from bombardment has been a moot subject in American international law, and Mr. Lansing declined to comment on the merits of the question.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Turkey's entrance into the field of warlike operations, though not unexpected, has caused a sensation in official circles here because of the probable far-reaching effect of this action. Probably no one factor in the great European struggle is regarded so uncertain in quantity and quality as the Turkish empire. The probability that by yesterday's act of war against Russia the Balkan states may be drawn into the vortex of the great conflict, thereby cutting off a vast quantity of food supplies which it had been expected would go to the maintenance of the Northern European countries during the war, has brought home to the officials here a realization of the very close and intense interest of the United States in the latest development.

ROBERTS RESIGNS AS MINT DIRECTOR

Banking Business,
It Is Said.

Washington, Oct. 30.—George E. Roberts of Port Dodge, Iowa, director of the mint, has resigned. It was announced at the treasury department today that the resignation would be effective when accepted by President Wilson.

Mr. Roberts was not ready to announce his plans today, but he probably will return to the banking business, which he left in 1910 to become director of the mint for the second time. His first service in that office was from 1898 to 1907. He left to become president of the Commercial National bank of Chicago, but returned to the mint bureau when the Commercial bank was merged with another large Chicago bank.

Mr. Roberts, a recognized authority on finance, has written extensively on the subject and was consulted frequently by officials of the Democratic administration when the new currency law was being framed. He is a Republican, but it was stated at the treasury that his resignation was entirely voluntary and would be accepted with regret.

BRITISH BEAR BRUNT OF GERMAN ATTACKS

Near Labassee, But Regain Some Territory and Inflict Big Losses.

"We Have Made Progress Almost Everywhere," Says French Official Report;
Eight French Generals Killed.

Paris, Oct. 30.—2:56 p. m.—The French official announcement given out in Paris this afternoon says that the forces of the enemy which had passed the River Yser have been compelled to withdraw by reason of inundations of the low country, brought about by the Belgian army.

The text of the communication is as follows:
"On the extreme left, inundations brought about by the Belgian army in the lower valley of the River Yser have compelled the forces of the enemy which had passed this river to withdraw. They were subjected to a violent cannonade by the Belgian and French artillery during their movement of retreat."

GAINS FOR ALLIES.
"The Germans endeavored yesterday to deliver very violent counter-attacks on the French and British army corps, which were progressing to the northeast and to the east of Ypres. At the end of the day our troops had, notwithstanding, continued their forward movement in the direction which had been assigned them, and had also taken possession of various points of support."

"The British troops, assailed at several points to the north of Labassee by superior forces, resumed the offensive with energy, and re-conquered to a considerable extent the terrain yielded to the enemy. At several other points on their line of combat, the British troops repulsed the attacks of the Germans, inflicting on them important losses."

NO GENERAL ACTION.
"On the remainder of the front there has been no general action, only partial offensive movements on our part as well as on the part of the enemy. We have made progress almost everywhere; notably before certain villages between Arras and Albert, upon the heights of the right bank of the Aisne down stream from Soissons and here and there along the Meuse to the north of Verdun."

SPAIN HELPING IN RELIEF OF BELGIANS

Throughout Whole Country.

Madrid, Thursday, Oct. 23, via Paris, Oct. 30.—The Spanish minister of foreign affairs reported at a cabinet meeting held today that measures have been taken jointly by the Spanish and American ministers at Brussels, in agreement with the German authorities, to import food for the Belgian population.

The necessities of the situation required that this work, begun in the capital, be extended throughout the whole country, the foreign minister declared. At the same meeting the premier pressed complaints that exporters of Barcelona were unable to collect debts due from citizens of belligerent countries on account of the proclamation of moratoriums.

SUMMARY OF THE WAR NEWS

Interest in the battles raging in the east and west of Europe, where decisive results are still to be attained, today was momentarily overshadowed by Turkey's entrance into the great war through her opening of hostilities against Russia.

London and Washington agree that this new development probably will have slight effect on land operations, but will manifest itself chiefly by sea and give the allied fleets in the Mediterranean and adjacent waters busy days or weeks.

Aside from this, the most interesting phase of Turkey's action is its probable effect on the delicate Balkan situation, and upon the action of Greece. Should Greece enter the arena of war, two ex-patriated American battleships, the old Mississippi and Idaho, recently sold to her, may be heard from.

What effect Turkey's entrance into the war, now a conflict of ten nations, will have on the uncounted millions of Moslems in Africa and Asia, is a matter of conjecture.

It was made known today that in addition to sinking two steamers in the Black Sea and bombarding the city of Theodosia in the Crimea, Turkish warships had entered the port of Odessa, sunk a Russian gunboat and damaged a French liner.

Although no formal declaration of war is reported, the Russian ambassador at Constantinople has been withdrawn.

Little news altered through today from the scene of the great battle in Flanders, and indications were that the censorship had become still more rigid. The French official statement, while again optimistic in tone, was general in terms and contained nothing to indicate that a decided advantage had been won by either side.

The enormous sacrifices made by the army to force passages of the river are said by the French war office to have been in vain. The German forces which maintained their hard-won place to the south of the Yser are now said to have been attacked. What the shock and shrapnel could not accomplish, has been achieved by another device, the Belgians having flooded the lower valley of the river.

The French official statement indicates that it has again failed to the left of the British troops to bear the brunt of the battle. Their presence along the line from Ypres to Blomme is recalled in the statement, which says that violent German attacks in this vicinity were beaten back and that the British and French were able to push forward.

At points north of Labassee, just south of the Belgian border, the British forces are credited with having repulsed superior forces and with having won back territory previously yielded. On the remainder of the front progress is claimed by the French "almost everywhere."

Of the battles in Russian Poland and Galicia no word has come since the indefinite official reports of yesterday.

Germany states officially that the report of a raid of German troops into Angola, West Africa, is a "flat lie" designed to justify Portuguese entrance into the European war on the side of the allies. The German statement is disputed by what are represented as official advices from Laurence Marquis, East Africa, stating that a body of German cavalry had crossed the border of Angola, and that three were killed by the Portuguese.

The heavy mortality among high officers is emphasized by the report from Paris that twenty-one French officers have been promoted to the rank of general. Eight of these are to fill places made vacant by death in battle.

Admiral Lord Fisher, according to London advices, is to succeed the Australian-born Prince Louis of Battenberg, whose resignation as first sea lord of the British admiralty has been brought about by the anti-Austrian agitation in England.

WINDING UP RATE PLEAS

Thorne Closes for Shippers and Brownell for the Carriers.

Brandeis Criticizes Arguments of the Railway Attorneys.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Following on the application of Eastern railways for a general freight rate increase was concluded today before the interstate commerce commission. It is expected the case will be considered by the commission next week for an early decision.

Clifford Thorne, speaking in the interest of numerous shippers' associations, summed up the opposition to the advance. He declared nothing in the way of new developments beyond the European war had been brought out to justify the renewed appeal.

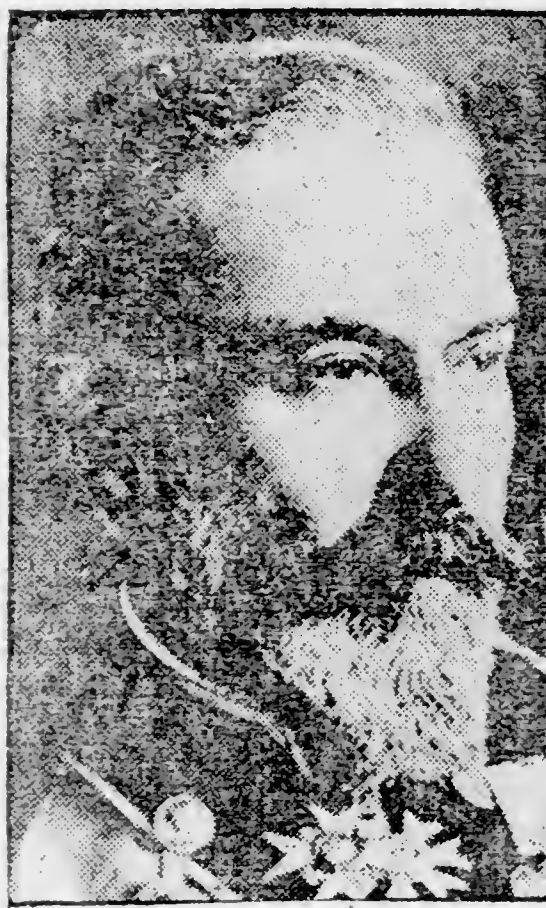

Mr. Thorne asserted that the financial statements for the current year filed by the carriers to support statements of inadequate revenues, afforded no fair basis for comparison with preceding years because the entire policy of the roads as to rules of accounting maintenance charges had been altered.

George F. Brownell, of counsel for the railroads, devoted much of his argument to the power of the commission to grant the relief sought on the general showing made at the rehearing. He said congress had empowered the commission to reverse itself if new facts warranted and declared the previous ruling denying increases would have been greatly altered had conditions been as they are now.

Louis of Battenberg Forced to Resign From British Admiralty.

Noted Strategist, Who Rose By Merit, Is of Austrian Birth.

London, Oct. 30.—Prince Louis of Battenberg, against whom there have been no open charges but much idle gossip because of his Austrian origin, has resigned his position as first sea lord of the admiralty. It is thought probably because of a newspaper campaign against his holding such high command.

Announcement of Prince Louis' resignation was made last night in the court circular, which recorded that the prince had been received in audience by the king on relinquishing his appointment. The king appointed a member of the privy council.

Succeeded By Fisher.
Heron Fisher, admiral of the fleet, succeeds Prince Louis as first sea lord of the admiralty.

The morning papers in editorials dealing with the resignation of Prince Louis as first sea lord of the admiralty, without exception express great sympathy with the prince, and regret over the unfortunate circumstances which deprive the country of his valuable services. At the same time, the newspapers generally think Prince Louis has taken the right step.

Victim of Foul Play.

The Daily News and the Express, however, consider that Prince Louis has fallen a victim to move and foul play, and that the circumstances surrounding the incident are not creditable.

Port Au Prince, capital of Haiti, now held by the rebels, was the destination of both vessels.

Orders for the two vessels to proceed with all possible speed for the Haitian capital had been sent out by the navy department following the receipt of unofficial advice stating that President Theodore, having proclaimed himself president, was marching against Port Au Prince.

AMERICANS ARE LOSERS

Property Is Damaged in the Bombardment of Odessa.

Washington Is Notified By the Charge at Petrograd.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Acting Secretary Lansing today announced receipt of a telegram from the American charge d'affaires at Petrograd, saying Odessa has been bombarded and some American property destroyed. The dispatch from Charge Wilson transmitted a message from the American consul at Odessa, who said he would send a fuller report later on the extent of American property damaged. He did not say by whom the bombardment was done, but it is presumed here that it was Turkish ships.

Charge Wilson's dispatch was dated "Petrograd, Oct. 29, 7 p. m.," and spoke of the bombardment as having taken place "last night," evidently meaning Wednesday.

Paris, Oct. 30.—7:10 a. m.—Paris regards the situation this morning in "flanders as highly favorable. In official circles there prevails an air of satisfaction regarding the impression created by the official communication. The second visit of President Poincare to the battle front is regarded as a good sign and is taken to presage important developments."

Military critics regard the prolonged assaults of the Germans along the Yser as having failed, and they expect that the enemy, following the custom, will now make another effort elsewhere. The great activity in the last few days suggests an attack from that quarter.

It is declared here that the German wounded in Saint Louis have been taken across the Rhine, and that all applications for safe conduct in Upper Alsace have been refused.

Deadlock Continues.

In spite of the general hopefulness prevailing in the French capital, the deadlock in the extended battle line in France and Belgium continues. ### MORE RIOTING AT ARKANSAS MINES.

Port Smith, Ark., Oct. 30.—After eight unoccupied houses had been burned at the Bache-Denman company's mine No. 3, at Prairie Creek, Wednesday night, a battle took place between the incendiaries and United States marshals guarding the property, according to reports reaching here. Details of the trouble are lacking, as telephone wires leading to the district are down.
Riots have taken place at the mines of the company several times since the open-shop policy was put in operation there last April. Surface plants of the company were destroyed in three days of rioting in July. At Mine No. 4 the fighting at that time was severe and two mine guards were killed.
Twelve United States marshals were sent to No. 4 mine a few days ago to guard workmen who were getting it in shape for operation.

New Equipment May Be Introduced in Duluth Fire Department.
The city will probably rebuild one or more motorcycles for use by the fire department, according to Safety Commissioner Hickson, to whom the idea was conveyed by Fire Chief Joseph Randall upon his return from the national fire chiefs' convention at New Orleans.
The machines would be supplied with chemical tanks and would respond to general alarms and be sent to smaller blazes where only a chemical is needed. They would be valuable in getting to fires in advance of the regular apparatus and extinguishing the flames in their incipient stage. They would often save the wear and tear of the heavier apparatus by relieving them of the necessity of responding to all alarms.
The machines could be rebuilt by the city at the municipal repair shop operated in the rear of No. 3 fire hall, First avenue east and Third street.

DETROIT MAN "NOT GUILTY"

Alderman Glinnan, Is Acquitted in Graft Case Trial

Claims He Did Not Know Money Was Given to Him.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 30.—Alderman Thomas E. Glinnan, former councilman leader and one of several Detroit aldermen arrested in a sensational alleged graft exposure in July, 1912, was acquitted in a jury court yesterday afternoon. Glinnan was the only alderman to reach trial and his acquittal, it is said, will end the case against the other officials.
The prosecution's case rested on evidence obtained by representatives of a national detective agency, who came here at the request of Mayor William B. Thompson to investigate alleged graft in municipal affairs. When Glinnan was arrested $1,000 in marked money was taken from his coat pocket.
Decoy Resolution.
The detectives "represented" themselves as employees of the Wabash railroad, and a decoy resolution was introduced in the common council ordering the closing of a street for the benefit of the railroad.

At that time Glinnan was regarded as the most influential member of the council, and the prosecution has since claimed that Glinnan, in league with the supposed representatives of the railroad, furnished them with names of aldermen whose votes could be purchased, and arrangements were made between the detectives and the alderman as to the amount to be paid for the votes. It was alleged that Glinnan's price was $750. Glinnan was arrested shortly after a detective had placed the marked money in the alderman's pocket. The other aldermen were arrested immediately after Glinnan had been taken in custody.
Claims of Defense.
The defense maintained that Glinnan voted the decoy resolution before he had discussed the matter with the detectives; that the money was placed in his coat pocket without his knowledge, and that a large part of the evidence submitted by the detectives was not based on fact. It took the jury about two hours to reach a verdict.
Although Prosecuting Attorney Allan H. Fraser would not definitely state what action he will take against the other defendants, it was generally believed that Glinnan's acquittal would end the whole affair.
Glinnan has been re-elected to office since his arrest in 1912.

BEMIDJI HEARS PROHIBITIONISTS

Kalmes Tells Why Lee Is Not Entitled to Temperance Votes.

Bemidji, Minn., Oct. 30.—(Special to The Herald).—Following two big meetings in Duluth on Tuesday evening, W. G. Calderwood, prohibition candidate for governor, talked to the voters at Bemidji Wednesday night at the city hall.
Mr. Calderwood surprised his hearers by the lengthy consideration he gave the tax question in Minnesota. Many had come expecting to hear a strictly temperance speech, and they listened for thirty minutes to an expounding of the needs and remedies for the state's tax system.
"I contend," said the city candidate, "that the railroads ought to pay a property tax the same as the farmer and the business man has to pay a property tax. Or, if the one pays taxes only when its income is large, so ought all the others."
"I contend that the man who owns securities ought to pay the same rate of taxation on them as his poorer neighbor pays on his home or real estate. Now he pays only one-tenth as much."
"I contend that railroads ought also

PETITION IS SUBMITTED

4,147 Voters Ask for Referendum on Council's Lighting Ordinance.

Initiatory Petition Is Big Enough to Make Special Election Mandatory.

The overwhelming petition calling for a referendum upon the ordinance recently passed by the city council appropriating $35,800 for the construction of the first unit of a municipal competing plant was filed yesterday afternoon with City Clerk C. S. Palmer. The petition contains 4,147 names of qualified electors, according to R. B. Knox and H. J. Mullin, who brought it to the city hall. The last day for filing the petition would have been Saturday.

Only 1,029 qualified signers would have been necessary to cause the council to submit the appropriation ordinance to the people for their approval. A ten per cent petition is needed for a referendum and as 10,286 votes were cast at the last general municipal election scarcely more than one-fourth as many signatures would have been necessary as were secured.

Mr. Mullin, who had charge of the circulating of the petition, states that many signers have been secured for the petition initiating an ordinance directing the council to accept the reduced rates offered by the Edison company. The company's best terms, a reduction from 8 cents to 6 cents per kilowatt for commercial lighting and from $55 to $45 an acre per year for street lighting, were secured by a number of business men upon the council's refusal to do so. When the commissioners declined to submit the contract to the voters for acceptance or rejection they started the petition initiating the ordinance.

The initiatory petition will require a special election if it is signed by qualified electors equivalent in number to twenty per cent of the number of votes cast at the last general election, or 2,088 in this instance. As the petition now has approximately twice that number the council will have to call a special election after it is filed. It was less than a 20 per cent petition but more than a 10 per cent petition, no special election would be necessary but the ordinance would have to be submitted at the next general municipal election. Mr. Mullin stated that the full petition will probably be presented in a few days, which will necessitate a special election. In that event the council will likely direct that the referendum on the appropriation ordinance be held at the same time.

City Clerk Palmer has ten days in which to check the petition, but he will not check all the names. He will stop when he has found that 1,029 of the signers are qualified voters. The names will be arranged alphabetically by election districts with a card system and checked by the election registers of each precinct.

BIG SAVING IN BRIDGE BUILDING

Cost of Fischer's Creek Structure Away Below Estimates.

The bridge which is being built over Fischer's creek on Vermilion road will probably be completed next month. The work is being done under the direction of Henry Cleveland, manager of the park department, and will be similar to the one structure built by him on the western extension of the boulevard.

The cost is estimated at $4,000, as compared with the original estimate of $11,000 for a bridge at that point. The expense is reduced by using stone for the supports and utilizing second-hand material which the city has on hand.

ALL GERMANS IN POLAND YIELDING

They Are in Full Retreat, Says Report From Petrograd.

Washington, Oct. 30.—All of the German army corps on the left bank of the Vistula, in Poland, are in full retreat, according to an official report from Petrograd made public here last night by the Russian embassy. The report follows:

"On Oct. 28 we overcame the resistance of the last troops of the enemy endeavoring to put up a fight to the north of the River Pilica. At the present moment all of the Austro-German corps on the left bank of the Vistula are in full retreat.

"Starykoff, Bzow and Nowomyslanski are occupied by our troops. Radom is occupied by our cavalry. We have captured several thousand prisoners, guns, scores of machine guns, supply trains and automobiles.

"In Galicia there are no changes. "On the East Prussian front the First German army corps, supported by other troops, is for the fourth day keeping up an attack near Rakaiow-Jewo. The losses of the enemy are very heavy."

MANY DESERTERS FROM GERMAN ARMY.

London, Oct. 30.—A Daily Telegraph correspondent sends a dispatch from the Belgian frontier saying that the Germans are making preparations to retreat from their present positions in Belgium. They are removing their wounded from Bruges to Brussels and are throwing up entrenchments all the way along the proposed line of retreat from Ostend.

"All that has been said regarding the severity of the fighting around Dixmunde," continues the dispatch, "has been too mild. Dixmunde itself is in ruins and not a single house is standing in the adjacent villages of Buerst, Koyen, Essen and Vindelo. All five places were practically a shambles, the streets heaped with German dead left behind in the retreat forced by the allies' artillery."

"Many German stragglers have been found in condition of hysteria, shattered by the ordeal through which they had passed. A sign of demoralization in the German ranks is the number of deserters and stragglers seen beyond the Dutch border. The German authorities have sent out patrols to prevent these desertions."

STILL HIDING IN THE WOODS

Parties of German Soldiers Separated From Main Bodies.

Living Upon the Country in the Vicinity of Esternay.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) Esternay, France, Oct. 18.—Parties of German soldiers separated from the main bodies of troops during the German retreat from the Marne are still hiding in the woods in this vicinity. The French armies passed on and there are now few soldiers left in this part of France to hunt down the German stragglers. They live upon the country but otherwise commit no depredations. Along the whole countryside peasants who have returned point out burial places of those who fell in the fierce fighting in this neighborhood and for sixty miles to the east. The dead were buried by 800 firemen, assisted by 600 civilian laborers. It is said that the tally kept by the firemen shows that 70,000 dead were buried, about 30,000 of them French. The greatest slaughter was in the marshes near Sezanne. Fifteen thousand dead are buried in long trenches at the bottom of a wooded hill.

Buried Separately. French and Germans are buried separately. On the long mounds above the French trenches have been set up rude wooden crosses; a few wild flowers have been scattered on the mounds and sometimes large stones have been placed at either end. Caps of French soldiers, showing the name of the regiment, have been placed on the crosses or the stones. The trenches in which the Germans are buried are unmarked. The son of Gen. von Moltke is buried near Esternay.

Champlion, about two miles south-east of Coulommiers, is the farthest place south reached by the Germans on their march for the investment of Paris. The village did not have more than twenty-five houses. All were burned. Twelve inhabitants have returned and among other repairs have patched up the schoolhouse. Six children are being taught there.

Wreckage Covers Plain. Strewed over the plain near Esternay are small piles of empty cartridge shells, pieces of broken rifles, artillery carriages, fragments of uniforms and various other wreckage from the fighting. In an open space about two miles long by a mile wide were some thickets where the German quick-fires had been concealed. On the ridge behind were placed German long-range guns, which were doing great damage to the French. It was here that three regiments of Turcos asked to be allowed to charge the height on which was the artillery. Nothing was known of the quick-fires in the bushes in the middle of the field. The three regiments started. When they were within easy range the German quick-fires opened upon them. Only about half a regiment succeeded in getting forward and taking the machine guns. The rest were brought up and another charge resulted in the capture of the German guns on the hills after tremendous hand-to-hand encounters.

Ready For Apple Week. Apples are described by the Fitzsimmons-Palmer company as the headliner in the fruit line. The trade has made extended preparations for "Apple Week," which will start next Monday. It is said that it may be taken as assured that prices will then be at the low notch of the season, while varieties and stocks will be at their minimum, thus offering consumers an inducement to buy their winter requirements. It is contended in trade circles that with a view to helping growers to dispose of their large orchard apple supplies, that fruit is being handled by commission men on a small margin of profit.

The grape market is strong today with the season nearly over in California and Michigan. The first car of imported Italian grapes was received here yesterday. Their quotation is necessarily high, and in view of the difficulty in bringing European fruits to this country, lower figures are hardly expected. Barrel pears have been nearly cleaned up, and box pears prices are advancing with only the late varieties left. Grapefruit is being received more freely, and in view of the large supplies grown on the Pacific coast this season, a low market is expected in that fruit through the winter.

Low Potato Prices. In vegetables, potatoes are now moving freely, and their price is down to 50 cents a bushel. It is thought that with the receipts now about at their flush, the low point in the market has been struck. The keeping qualities of the late varieties are thought to be good, largely eliminating any possibility of risk in storing them on their present market basis. Quotations in other heavy vegetables are firmer, with the exception of cabbage which has dropped $2 a ton to $15, owing to heavy receipts. Cauliflower and head lettuce are now practically the only articles offering in the way of home-grown green vegetables.

FOODSTUFFS ARE CHEAPER

Produce Prices Are Generally Lower Now Than Year Ago.

Reductions in Costs of Meats—Apple Week Will Open Monday.

Going through the list of quotations in today's local produce market, the fact will be appreciated that the cost of living in those lines at least shows a substantial reduction as compared with a year ago despite the waging of a gigantic European war. With the exception of a comparatively few imported articles that the public can worry along without, foodstuffs are selling on a reasonable price basis.

Crossing a bar, quoted at from 30 to 32 cents a pound is regarded by the trade as not at all out of the way, the gratifying feature about it is that no material advance is looked for in the near future. The market in the product is strong in the East at the present basis, according to the Bridgeport-Russell company, but owing to the exceptionally liberal production and shipments still being made from Duluth and other storage warehouses supplies down that way are not being drawn upon to any appreciable extent.

Eggs Cheap for Season. Fresh eggs are still selling at 24 to 26 cents a dozen, with storage quoted at $3 to $5 cents. Marketings are expected by the dealers to be keeping up remarkably well for the season, resulting in materially conserving of warehouse supplies. Current receipts of eggs in Duluth and district are said to be about equal to the consumption without leaving any surplus. Dealers, however, say that in figuring those lines not having yet come up to expectations, of the big packing establishments.

Poultry is selling on a lower price basis today than in years, and hens and springers are now offering at a price basis that places them within the reach of persons whose incomes are moderate. Captain H. G. Clark, of the Victor Produce company, Receipts in these days, because of the excess of consumption, and dealers are putting large quantities away into storage.

Meat Prices Drop. A development that will be hailed with delight by consumers is a general reduction in meat quotations. Native beef steers are down 1 cent a pound, heifers ½ cent, and mutton ½ cent, while pork loins and shoulders decline of 2½ cents a pound. The break in pork and provisions is attributed by the Shaw-Ducker-Palmer company to the heavy increase in receipts at packing plants, and to the fact that in those lines not having yet come up to expectations, of the big packing establishments.

Ready For Apple Week. Apples are described by the Fitzsimmons-Palmer company as the headliner in the fruit line. The trade has made extended preparations for "Apple Week," which will start next Monday. It is said that it may be taken as assured that prices will then be at the low notch of the season, while varieties and stocks will be at their minimum, thus offering consumers an inducement to buy their winter requirements. It is contended in trade circles that with a view to helping growers to dispose of their large orchard apple supplies, that fruit is being handled by commission men on a small margin of profit.

The grape market is strong today with the season nearly over in California and Michigan. The first car of imported Italian grapes was received here yesterday. Their quotation is necessarily high, and in view of the difficulty in bringing European fruits to this country, lower figures are hardly expected. Barrel pears have been nearly cleaned up, and box pears prices are advancing with only the late varieties left. Grapefruit is being received more freely, and in view of the large supplies grown on the Pacific coast this season, a low market is expected in that fruit through the winter.

Low Potato Prices. In vegetables, potatoes are now moving freely, and their price is down to 50 cents a bushel. It is thought that with the receipts now about at their flush, the low point in the market has been struck. The keeping qualities of the late varieties are thought to be good, largely eliminating any possibility of risk in storing them on their present market basis. Quotations in other heavy vegetables are firmer, with the exception of cabbage which has dropped $2 a ton to $15, owing to heavy receipts. Cauliflower and head lettuce are now practically the only articles offering in the way of home-grown green vegetables.

DULUTHIAN WAS SUICIDE

Body of Andrew Anderson Is Found at Miami, Fla.

Left This City Last Spring; May Have Son Here.

Early last week the skeleton of Andrew Anderson of this city, who left last spring, was found on the bayfront at Miami, Fla., with a revolver and three empty cartridges nearby. A coroner's jury at Miami has returned a verdict of suicide.

On Aug. 28, Anderson, according to reports from Miami, disappeared from his boarding house and was never seen again. The authorities at Miami believe he has a son living in Duluth, but have been unable to get into communication with him. The skeleton, being held by an undertaker at Miami, an account of the finding of the body early last week is given in the Miami Times-Union of Oct. 28, as follows:

Little Left of Body. "Several days ago as Miss Edith Brickell was showing Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Jackson some lots on the bayfront, a skeleton of a man was found in a dense thicket. There was little left of the body save the clothing and bones. The authorities were notified and the body was taken in charge by them. At first the whole thing was a mystery, but steps were taken to locate and unravel the mystery, and locate if possible, the name of the dead man. The bones were finally identified by Andrew Anderson, of this city, by a knife and watch which were found after the body had been removed. The name of the unfortunate man was Andrew Anderson of Duluth, Minn. He was not a relative of Andrew Anderson of this city who identified the remains.

It is not known just when Andrew Anderson arrived in this city. He had rooms at 1211 avenue C, and disappeared from there Aug. 28. It was generally supposed that he had left for home. While here he purchased some Miami property, sending the deed to his son, H. R. Anderson, who in reply to a letter stated he had received the deed, and that his father intended in his letter that he intended to make way with himself. Undertaker Combs has the remains in charge and is holding them until he hears from the son of the deceased, giving direction as to the disposal.

A coroner's jury was held over the remains and the jury brought in a verdict of suicide, as a revolver with three empty cartridges was found lying near the remains.

WEST END

WILL CELEBRATE ONE DAY IN ADVANCE

West End Will Have "Pumpkin Head" and Costume Parades.

A pumpkin parade, a costume parade, "rube" band, wagons distributing peanuts and candy, and other features will be carried out at the Halloween celebration planned by the West end merchants on Superior street between Eighteenth and Twenty-fourth avenues west tonight, one day in advance of Halloween. It will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

There will be two parades. The first will be the "pumpkin-head" parade. It is expected that nearly 500 men, women and children will take part in this. Five prizes will be awarded to those taking part. There will be a first, second and third, amounting to $2, $1.50 and $1 for the best pumpkin head, and two prizes, $1.50 and $1, for the homeliest pumpkin faces.

The other parade will be a Halloween costume parade, and a similar number of prizes will be given, the three prizes being offered for the best costumes, and the other two for the most amusing costumes.

Judges will be stationed at one of the corners. The location of these judges and their names will not be known, but the prizes will be awarded and paid out at the close of the parade. Arrangements have been made by the committee to have a large wagon go through the street from which peanuts and candies will be thrown to the children. Nearly half a ton of each has been provided by the committee.

The celebration is planned with the idea of providing the children with wholesome enjoyment, and we want them all there," said A. E. Anderson, secretary of the committee, this morning. "We hope that by providing this amusement the children will be kept from destroying property, soaping windows and doing other pranks that are annoying."

"Reform" Festival. A "Reformation" festival has been planned for this evening at the Zion Norwegian Lutheran church, Twenty-fifth avenue west and Third street, under the auspices of the deacons of the church.

The program will include an address on "The Present Day Church in Norway" by Rev. J. M. Nervig, pastor of the Zion church, and a number of organ selections by Prof. A. F. Lundholm. Refreshments will be served.

Dies at St. Luke's. Ole L. Olson, aged 55 years, a resident of the West end for a number of years, died yesterday at St. Luke's hospital following an illness of several weeks. He was married and leaves two brothers and two sisters, all of whom reside in Sweden. Mr. Olson had lived in Duluth for about thirty-five years.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Olson & Craik's undertaking rooms and the body will be taken to Minneapolis tomorrow evening for burial.

Palmquist Funeral. The funeral services for Mrs. Johanna Palmquist, aged 81 years, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bethany Swedish Lutheran church, Twenty-third avenue west and Third street. The body will be taken this evening to Center City, Minn., for burial.

Halloween Social. The young people of the First Swedish Methodist church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, will celebrate this evening at a Halloween social in the parlors of the church. Halloween games and other events have been planned. A short program of music will be given at which Rev. C. W. R. Wermline will sing, instrumental numbers will be given by Miss Ruth Nelson and a short talk by Rev. Gust Tapper. The program will start at 8 o'clock.

West End Briefs. Ingram Erickson of Crookston, who has been spending the last week visiting relatives in this end of the city, left for his home last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Albert of Minneapolis, who have been visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. H. Morrow, of West Fourth street, left for her home last evening.

THOUSANDS LYING UNBURIED ON FIELD

Continuous Procession of Wounded Is Seen in Belgium.

London, Oct. 30.—In a dispatch from Amsterdam a correspondent of the Central News quotes the representative at Ostend of the newspaper Tyd to the effect that thousands of wounded Germans are returning from the battlefield in Flanders. Loaded into all kinds of vehicles, the sad procession of wounded men is moving northward; those not so seriously hurt are traveling on foot.

Thousands of unburied bodies cover the battlefield, the correspondent continues, and no one can form an adequate idea of the awful number of victims falling every moment in this mad fight.

Between Lepe and Middelkerke the German gins have ceased firing because their shells would kill German troops as well as the soldiers of the allies. Consequently only hand to hand fighting is taking place.

ARREST THREE FOR BURGLARY

Two Caught in Act of Stealing From Box Car.

Third Member of Party Taken After Barricading Home.

Charles Patton, self-confessed burglar, barricaded himself in his home at Thirteenth avenue west and Superior street this morning, when the police came to arrest him.

Detectives Towse and Bradley tried every door in the house and although indications pointed to the fact that everyone was out, the officers decided to investigate. Detective Towse peered in all the windows and finally after waiting around for an hour, decided to break in.

Just as he crawled in a front window, a woman appeared at the front door, where Detective Bradley was on watch. She said she was a sister of Patton and wanted to know what the trouble was all about. In the meantime Detective Towse had entered the room from the window and a few minutes later Patton was under arrest.

At first Patton denied the charge, but when brought to police headquarters and confronted with the two companions in crime, he admitted his guilt. Together with John O'Donnell and Emil Ott, who were arrested by Patrolmen Oscar Olson and Harry Towse at 1:22 o'clock this morning, he was arraigned before Judge Cutler. The trio waived examination on a charge of burglary in the third degree and were bound over to the grand jury, which meets next Wednesday. They all admit their guilt.

See Men Proving About.
At 1 o'clock this morning Officers Towse and Olson were providing around the box cars at Twelfth avenue west. They followed the men and discovered that they were stealing some butter and corn. When confronted by the officers, the three men started to run. But after a chase, O'Donnell and Ott were caught but Patton got away. He succeeded in evading the officers by throwing a large tub of butter in front of Patrolman Towse. The officer fired at him, but he managed to make his escape.

DETERMINED TO HAND HIM MONEY

Brown McDonald, local immigrant inspector, is confronted with a real mystery.

This morning he received a letter addressed to Brown McDonald, Nevada, Tex., and forwarded to him in this letter the claim agent of the Santa Fe road informs him that he will now receive damages for the loss of his horse Aug. 13, last.

The mystery in the fact that Mr. McDonald, himself, comes from Anderson, a small town ten miles from Nevada, where he was born and where he lived for many years.

Who is this Brown McDonald, who lost a horse? That's the mystery.

ELECTRICALLY-DRIVEN PRAYERS.
Wider World Magazine, driven by a small stream of water, a certain wheel serves to turn the rice mill of tiny Laski village in the foot hills of the Himalayas behind Simla, the summer capital of India. The Ladakhs belong to the Lamaistic or Tibetan branch of Buddhists, a unique feature of whose worship is the use of the prayer wheel. Some of these wheels, filled with written prayers, usually contain repetitions of the sacred text, "Om Mani Padme Oms"—are revolved in the hand, others by the wind, and still others by water, each revolution of a wheel being considered equal to a repetition of the sacred prayers it contains. This particular wheel is of the water-driven type, several hundred prayers being carried in the hollowed-out wooden shaft and turned while the grinding of the rice proceeds. Prayer wheels of all descriptions are by no means uncommon amongst the Himalayan Buddhists, and there would be nothing especially remarkable about this one but for the fact that in conserving the flow of a mountain river in connection with the hydro-electric project that is shortly to furnish light and power for Simla, it appears likely that the flow of a number of little streams which are dependent on for water to drive the rice and prayer wheels of several small villages will be, for a part of the year at least, entirely cut off. The government of India, therefore, ever scrupulously careful to avoid interfering with religious practices, has decreed that where the owners of water wheels, whose power will be interfered with by the Simla project, do not elect to accept a money compensation for their loss, a motor shall be installed for them and power furnished free of charge. So it would appear likely that the wheel in question is sending up the first electrical-driven prayers to Buddha in Nirvana, will accomplish a feat that will make the latest wonders of the wireless pale into insignificance by comparison.

Nobody Works But Father.
National Monthly: Two men, who had formerly lived in the same town, met after a number of years and entered into conversation.

"Did all your boys turn out well, Jim?" asked one of them.

"Yes, indeed they did."

"What's Albert doing?"

"He's trying to discover a new germ," replied the father.

"And Bob?"

"Oh, Bob is tryin' his hand at a newspaper an' bein' editor." Was the oldest son's reply.

"And Charlie—what's he at?"

"He's an actor. All the time talkin' about elevatin' the stage."

"And what are you doing, Jim, now that all your boys are away?" asked the old friend.

"Well," answered the old man, "I'm a supporter of Albert an' Bob an' Charlie."

THE OPEN COURT

Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their views on the topics of general interest, but discussions of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters must not exceed 200 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.

THE GERMAN FUND.

To the Editor of The Herald: Is there any good reason why the contributors to the Austro-German war fund do not get the same credit and publicity as given the graves war fund? One Duluthian contributed $500 and others less. Why should they not receive due recognition of their generosity? A CONTRIBUTOR.

Duluth, Oct. 28.

There is no reason except their own modesty. The Herald asked permission to run the list of contributors but was told by one of the men in charge of the fund that they preferred not to have their names published. The Herald believes that it would stimulate interest in the fund to publish the names, and will be glad to do so if those in charge see fit to give out the list. The Herald desires to give as much publicity as possible to all of the funds, and to tribute this publicity impartially, and the public-spirited men behind the German fund are at liberty to use The Herald's columns more freely than they have, if they care to do so.—The Editor.

EMPLOYER AND EMPLOYEE.

To the Editor of The Herald: As you are apparently expected to know "something about everything," as well as "everything about something," I venture to hope you may be able to enlighten me on the following points, viz.: First, does the Minnesota state law place any time limit on the number of hours per day that a stationary engineer may be asked to work? Second, can an employer legally demand twelve or thirteen hours' work per day, seven days in the week? Third, if there is a limit law, is it materially affected by the fact that an engineer is employed by the day or by the month? Fourth, if employed by the month, is the employer justified in deducting from a month's wages a proportionate amount for each day or part of day when employee was absent from work, said employee working every day in the month, Sundays included? Thanking you, in anticipation, I am, sincerely yours, INQUIRER.

Duluth, Oct. 28.

First, no. The hours of women in factories and mechanical shops on roads are restricted, but not those of stationary engineers. Second, apparently not. Third, the first answer answers this. Fourth, this would depend on the agreement under which the man was employed. If he was mean enough to do so he probably could.—The Editor.

OUR ZOO IS GROWING.

To the Editor of The Herald: Hurrah for Game Warden George E. Wood! Long may he live to protect the "Lonely Partridge" and the "Spirit Lake Duck" and, of course, the "Virginia Deer." I, who have lots of reason to be discontented, seem to be the only bird around here with no complaints to make. How glad I am that no one buys

"mail order guns" and "gasoline launches" and "automobiles" to go gunning for me. While you are all busy trailing and flying for the "tall timbers" trying to keep out of the way of stray shots and bullets, I am in my little gilded cage taking life easy. A nice bath once a day (shower or sponge whichever I prefer), all kinds of garden truck, served me table d'hôte, and a nice music curtain over my cage when the mosquitoes or flies get troublesome. I have been wondering what I would do if I had all the troubles that poor "Spirit Lake Duck" seems to have. I would fly through the "unobstructed aerial path" along "which no enemy stalks," and I would live me straight to Hocking. There I would find Game Warden Wood, perch on his manly shoulder and whisper in his ear my little (or big) tale of woe. And, knowing of his reputation of being a regular "father of his country" (the same country), I would be sure of his protection from illegal hunting and slaughtering as long as he was on the job.

So my advice to all game birds or animals is: Tell your troubles to the men who are paid to protect you and give them a chance before consulting them. As long as right is right and wrong is wrong in this world, right will always win in the end. So here's to a long life to "Spirit Lake Duck" and to "Lonely Partridge" and "Virginia Deer." And don't forget yours truly, CANARY.

Virginia, Minn., Oct. 29.

TO THE RESCUE, GOOD HOUSEWIVES!

To the Editor of The Herald: I would be very much pleased to receive a recipe for tomato soup or tomato honey, if some kind housewife would send one in. Also, if someone who knows the poem of the "German Band" would send in a copy of it. I have not been able to find this poem in the public library. Part of the poem reads thus:

"The German band in the noon day heat Formed on the corner of the street. Berkeheimer and Meadowcroft With cornets under their arms came first," etc.

I would be very pleased to receive whole poem. MRS. J. C. L. N.

Duluth, Oct. 29.

HIS EYES ARE HAZEL.

To the Editor of The Herald: Could you please inform me through your Open Court columns, what colored eyes Homer Barton has?

Duluth, Oct. 29. A QUESTIONER.

To avoid slandering the sex let it be said that this query was not signed by a woman, but a man. Mr. Barton's reply was stricken by the censor. His eyes are hazel—The Editor.

"NO SUCH PLACE."

To the Editor of The Herald: This was seems to be in a mixup. I sent a letter to Belgium and it came back about a month later saying on it "no such place." Probably it was opened by a German and put on for a joke, but probably it is the same. Please tell me which is correct—Belgium or Belgium. Hoping to see this in the Open Court. M. T. W.

Duluth, Oct. 29.

Belgian is the adjective; Belgium—the

BETTER FOR TIMBER THAN AGRICULTURE.

To the Editor of The Herald: I was brought up on a somewhat hilly farm in New Hampshire, having different kinds of soil, on which for several years I helped with my own hands to cultivate different kinds of crops. I have for many years been acquainted with much of the land in Minnesota owned by the state, and personally know that considerable of it is much better adapted for the production of timber than for any other use. Some of it is denuded and growing poorer every year. If the proposed amendment (No. 9) to the Constitution be adopted at the coming election, No. 9, the legislature can have it used as state forests, and the revenue therefrom will go to the fund which the land was granted. There can be no reasonable doubt that the legislature would employ impartial and competent persons to examine and select the land. Certainly no friend of forestry wants to give so farming land for state forests. It would be fatal to his cause.

The adoption of this amendment and use of the state's now idle, non-tillable land for revenue yielding forest will do great honor to Minnesota and place her in the front rank, if not in the lead, of states in the foresting movement.

To the Editor of The Herald: I would appreciate your asking, through the Open Court, if any of your readers would be able to furnish the rest of the parody, reading in part: "The gnashing teeth bit hard on a stern and rib-bound roaster. The boarders against the dented wall their heads in biscuits tossed," etc. J. H. C.

STATE SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Minnesota supreme court today rendered the following decisions:

HENNEPIN COUNTY.
Fact, Customs and Evidence.
Charles A. Ikenberry, administrator, respondent, vs. New York Life Insurance company, appellant. The evidence examined and held to make the fact of first premium on a life insurance policy and its delivery to and receipt by the insured question of fact for the jury.

While the conduct of a person, subject to collateral matters, cannot be used against him to disprove the position he takes in a litigation involving the same transaction, it may not be offered to corroborate or prove the correctness of his position.

When it appeared that a purported sender of a telegram was in a state of coma from a paralytic stroke so that it was impossible for her to have dictated or directed a message to be sent, the telegram is properly excluded when offered as an admission against interest.

In the reception in evidence of acts of conduct in collateral matters tending to prove admissions against interest upon an issue in litigation, the trial court must exercise discretion and consider whether in view of surrounding circumstances the matter is likely to aid the jury. No abuse of such discretion is found in the ruling excluding the matter if plaintiff's testate in which no mention is made of this insurance payable to the estate.

The agent of defendant, who negotiated the insurance, was not the insured and delivered a note for the amount of the first premium, and to whom the defendant sent the policy after its issue, is held not interested in it. To prevent his testifying to conversations with the insured, now deceased, the order reversed in so far as it denies a new trial.

HOLT, J.

HENNEPIN COUNTY.

Insurance Beneficiaries.
William M. Adams, et al. appellants, vs. Mary Madison, substituted, etc., respondents. Where a person procures insurance upon the life of another, it is the general rule that he must prove an insurable interest in such life in order to recover upon such policy. Where a person insures his own life and appoints another to receive the proceeds of such policy, the appointee establishes a prima facie right to recover by proving the contract of insurance and the payment of the event upon which it is to become payable. If facts exist which create a reasonable doubt as to the true intent of the insured, such recovery they are matters of defense.

The classes of persons eligible as beneficiaries under policies issued by a fraternal association are not limited by the rules adopted for the express purpose of governing such matters, and not by general statements made for the purpose of indicating the general object of such association and its restrictions. The classes of persons who may be so designated must be expressed in positive terms and cannot be inferred from general statements.

3. The by-laws of the association having provided that policies may be made payable to the affianced wife of the insured, a policy made payable to the insured, although the object of the association, as stated in its constitution, is to provide insurance for the surviving relatives of its members.

4. Under the evidence in this case the court did not err in refusing to find that immoral relations existed between the insured and his beneficiary. Order affirmed. TAYLOR, C.

RAMSEY COUNTY.

Catholic Aid Policy.
Joseph Germaine, et al. respondents, vs. German Roman Catholic Aid Association of America, appellants. A death benefit certificate issued by a mutual aid association, wherein it is provided that all members of the association should cease if the member "at the time of his death belonged to a secret non-Catholic aid association or for any reason could not be considered as a rightful member of this association," held, when construed as required, most favorably assured, not forfeited by his membership in a secret aid association open to Roman Catholics, sanctioned by their actual membership, and not shown to have been disapproved by that church, though in no way affiliated therewith. Order affirmed. PHILIP E. BROWN, J.

RAMSEY COUNTY.

Landlord Not Liable.
Beasly Dett, appellant, vs. Horace A. Towne, et al., respondents. 1. When a landlord does not covenant to keep the demised premises in repair, and such defects as exist therein are obvious, and there is no concealment, and the lessee does not constitute a nuisance, the lessee takes the risk of their safe occupancy, and the landlord is not liable to him for an injury sustained in their use or to one occupying under him. 2. Applying this doctrine, it is held that the court properly directed verdict for two of the defendants occupying the position of landlords. Order affirmed. DIBELL, C.

DAKOTA COUNTY.

Cannot Take Back Fine.
State of Minnesota, respondent, vs. William A. Wells, et al., appellants. People's Ice Company, appellant. The defendant, a foreign corporation indicted for violation of the statute prohibiting an unlawful combination in restraint of trade, sought an opportunity to change its plea of not guilty to guilty and receive sentence. The sentence lawfully imposed was a fine which was at once paid. Six months thereafter, having paid a few days, the appeal was granted. Upon the state's motion to dismiss the appeal it was made to appear that the defendant had voluntarily, with the intention to abide by and comply with the sentence of the court, hence the appeal should be dismissed. Dismissed. HOLT, J.

DAKOTA COUNTY.

Allowance.
Lucy Horbach, executrix, etc., appellant, vs. Catherine Horbach, respondent. Under subd. K, R. L. 1905, section states that any person giving attention to the development of their forest resources, but there being eleven amendments to be voted on, it is liable to be overlooked.

Restoration of the forest is not twice as large in area as St. Louis county, yet it has 450,000 acres of state forest, yielding a net annual revenue of $5.22 per acre, and 23,000 acres of municipal and private forest. Her example should stimulate our natural forest resources.

For many years back I have watched the beautiful schools and the splendid enterprise and public spirit of the people of St. Louis county, and naturally hope it will give this state forest amendment a large majority.

C. C. ANDREWS, Secretary State Forestry Board, St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 29.

LET US HOPE NOT.

To the Editor of The Herald: I would appreciate your asking, through the Open Court, if any of your readers would be able to furnish the rest of the parody, reading in part: "The gnashing teeth bit hard on a stern and rib-bound roaster. The boarders against the dented wall their heads in biscuits tossed," etc. J. H. C.

Duluth, Oct. 29.

CHOW WING COUNTY.

Intervenor Must Pay.
George A. Schiller, plaintiff, vs. Northern Room company, respondent; National Life Insurance company, appellant. Where an intervenor claiming a lien on property for the negligent loss of which the action is brought, reiterates the allegations of the complaint in the action and becomes practically a co-plaintiff, he is liable, under G. S. 1913, section 10, for the costs of the action, upon the setting aside of separate verdicts in their favor, including the expense of a transcript and two copies of the testimony.

3. The trial court's determination, made on conflicting affidavits, as to the number of folios charged for, cannot be disturbed. Judgment affirmed. PHILIP E. BROWN, J.

BLUE EARTH COUNTY.

Contract Before Jury.
J. R. Blocher, respondent, vs. Mayer Bros. company, respondent. 1. Where a person procures insurance upon the life of another, it is the general rule that he must prove an insurable interest in such life in order to recover upon such policy. Where a person insures his own life and appoints another to receive the proceeds of such policy, the appointee establishes a prima facie right to recover by proving the contract of insurance and the payment of the event upon which it is to become payable. If facts exist which create a reasonable doubt as to the true intent of the insured, such recovery they are matters of defense.

2. The by-laws of the association having provided that policies may be made payable to the affianced wife of the insured, a policy made payable to the insured, although the object of the association, as stated in its constitution, is to provide insurance for the surviving relatives of its members.

3. Under the evidence in this case the court did not err in refusing to find that immoral relations existed between the insured and his beneficiary. Order affirmed. TAYLOR, C.

WATSON COUNTY.

Land Sale, Possession and Ejectment.
Carl Bernhart, respondent, vs. William Bernhart, appellant. Action in ejectment. Defense, that defendant in possession of the land, and that the plaintiff had no right to possession, as to take the case out of the court. The court found no oral contract was made. To recover on a contract, the plaintiff must prove the contract, and such contract must be clearly proved and its terms so specific and definite as to leave no reasonable doubt of their meaning. The finding should not be set aside unless it is manifestly and palpably against the weight of evidence. The evidence in this case sustains the finding of the trial court, and the finding must be sustained.

2. Before the commencement of this action plaintiff sold the land to other parties under contract which provided for payment of the price, delivery of deed, and delivery of possession at the expiration of the time agreed upon. Payment has not yet been made and the deed has not been delivered. Accordingly not yet entitled to possession. Ejectment is a possessory action. Plaintiff is entitled to the land and the land is entitled to maintain ejectment. Order affirmed. HALLAM, J.

WASECA COUNTY.

Instructions and Evidence.
Peter Marshall, respondent, vs. Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway company, appellant. Where the court, in an action to recover for personal injuries, instructed the jury that plaintiff could not recover unless a customer existed at the time of the accident, and there is no evidence tending to prove the existence of such customer, a verdict for plaintiff cannot be sustained. Order reversed and new trial granted. TAYLOR, C.

ISANTI COUNTY.

Questions for Jury.
E. E. Gillespie, as administrator, respondent, vs. Great Northern Railway company, appellant. In an action by the plaintiff to recover for the death of his son, a testate, who was run over and killed by a car of the defendant, which was crossing the tracks and was put in motion by cars switched against it, as it is held that the jury should be instructed that the question whether the plaintiff's intestate was guilty of contributory negligence was one of fact. Order affirmed. TAYLOR, C.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies Are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful hair, are turning to this old-time recipe. Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. By morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Denver, Col., Oct. 30.—A statement of J. F. Welborn, president of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co., is the possible closing down of Colorado coal mines, evoked a strong denial last night by John McLennan, president of District No. 15, United Mine Workers of America. The McLennan statement says:

"President Welborn's statement that there are 11,000 miners at work in Colorado is both absurd and ridiculous. There were less than 12,000 men working when the strike was called. Of these, 11,222 went out on strike. About 3,000 of these have either left the state or are working at other employment."

"Welborn's statement that less than half of the operators' original employees are still on strike is a deliberate misrepresentation to divert the public mind from the seriousness of the situation. We can show and make affidavits to the effect that there are 8,000 miners now drawing relief, who were employed in the Colorado mines before the strike was called. Any responsible party can examine our books and verify this statement."

BERG ASKS HIS FRIENDS TO REPUDIATE WILLIAM E. LEE

and Republican Issues Letter.

Says Lee Has Forfeited All
Claim to Republican Support.

Albert Berg, former secretary of state of Minnesota, for many years a staunch Republican and at one time mentioned prominently as a candidate for governor, has addressed a letter to a large number of his personal friends throughout the state asking them to refuse to support William E. Lee, Republican candidate for governor, on Nov. 2.

His letter says Mr. Lee is not a Republican and "forfeited all claim to Republican sympathy and support when he followed up his failure to vote for the Republican candidates two years ago by a campaign of personal abuse of Governor Eberhart and Governor Eberhart's supporters."

He further "protest" that Mr. Lee's county option stand is another proof of his "insincerity and duplicity." "The record shows," the letter continues, "that the only opportunity he ever had to demonstrate his fidelity to the cause of county option, he dodged the issue and did not vote." Mr. Berg concludes by saying that Mr. Lee silently acquiesced "in the attempt of his friends to make it appear that because of his name he was of Scandinavian descent when in fact he is not. This," alleges the writer, "shows his willingness to profit by deceit and trickery of the most contemptible character. I emphasize this fact because I am opposed to the national issue in politics."

LAMP GLASSES GERMAN PRODUCT

Startling Fact for Mine Owners and Men in England.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)
London, Oct. 18.—The miner's safety-lamp glass, on which depends the safety and livelihood of nearly a million British miners, is exclusively a German product, and English manufacturers are unable to produce a glass which will stand the exacting test of the home office.

this test, the glass is submitted to a heat trial. It is brought to a temperature of 315 degs. Fahrenheit and dropped into cold water.

Not only miners' glasses, but gauge glasses and test tubes for chemists have come from Germany in the past. It is doubtful whether England is able to produce this class of goods according to statements of manufacturers. At least, the trade will not be built up in a short time. New equipment is required and men must be trained for the new work.

Much of Germany's glassware and pottery, such as is supplied to the more primitive corners of the world, is, as the Board of Trade exhibition shows, cheap and gaudy. But this trade is nevertheless extensive and profitable, and one hitherto neglected by all countries except Germany.

MILITARY HONORS.

Paris, Oct. 18.—German and French soldiers who die in hospitals here are buried with military honors. Their graves are marked in precisely the same manner in the cemeteries of Paris and Bagneux. French soldiers are buried in one section and Germans in another. The graves are simple. At the end of each is a black wooden cross with the soldier's name, regiment and date of death. Graves of French soldiers are covered with flowers. Visitors buy them at the entrance and throw them upon the graves of the French soldiers. Not a flower is to be seen upon those of the Germans.

Amusement Notes.

"Kindling" is bringing excellent patronage to the Lyceum theater, where the Baldwin Players are giving an artistic performance of this admirable play of tenement life in which Margaret Illington won such great success.

Next week Grace Oreck's famous success "The Man from Minnesota," a record of two seasons in New York, one in Chicago and one year in London, will be presented by the Baldwin Players, commencing with a matinee Sunday and continuing all next week.

"The Man from Minnesota" is a comedy of the New York smart set and many of the people who have witnessed this week's bill during the first five days of the week then attended during the first five days of the engagement of "The Red Heads." The comedy acts during this week's bill and Anna Reid's daughter, Liane Carrera, have been the drawing cards. Next week's bill will be headlined by Sammy Burns and Alice Fulton in their original dance creation.

A snappy new bill opened at the Empire Hippodrome yesterday and attracted big audiences.

Jim Smith, who opened the bill, does a clever and entertaining act. A comedy singing and talking act is presented by Rice and Newton. Rice's comedy took quite well while Miss Newton's playing on a small piano was well received.

Miss Mae Taylor, known as the star of "Louisiana Loy," was the biggest hit on the bill. She has an excellent voice and a good appearance. The Glover boys have a lot of good songs and sing them well.

Rouges and Finau met with an accident and were unable to appear on the bill. Owing to the short notice given, the management was unable to supply another act.

The "Country Store" will be a feature tonight. Next Monday evening, "Local Talent Night," will be instituted at the Empire. Only amateur acts of merit will be permitted to appear on the stage.

A good bill, with an interesting variety of acts, opened at the New Grand theater yesterday afternoon for the remainder of the week.

Charles Lindholm and his company of four players headline the bill with the comedy sketch "The Man from Minnesota." This act should score a big hit with the local theatergoers. It deals with the troubles of a Swedish woodsman in a large city.

Ziska and company open the bill with a series of juggling feats and in addition a series of stunts and dances. The Flying Fishers close the bill with several stunts and dances.

The world's series games between Boston and Philadelphia are shown in the Hearst-Selig pictures. In addition a two-reel comedy film, "The Private Office," and "A Costume Piece," which is interwoven a pretty love story are shown.

The bill will continue until Sunday night.

Get All the Fresh Air Possible.

An old bachelor, or one who subscribes himself thus, writes and asks what I think of the "fresh-air-crank." Few words suffice.

For a "fresh-air-crank," like any other kind of a crank is a nuisance. You don't want him around. Possibly the man who wrote to me fears a breath of air and keeps the windows tightly closed against its intrusion. Personally I believe in fresh air and a plenty of it, but I don't believe in fresh air to the exclusion of warmth and comfort and other things that human beings hold dear. In other words I am no crank on the subject. If someone drops into my office and remarks that conditions are uncomfortable I try to accommodate for the time being if it is not too inconvenient. One person ought not to sacrifice the others to his or her preferences and feelings where several are to be considered. I do not blame those who rebel at being penned in a room with a half dozen others where there is no ventilation worth talking about and where from morn to night the air is breathed over and over again without being changed. No one should be allowed to coddle themselves to the extent of excluding fresh air from their rooms or the offices in which they are as many confirmed cranks of this type as of the fresh air variety and there is not much choice between them.

When a strong-minded man or woman with a penchant for fresh air starts out to work reform in the home or in the place of employment there is likely to be a deal of discomfort. It is of every one who enjoys, or in fact, who fresh air driving down upon their backs. It isn't everyone who benefits from windows thrown open wide in sleeping rooms, no matter what the weather, though there is little question that fresh air should be introduced in a proper manner all through the day and that a house should be aired thoroughly two or three times a day and that in moderate weather the windows should be kept open. In other words when winds are sharp and chill I believe in protection from them and I am not then so keen on the ever open window.

A little common sense and a disposition to be obliging and considerate of the feelings of others is all that is necessary. You are not obliged to keep all the doors and windows open to have fresh air. But you can seal up every crack and cranny and expect the average mortal to exist. There is no one but a crank objects to it under such conditions.

LETTER FROM THE KAISER

Document Published in London Scores British Suspicion.

Denies German Navy Was Meant as Menace to England.

London, Oct. 30.—The Post publishes the text of a hitherto unpublished letter which the German emperor wrote to Lord Tweedmouth on Feb. 2, 1905, at the time there was a scare in England at the growth of the German navy. Lord Tweedmouth then was first lord of the admiralty, and the revelation in the following March that Emperor William had written him caused a great agitation in the country.

Official announcements regarding the letter were made by the German foreign office and by Chancellor von Bülow in the reichstag to the effect that the emperor's naval menace to England was a misunderstanding of the defensive character of the German navy.

The emperor's letter began by referring to British agitation about an alleged German naval menace to England, and said:

"It is absolutely nonsensical and untrue that the German naval bill is to provide a navy meant as a challenge to British naval supremacy. The German fleet is built against nobody at all. It is solely built for Germany's needs in relation with that country's rapidly growing trade."

The emperor proceeds at length to explain that there is nothing secret or underhand in the naval bill, which simply sought to bring the navy up to modern requirements by replacing obsolete ships and, so forth, thus being only an exchange of old material for new, and not an addition to the number of units laid down a decade ago.

Rights of Nations. The emperor then argues that all nations have a right to build navies in accordance with their needs, and protests warmly against the idea that Germany is building against England, and also against the British policy of always singling out Germany as a power with which to make a standard of comparison in naval affairs.

"To my humble opinion," the letter goes on, "this perpetual quoting of the 'German danger' is utterly unworthy of the great British nation, with its world-wide empire and its mighty navy. There is something nearly ludicrous about it."

"These lines were written by one who is an ardent admirer of your splendid navy; who wishes it all success, and who hopes that its eagles may ever wave on the same side as the German navy, and by one who is proud to wear the uniform of a British admiral, conferred by the late great queen of business."

Went Back to Eve. The emperor concludes by referring to Admiral Fisher's warning in a recent speech not to get scared, and says that "if Eve had not listened to the serpent on the apple, she would not now be bothered with clothing."

WINDING UP RATE PLEAS

Louis A. Brandeis, the commission's special counsel, declared yesterday the only new fact adduced by the carriers to justify their rate increase was the war.

No specific showing had been made, he said, as to the increase in existing rates, and he expressed the opinion that the carriers were not entitled to grant the advance, thereby modifying its previous ruling, it would exceed its legal powers and invade the province of congress to declare governmental policies.

Mr. Brandeis was followed by F. B. James and E. F. Paulson, representing shippers of bulk and general cargo, and Charles M. Johnston, appearing for Pennsylvania coal producers; Luther C. Walters, in behalf of lumber and livestock shippers; and Rush Butterfield, counsel for the Pennsylvania anthracite coal producers. All maintained that nothing had been brought out at the new hearings to justify the carriers' rate of any specific rate, and that the relief sought by the carriers was beyond the legal power of the commission to extend.

Railway Men Heard. Flight hours in the case for argument, the time being equally divided between those advocating and those opposing the application, the case for the railroads was opened by George S. Patterson of the Pennsylvania system, who was followed by J. J. Minis of the Wash. O. E. Butterfield of the New York Central, and others who dealt with specific phases of the case. Mr. Patterson urged that the proposed increase was reasonable, and declared the roads were not asking for them as a matter of course.

Table of Statistics. Amplifying his position, Mr. Brandeis presented a table compiled from the statistics adopted by the carriers to support their claim that revenues had fallen off greatly in 1913 and in July and August of the current year. This indicated, he said, that while there had been an $8,000,000 decrease in gross revenue last August, the actual result had been an increase of $600,000 in net revenues. The decrease in gross revenue, he said, was due to the European war, without doubt, and with the decrease in business handled would go to an increase in capital cost because of idle equipment. Yet, that element, he argued, was one upon which the commission had only the opinion of witnesses as to its duration. "The question then," he added, "is it an element on which the determination of just and reasonable rates may properly be based?"

As to Bankers' Testimony. Bankers had appeared before the commission, Mr. Brandeis said, to show that railway credit abroad was declining and the rate of interest they must pay for new capital was going up, a condition which might last several years after the war ended. This also was classed as a field of consideration outside the commission's proper scope, but Mr. Brandeis insisted that even if considered, it would have little bearing. The total of railway obligations to be renewed within the next twelve months, he explained, was $200,000,000, on which an advance in the interest of 1 per cent would mean $2,000,000. This, he insisted, should be distributed over the billion and a half individual representatives of the carriers' territory.

Question of Credit. The question of credit, repeatedly urged by witnesses as a reason for advance in rates to safeguard securities held abroad, Mr. Brandeis asserted had no bearing upon the reasonableness of rates "but only upon the financial policy of the carriers, with which another government agency is called upon to deal."

No dispatches have been received from Constantinople in several days. The outbreak of the European war, official dispatches from Ambassador Morgenthau have told of the slight threat on which the issue of war or a maintenance of neutrality hung for some time. Turkey, already weakened by previous wars, to prevent the British navy from increasing its critical conversations between the British foreign office and the diplomatic representatives of the belligerent countries.

Diplomats Have Been Warned. Diplomatic representatives in Washington of the allied powers have been warned from Constantinople that as soon as Turkey had fully prepared her army for war, she would declare war on the allied powers. Great Britain, Russia and France have, through their ambassadors, made it plain to Turkey, it is understood, when the consequences of her entry might be compared to the unoccupied in the Mediterranean, would bombard the ports of Asia Minor. Greece probably would join the allies against Turkey, and the Balkan states be drawn into the general imbroglio, with the prospect that Italy might be found fighting Turkey as well.

Japan to India. When reports were current of unrest in Japan, it was pointed out that the Japanese fleet, feeling that the allies had been discussing here in quarters friendly to the allies.

Cannot Do Much. From a naval viewpoint Turkey cannot work much mischief, in the opinion of the commission. The Turkish navy is 300,000 trained men, according to statistics here, but in addition it is believed that there are about 400,000 irregulars, some of whom actually have joined the army, while the rest are ready to do so.

The regular army is composed of thirteen army corps, most of which are in Turkey. The infantry is said now to be the strongest branch. The artillery is made up of its guns during the recent Balkan war.

Turkey's naval strength consists of 3 battleships, 2 cruisers, 2 torpedo boats, 25 small gunboats, a coast defense ship and some auxiliary craft. The battleships are old and none has guns larger than eleven inches.

table to the British press or public life.

The Daily Telegram says: "Prince Louis of Battenberg displayed a delicacy of feeling which will be appreciated, for he is, in fact, less intimately connected with Germany than are many others in the public service."

Prince Louis of Battenberg, although born in Austria, came to England as a boy and was naturalized in 1868, when he was only 14 years old. His rise in the navy was slower than most cadets, for he had been in the navy twenty-three years ago he was promoted to a captaincy, and it was another thirteen years before he became a rear admiral. Finally, his great ability and services being recognized, he was appointed a lord in 1911, a few years after his visit to America.

Outside of the fact that he was born in Austria, the chief argument his opponents made against him was that he is the brother-in-law of Prince Henry of Prussia, who holds a somewhat similar command in the German navy.

In Noted Strategist. There were rumors some time ago that Prince Louis had been confined in the tower of London, but these were too ridiculous to be given serious consideration. Although the authorities deemed it expedient that he should appear more in public instead of confining himself to the admiralty, where, since the outbreak of the war, he had been working night and day directing the strategy of the navy, the prince had considered one of the most noted strategists of the admiralty.

Following this, some of the less influential papers took up the matter and asked that some statement be made regarding the fact that the prince had been confined in the tower. The professional head of the navy.

BELGIANS FLOOD YSER VALLEY; OUST GERMAN

The better part of two weeks after the battle line in the northwest extended into Belgium along the Yser and to the coast.

Evidently both sides are recuperating as much as possible from the strain of these tremendous efforts and are strengthening their lines with the fresh troops brought up by reinforcements.

Expect New Attack. No one here doubts that the Germans will shortly renew their efforts to take the chiel port, but there is every confidence that the allies, as heretofore, will be ready to meet them.

Winter has made its presence felt all along the battle line. The last few nights have been cold and in the Vosges a heavy snow has fallen, stopping the German operations. The cold has not interfered with the fighting, which, however, has a more military character because of the exhaustion of the troops.

German Outlook Bad. Gen. Berthaut, a French military critic, in a public article, declares that the outlook for the Germans is bad along the line of the Yser. He says that the Germans will abandon their effort against the allies' left flank, and try instead to reach Boulogne, but it is not believed that this slight change will increase the chances of success.

Many rumors are circulating in Paris, due in large measure to the lack of news from the front. For example, it is said that the Germans are about to fill the line of the Yser with troops, but this has been refuted by the allies.

French Generals Killed. A list of promotions issued by the war office gives the assignment of eight generals to the Yser. One of the vacant positions by the death in battle of General Raffet, and another by the death of General de la Motte.

persons aboard were drowned." A dispatch to the Times from Petrograd says it was the former German cruiser Breslau, which now flies the Turkish flag which shelled Theodosia.

Theodosia Bombaraded. Theodosia, Crimea, via Petrograd, Oct. 30.—From 9:30 o'clock to 10:30 yesterday morning, a Turkish cruiser with three funnels bombarded the station and city, damaging the cathedral, the Greek church and some shops. One soldier was wounded. The cruiser is the Russian Bank of Foreign Commerce caught fire. At the conclusion of the case of the cruiser left in a southerly direction.

Novorossysk, Caucasus. via Petrograd, Oct. 30.—The Turkish cruiser Hamidieh, which arrived here yesterday, demanded the surrender of the city and the government properties, threatening the case of refusal to hand over the town. The Turkish consul and officials were arrested. The cruiser withdrew.

French Boat Damaged. Bordeaux, Oct. 30.—A P. M. it was announced officially here today that two Turkish torpedo boat destroyers entered the port of Odesa on the Black sea yesterday and sank a Russian gunboat. They also inflicted damage on the French liner Portugal.

Theodosia, (formerly Kaffa), is a Russian seaport on the southeast coast of Crimea, about 700 miles northeast of Sebastopol, by which it is connected by rail.

Merchant Ship Sunk. London, Oct. 30.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Petrograd declares that Odesa also was visited by Turkish warships. It says:

"Two Turkish destroyers fired shells at Odesa harbor, sinking a merchant ship. The Turks also bombarded Novorossysk, a seaport of Caucasus. Two Turkish officers landed at Theodosia, on the southeast coast of Crimea, to demand the surrender of the port. The governor promptly imprisoned them."

What Will Balkans Do? "There is keen interest here as to the attitude of the Balkan states. Bulgaria recently gave assurances that it would join the allies against the Turks if asked of some reward at the end of the conflict. Rumanian feeling more than ever favorable to the allies."

"Public opinion here, while surprised at Turkey's action, is not in any way presented to settle the eastern question once for all."

Russians Not to Attack Turks. Petrograd, Oct. 30.—In the highest official sources here it is stated that Russia views the action of Turkey in bombarding two unfortified Russian ports without a declaration of war as infinitely more important to England than to Russia, on account of the English communications with India and her position in Egypt.

Although Russia, it is stated, now has her hands free, her policy will not be one of general aggression against Turkey, but merely a defense of her own interests in the Black sea.

Farquhar, the Turkish ambassador here, said tonight:

"I am sorry that my labor to improve the relations of the two countries has been so completely nullified. What moved the sultan's government to take this step is absolutely unknown to me. ## GERMANS LACK BOTH FOOD AND CLOTHING

Have Called on 1914 Class of Reserves, Aged 17 to 45.

Geneva, Switzerland, via Paris, Oct. 30.—A dispatch from Basel received here says that the German troops are suffering from hunger and cold. The dispatch says also that Germany has called upon the 1914 class of reserves, ranging from seventeen to forty-five years of age, and numbering at least 800,000 men.

According to the Swiss and French military critics, no serious attack between Belgium and Verdun is to be feared until the battle in Flanders is settled.

TRACE ORIGIN OF DISEASE

Typhoid Cases Have Source Here.

Majority of Victims Contracted Illness in Dakotas.

Of the eighteen new cases of typhoid fever reported to the health department during October, the origin of all but four has been traced to outside points. The majority of them were men in North Dakota working in the bar-vast fields, according to Dr. H. E. Webster, director of public health.

The health department records show that there are now thirty-one cases of typhoid in Duluth, the others having been continued from last month. This is a favorable showing, according to the health department officials, who state that typhoid is liable to be prevalent at this season of the year.

Dr. Webster states that those who are going out of the city or who are liable to drink impure water, should take the typhoid vaccine treatment. He says that the vaccine is furnished free by the state and that any physician can administer it. He asserts that as the expense is small and the protection certain, those who are liable to be exposed should not neglect to take this precaution.

The city is in excellent condition from the health standpoint, contagious diseases being very small in number. There is not a single case of smallpox at the detention hospital and Supt. Neil McDougall is now engaged in giving the institution a thorough fall house cleaning. The records show but one case each of measles and chicken pox, only two of scarlet fever and one of whooping cough.

HOME FOLKS FOR HAMMOND

Nobody Else in Race in the Second District, Says
Mankato Man.

Predicts Great Majority;
Nelson Is Given Hearty Reception.

Phillip McGraw of Mankato is in the city today on business and told The Herald that in the Second district there will be nobody in the running for governor but Congressman Hammond. The district, Mr. McGraw says, is solid for its present representative for the governorship, and Mr. McGraw predicts an enormous majority. Mr. McGraw talked to his home long distance telephone, and says that the audience that turned out to hear Mr. Lee last night was a rather slim one. Not much interest, save in a negative way, is taken in the campaign in the Second, he says.

Andrew Nelson, Democratic candidate for congress, spoke at Gilbert last night. In spite of the fact that the announcement was not made until four hours before the meeting, the hall used for the hall was filled to its capacity, which is 125 people.

This evening Mr. Nelson will speak at an open-air meeting at Twentieth avenue west and Superior street, beginning at 9:30, when the band concert, which is a part of the Halloween celebration, is finished.

Tomorrow evening Mr. Nelson will speak at Cook, and on the program also are speeches by E. J. Larson, Luke Burns and probably M. H. McMahon of Virginia.

On Monday night Mr. Nelson will close his campaign with an address at the village hall at Carlton, where a big celebration is planned.

The Hillside Hammond club held a rousing meeting last evening at Gonska's hall, Fifth avenue east and Fourth street. The members are much interested in the work and have been putting in their best looks for the ticket. Last evening enthusiastic talks were given by the members and by visiting Hammond supporters. Frank Heldeman presided. Among those who gave addresses were Capt. Charles Campbell of Minneapolis, James Dunne, C. A. McDonnell, Charles Krelitz, J. A. Farrell, Bert Ellstrom, D. A. Ellstrom, Edward Farni, W. T. Comerford, James Murray, Edward H. Hatch of Eveleth and Dr. F. J. Le Pak.

All of the Democratic clubs of the city will hold a huge rally on Monday night at the St. Louis hotel and an interesting program is being prepared.

Congressman Miller, who is campaigning in the Eighth district for reelection, will be in the city tomorrow for a few hours, but will soon be away again. Duluth will not hear him this year in a pre-election speech.

SEASON'S WORK IN PARKS ENDING

Opening Western Extension of Boulevard to Fairmont Park.

Mayor Prince announced this morning that the public parks of the city will be closed Nov. 1 for the winter months. No special policemen will be continued as watchmen but a general supervision of the parks and the boulevard system will be maintained by Henry Cleveland, manager of the park department.

The last of the present season's park work is now being done on the western extension of the boulevard. The driveway is being opened from Earle street, its present terminus, to Fairmont park, and will be one of the most attractive and picturesque sections of one of the most beautiful drives in the country. A feature will be the bridge suspended from a bridge, built. To cross the large ravine above Fairmont park Manager Cleveland is suspending a bridge from the big bridge of the Duluth, Missabe and Northern railroad. The men in the park department employ are being kept on the payroll as long as possible. Manager Cleveland suggested to Mayor Prince that it might be advisable to lay a number of them off, but the mayor was opposed. He said that the city now has enough idle men and that as the city wants the work done, to keep them at work as long as feasible.

LONDON LOOKS FOR NEW WARS

Asiatic Lands East of Persia Likely to Be Drawn in.

Conflicts May Reach From Atlantic to Indian Ocean.

London, Oct. 30.—The battle array as a result of the entry of the Ottoman empire into the international struggle stretches in an almost unbroken diagonal line across Europe and Asia. Turkey's adherence to the Teutonic side of the quarrel can hardly be the last new factor in the war which gradually is engulfing the Eastern hemisphere. It may reach from the Atlantic to the Indian ocean.

Greece, Roumania and Bulgaria are practically certain to be drawn into the conflict which already is engaging the nations, and the ultimate inclusion of Italy and Persia, with perhaps the Asiatic lands to the eastward of the latter coast, is today regarded in London as scarcely less probable.

Allies Will Back Russia.
Hot on the heels of the Turkish offensive movement against ports of the Black sea has followed what amounts to a declaration of war by Emperor Nicholas in the form of instructions to his ambassadors and his consuls to quit Turkey forthwith, and this will be followed promptly by similar action on the part of each of the allied governments. The appearance of the allied fleet off the Dardanelles will be a natural sequence.

The intervention of the Porte, since its persistent disregard of the warnings of Great Britain, France, and Russia, has been anticipated, and is said to have been thoroughly prepared for. It is accepted in London as another proof that the German need to endeavor to draw off Russian forces from Poland and Galicia. The Muscovites, however, have a large and growing reservoir which they claim is quite capable of attending to the Turkish factor without depleting the armies now in the field.

Russians Gaining.
These latter, apparently, are making steady progress toward the entrenched positions on the River Warthe in Russian Poland, where the Germans are undoubtedly making another attempt to render their enemy. The Russian occupation of Czernewitz in Bukovina, is considered important as this town is a railroad junction and its possession which another railroad line to Lodz, which again is in possession of Russian troops.

The war is again current in London today that Hungary, weary of a war in which she has nothing to gain, would welcome a chance to quit. It is suggested also that Serbia soon may be compelled to retire within her own borders and assume a purely defensive role, in consequence of the national exhaustion resulting from the fighting of three campaigns in as many years.

Reports Contradictory.
The battle arena, stretching between Labassee and Newport, has been virtually leveled off again, so far as independent news is concerned, and the official communications on the progress of the fighting from the two sides are so contradictory that little can be gleaned from them.

The appointment of Baron Fisher, popularly called "Jacky" Fisher, to succeed Prince Louis of Battenberg as first sea lord of the admiralty, has been hailed with enthusiasm by the public with which he is a prime favorite.

CARGOES OF COPPER WILL BE RELEASED

Washington, Oct. 30.—After a conference between Acting Secretary Lansing of the state department and Sir Cecil Spring-Rice the British ambassador, it was stated authoritatively that Great Britain probably would release the vessels carrying American copper cargoes.

It was learned that the Italian government already has declared an embargo on the importation of copper to belligerent countries, but that the notification had not formally reached England.

Offered Low Price.
New York, Oct. 30.—The British government has opened negotiations to purchase the American copper carried by five steamers seized by English warships at Gibraltar, but at a price less than the average cost of production, according to a statement issued by the American Smelting & Refining company. The statement declares that the British government has aimed a serious blow at the American copper industry by including that metal in the list of contraband. England's action is declared to be "a clear case of restraint of trade by a foreign government."

REFUSES TO CHANGE NEW YORK BALLOTS.

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 30.—Supreme Court Justice Sutherland this afternoon denied the motion made by counsel for the Progressives, Democrats and Independence League parties for a change of the ballots as now placed in the voting machines.

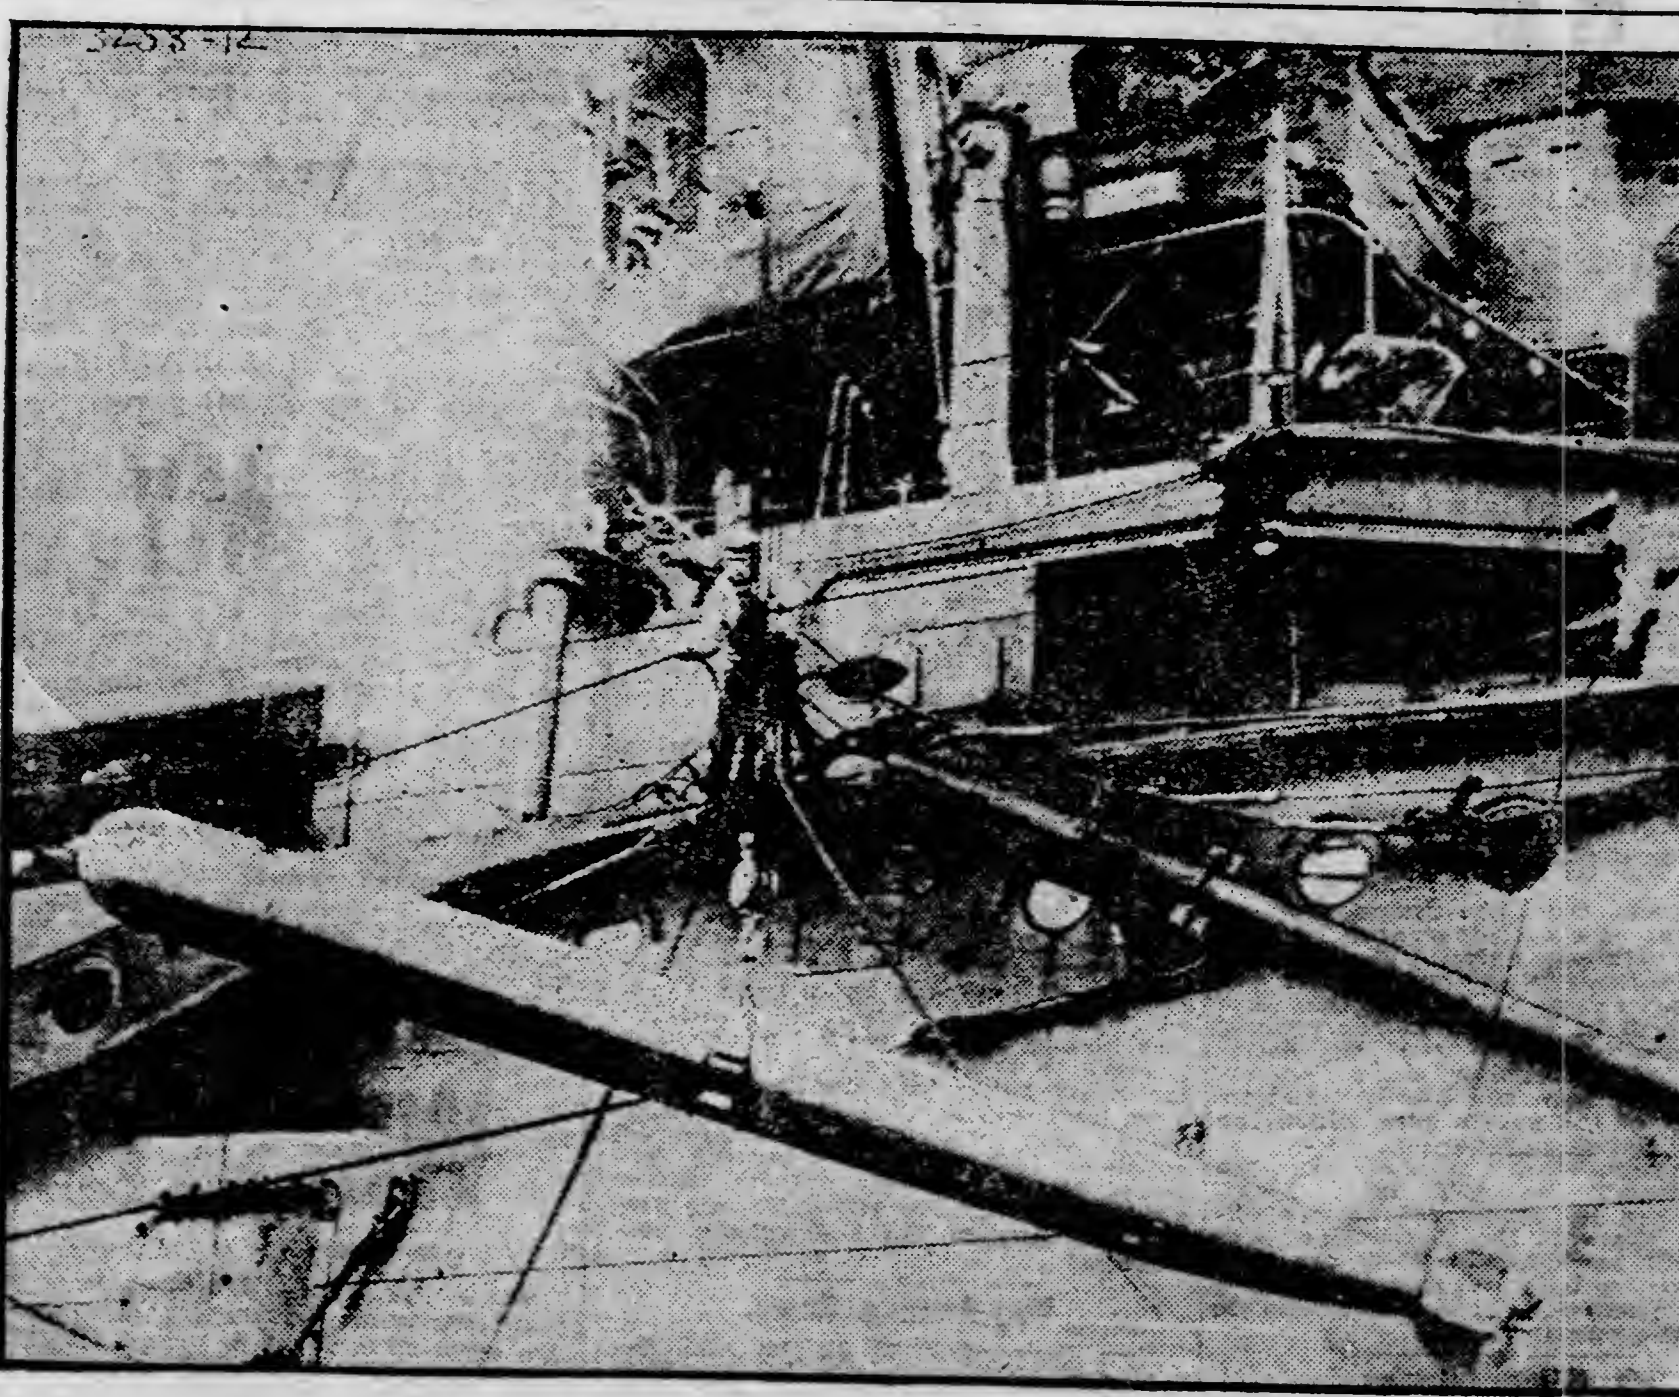

Justice Sutherland decided that the machines are correct, according to the law of 1911, in that each candidate's name appears for more columns than the machine of 1911, but once upon the machine of 1911, a demand was caused by the fact that some of the candidates were running on more than one party ticket.

Just Between You and Me

By BRUCE

EVERYTHING is set for the football games of tomorrow. Instead of robbing the Harvard-Michigan game of all interest, the defeat Syracuse administered to the Wolverines seems only to have added speculation to the coming gridiron struggle. Reports from Boston indicate that 40,000 persons will witness the intersectional struggle between the Eastern and Western teams.

In some measure, at least all this is a great and glowing tribute to the ability of Fielding H. Yost. Napoleon could do with the French legions what no other commander could do with the fighting forces of any other country. It is generally figured that Yost can do with a football team what no other coach of the day could accomplish.

Some people have chosen to call genius nothing more than the ability of hard work. Yost literally lives and dreams football. We were talking to Hank Boyle the other day. "Yost is a football bug," said the former Michigan player. "He talks football, eats football and I guess he dreams of it. He is a football man, a young man, but his enthusiasm in the game is boundless."

It has been the matchless enthusiasm of this remarkable coach that has fired his players to perform beyond their normal gain. A crazy man can lick two ordinary men. A fanatic is unconquerable. In some of the big games Yost has his men worked up to the fighting pitch that made them accomplish feats out of the ordinary.

This is not at all predicting that Michigan will win the game of tomorrow; the reversion to the ability of Yost is merely in line with the unlooked-for interest in the outcome of the game of tomorrow.

As the miracle man of football, Yost has the greatest feat of his career on his hands. You know Percy Haughton is not the worst coach in the world. On the Atlantic sea side of the Alleghenies the cronies of the game laugh like demented loons when anyone makes bold to declare that Yost is the peer of the Harvard mentor.

We hold that the struggle of Saturday will not prove in any manner a decisive test of the abilities of the two men. Yost has been called upon to mould a green and untried squad into a team called upon to go through one of the hardest schedules any football team east or west ever faced; and on the other hand Haughton has a brave band of veterans at his beck and call, and the Eastern team will be made up of veterans for the most part as opposed to the green players of the Western team.

Here is Juneau's Chance. YOU KNOW that old stuff about some men being born great, others having greatness thrust upon them, and others yet going out and getting a hammerlock on the big publicity stuff. Tomorrow Bill Juneau faces the portal across which smiles and coyly beckons opportunity. Some hold that opportunity is an ascendant jade, devoid of sentiment; be that as it may, a defeat of "Old Man" Stagg would make the West admit that Juneau was quite a coach after all.

With one of the greatest lines in the history of her football teams, the Badger stands with its back against the wall and awaits the coming of the Maroon. Heavy and possessed of the tenacious qualities of the bulldog, Wisconsin is to make its great bid for the conference title in the game against the pupils of Stagg.

Another Chance for Zuppke. S HAS been stated previously in this column, Bob Zuppke achieved a major portion of his reputation at Oak Park High school. For years the Oak Park football team held the interscholastic championship of that large and thriving land of ours. It traveled to the Pacific coast and also its activities were extended to the Atlantic sea line. With the fame of the team grew the reputation of Zuppke. Last season Illinois had one of the best teams in the history of the school, but the team lacked the punch to defeat the Gophers. This year some of the wise critics of the game are crediting the Urbana institution with having the greatest team in the history of the down state Illinois school.

Should the Illini defeat Minnesota, like Caesar, Zuppke could hasten word home, "I came, saw and conquered." Whether Zuppke has the punch Caesar is generally credited with having is another matter for all that.

One Grand Day—Saturday. OR THE lovers of the gridiron game—now that the baseball season is over—the card of Saturday is fairly bristling with impatiently awaited results. It is hard to miss a game—but it is good to read of the results. Michigan-Harvard, Chicago-Wisconsin, and Minnesota-Illinois loom forth as three games holding the great and undivided interest of the football followers of the West.

Two of these games promise to eliminate two conference contenders. The other game of the day will provide a spectacular test between the grade of football played on either side of the Alleghenies. She is one day of thrills and a day eagerly awaited by the lovers of the game.

Interest Is the Greatest. Never in the history of the gridiron sport has the interest approximated that displayed this year. Uncertainty is the fond mother of speculation. This season there has been no foretelling the results of any of the important games. The way the football games have gone, has dovetailed nicely with the other previous results in the world of sports. Right up to the final big game of the year there will be keen and undiminished interest in the game.

Some Other Method. A story from Kalamazoo, Mich., states that a boxing promoter wandered away in a daze with $1,200 of the gate receipts. A taxi cab or hack would be more likely where that much money is involved.

POWER BOAT BOSSES MAKE CHANGE IN RULES. New York, Oct. 30.—Naval officers and members of state naval militia are admitted to amateur sailing in power boat racing under a ruling adopted by the American Power Boat association, which held its annual meeting at New York, Oct. 28.—The Michigan football team, which will meet Harvard in the stadium tomorrow, spent a quiet night in Ann Arbor and came out this afternoon for light practice. The visitors planned to go to the stadium this afternoon for a final tryout. The Harvard athletic authorities had made arrangements to have the gates guarded to keep out indiscreet experts while the Michigan men were there.

Members of the Crimson team were reported in good condition with the exception of Pennock, whose trouble with his knee probably will keep him out of tomorrow's game. The contest will take first place among games in the East this week and scouts from Princeton, Brown and Yale will watch it closely from the sidelines.

CARL MORRIS TRIMS FLYNN IN TEN ROUNDS. Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 30.—Carl Morris, Oklahoma heavyweight, gained the decision over Jim Flynn, the Pueblo, Colo., fighter, in a ten-round bout here last night. Flynn, while putting up an aggressive fight, appeared to stand little show against the superior weight and longer reach of the Oklahoma. Flynn's face and body showed the effect of the severe punishment he had taken. Morris was practically unmarked.

WOLVERINES IN ENEMY'S COUNTRY

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 30.—The football teams of Harvard and Michigan practiced only a few miles apart yesterday for Saturday's big intersectional contest in the stadium. From both camps came encouraging reports last night.

The Michigan squad arrived shortly after noon and went at once to their quarters at Auburndale. Later they accepted the offer of the use of the Waltham high school grounds, and there Hughton, hailed as one of the best coaches in the country, drilled the eleven up and down the field in a fast, skillful manner. His instruction was still stiff, and it is considered likely that he will confine most of his practice to the defensive line.

Michigan's lineup as announced last night was: End, Hughton; tackle, Wainwright; guard, Hughton; center, Hughton; halfback, Hughton; fullback, Hughton. The lineup was changed slightly in the morning, and the coaches said they probably would not get into the Michigan game, because of trouble with his knee. He probably will be saved for the Princeton and Yale contests.

ALL READY FOR CONTEST

Minnesota Gridiron Warriors Put in Final Practice.

Batter Freshmen Who Use Illinois Formations Against Varsity.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 30.—(Special to The Herald.)—The whistle calling Minnesota and Illinois to battle will be sounded on Saturday at 2 p. m. on Northrop field. Magidson of Michigan will be the referee. Gordon of Harvard, judge of the game, and Knight of Dartmouth, head linesman.

With only one more day of preparation for the big Illinois game, Saturday, the varsity football team was through with its final practice on Wednesday and came out of it all tired out, and there were no cheering spectators to cheer their efforts. Dr. Williams ordered the gates closed to the public, notwithstanding the usual open practice on Wednesday. The Minnesota coaches stand in explanation that Illinois scouts might take advantage of the opportunity to get a line on the Gophers.

Nothing of the spectacular occurred in the practice Wednesday. The varsity lined up against the freshmen who were using Illinois formations, but for the most part the regulars carried the ball. They would execute one formation and then the coach would recall it and have the men repeat the play in order to correct some error, but despite this irregular style of playing the Gophers went through the freshmen for three touchdowns during the practice. Batters and Scholtes were on the ends, and Bierman and Hamilton played the halves. They were later relieved by their regular substitutes.

Top Forward Passes. The feature of the Gopher defensive work was their ability to stop every short of the first year team to complete attempted forward passes. The freshmen made repeated efforts to advance the ball by passes, but they were intercepted by the regular backs. Several passes were intercepted by the regular backs.

The Gophers had their last heavy scrimmage before the game on Thursday afternoon, Friday being devoted to sign practice. The Minnesota adherents received a temporary setback on Thursday, when the regular backs were injured, and the Minnesota coaches were compelled to abandon football, and of his activities Saturday to directing the team.

He would play Saturday, although he is a novice. The loss of the regular backs was a serious blow to the team. The loss of the regular backs was a serious blow to the team. The loss of the regular backs was a serious blow to the team.

Confidence among the players is high. The loss of the regular backs was a serious blow to the team. The loss of the regular backs was a serious blow to the team. The loss of the regular backs was a serious blow to the team.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 30.—Felder Jones, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, today announced that he had signed a contract with the Washington Senators. Jones, who is a native of St. Louis, is a former player of the Cardinals and is now a manager of the Senators.

Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 30.—Phil Ball, a star pitcher of the Tulsa baseball club, today announced that he had signed a contract with the Washington Senators. Ball, who is a native of Tulsa, is a former player of the Cardinals and is now a pitcher of the Senators.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—Coach Stagg of Chicago University sent his men yesterday afternoon through the final formal drill for the Wisconsin football game and with the report from the trainer that everyone was in fine condition, said he would lead the Chicago team to victory by the margin of about 100 points.

With the regular Maroon backs in shape and in the game Russell at quarterback, Schaefer at right half, Gray at left and Flood at fullback, the straight football offense will have strong exponents. The Chicago line at the start of the game probably will consist of Huntington, left end; Shull, left tackle; Albert or Stegeman, left guard; Hunt, center; White, right guard; Sparks, right end.

In addition to these, the following will make the trip: Gouvens, Gordon, Hardinger, Rodman, Acker, Fisher, Foster, Hart, Gouldie, Herrer, Knipschild, Patterson, Kilmiller and McConnell.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 30.—Coach Juneau ended the active preparation of the Wisconsin eleven for the Chicago game here Saturday by a hard work yesterday afternoon. The practice was behind locked doors. Every man is more or less injured, in some cases the hurts being sufficiently severe to have kept the injured from all scrimmages this week. It is announced, however, that Arlie Mucks, the 260-pound guard, probably will be able to get into the game, although not able to enter any of the scrimmages yesterday.

May Arrange Game. New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 30.—Except for formal sanction by the Rutgers college faculty, arrangements have been completed for a football game between Washington and Rutgers at the Polo grounds in New York City, Nov. 28. The Rutgers faculty will discuss the question tonight.

Dies From Injuries. Detroit, Mich., Oct. 30.—Lester Koehler, 17 years old, quarterback on a local high school football eleven, is dead as the result of injuries sustained in a game a week ago. He received a blow on the head which developed into paralysis.

TIGERS HAVE STRONG TEAM

West Duluthians Say They Will Defeat Adams Eleven.

Members of the Tiger team declare that there is a genuine and startling surprise in for the Adams football team in the game of Sunday. Capt. Dykiss and several other followers of the Tigers declared today that the Adams men would be defeated in the contest scheduled for Sunday at Athletic park.

One of the greatest players who has ever appeared in a Tiger uniform, will be in the lineup. Stahl, who was out of the game last year because of injuries, is back and will play Sunday. A former member of the Michigan squad player, will also be with the Tigers, and Russell, who played last year on one of the Kansas college teams, will also appear against the West and astagations.

Capt. Dykiss will hold down the heavy end and he is looked upon by the followers of the West Duluth team to stop the end circling of the Adams backs.

Figuring that the Tigers will have the heaviest team in the history of the West Duluth aggregation, followers of that eleven, which has made an excellent record this season, declare that the blue and white stars are in for one grand fight.

Football fans from West Duluth line up on the west side of Athletic park each game and root against the Adams team. When Superior played here in the past the West Duluth delegation was found industriously rooting for the out-of-town team. The same was true in the game last Sunday.

The rivalry or football dislike between the two sections of the city is expected to create no end of excitement. The Adams team has been defeated by the West Duluth team in the past, and the members of the Adams team have some ranking memories of some of the remarks that have been made by the independent game look for the Adams eleven to win, and have been so tactically and consistently upset. This season there is no telling how the fortunes of the two teams will turn out.

The Tigers declare that they have the strongest team that has ever appeared in West Duluth. The Tigers have been pestering and otherwise making life miserable for the Adams team during the last six weeks. They expect a game is about to be fought, and the Adams team is expected to come through and show some real stuff.

The Illini rooters have not been boasting so confidently of their team's defensive powers. So far this season Zuppke's regulars have not been called upon to fight against a strong rushing opponent, but it is said to be part of the Zuppke theory to sacrifice defense for what is called "the offense." Macomber's long punts are the main defense hope of the Illini.

Stagg and Juneau Men Await Call. ## WALTER MILLER DEFEATS GREAT MATCH

The Little Pole Wins Contest in Two Straight Falls.

Canadian Shows Strength, Gameness and Wrestling Ability.

Walter Miller shuttled George Walker out of the tournament for the world's middleweight title at the Auditorium last evening. The St. Paul Pole taking two falls from the game and remarkably clever Vancouver lad in one hour and fifty-eight minutes. The contest was one of the fastest, one of the hardest fought and one of the most laudatory advance reports of the contest ever exhibited here in some of his former matches, Miller would have never been able to defeat the international boundary line. But the work of the little Pole was a revelation. His condition was something remarkable for the wrestlers cut out of the pace from the first to the time Referee Louis Arduin patted the perspiring back of Miller in token of the second and deciding fall.

Walker showed more than even the most laudatory advance reports of the Canadian had led the fans to expect. For the first three-quarters of the grueling battle a number of ringside observers picked the English title holder to win. After the fourth quarter, however, the speed of Miller increased and he went after the slower Canadian with a hammer. After he had slipped on the slowly slipping Walker, he secured a hammer lock hold from a standing position and flopped his opponent onto the mat. The hold is a deadly one and struggle as he did, fighting gamely to avert defeat, and trying to break the leverage of the hold, the heaving shoulders of the Canadian were slowly pressed down to the mat.

Walker Badly Gruelled. In the dressing room between bouts the game Canadian youth was a sorry looking object. His face was as white as a sheet and his ears were swollen from the terrific head lock clamped on by Miller. But despite the fact that he had been gruelled, and buffeted around in the hardest going that has been witnessed in the Auditorium ring for many seasons, the British Columbia athlete came back for the second bout.

Little Billy. From West Duluth, defeated Frank Walker in his last evening. The Duluth youngster won the first fall in 11 minutes, and the second fall in 7 minutes. Canadian Shows Strength, Gameness and Wrestling Ability.

Walter Miller shuttled George Walker out of the tournament for the world's middleweight title at the Auditorium last evening. The St. Paul Pole taking two falls from the game and remarkably clever Vancouver lad in one hour and fifty-eight minutes. The contest was one of the fastest, one of the hardest fought and one of the most laudatory advance reports of the contest ever exhibited here in some of his former matches, Miller would have never been able to defeat the international boundary line. But the work of the little Pole was a revelation. His condition was something remarkable for the wrestlers cut out of the pace from the first to the time Referee Louis Arduin patted the perspiring back of Miller in token of the second and deciding fall.

Walker showed more than even the most laudatory advance reports of the Canadian had led the fans to expect. For the first three-quarters of the grueling battle a number of ringside observers picked the English title holder to win. After the fourth quarter, however, the speed of Miller increased and he went after the slower Canadian with a hammer. After he had slipped on the slowly slipping Walker, he secured a hammer lock hold from a standing position and flopped his opponent onto the mat. The hold is a deadly one and struggle as he did, fighting gamely to avert defeat, and trying to break the leverage of the hold, the heaving shoulders of the Canadian were slowly pressed down to the mat.

Walker Badly Gruelled. In the dressing room between bouts the game Canadian youth was a sorry looking object. His face was as white as a sheet and his ears were swollen from the terrific head lock clamped on by Miller. But despite the fact that he had been gruelled, and buffeted around in the hardest going that has been witnessed in the Auditorium ring for many seasons, the British Columbia athlete came back for the second bout.

Going It Blind

The ostrich way of doing things is to go it blind. These foolish birds think if their heads are covered, all is well—they are secure—completely hidden. Some financiers go it blind, but they always come to grief. Some people go it blind when they get married and some go it blind when they die. The ostrich way of doing things is most ridiculous. Now when you order your winter's coal, don't be an ostrich, don't go it blind. Fuel expense is a big item in any man's budget, and careful attention should be given to this most important purchase. Don't stick your head in the sand, like the foolish ostrich, and order inefficient, ordinary coal. Buy Pittsburgh's Pittston, the guaranteed hard coal, and you can face the world with a clear conscience. Pittsburgh's Pittston costs no more, and it is only necessary to take up the phone and your bin is filled in a jiffy. Pittsburgh's Pittston is the efficient coal, tried and tested for a hundred years. Don't let another day pass without this matter being settled and settled right, and the right way is Pittsburgh's Pittston in your bin. ### GERMAN HYMNS MAY BE BARRED IN ENGLAND

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)
London, Oct. 18.—To enable the British clergy to recognize made-in-Germany hymns, a list of them has been prepared by the Guardian, a church newspaper, which has opened its columns to a discussion of the propriety of using these hymns in the English service.

If German hymns were banned, the English hymnal would be deprived of some of its oldest and most popular numbers. Luther's famous version of the forty-sixth psalm, "A Sure Stronghold Our God is He," would be perhaps the most regretted of all exclusions. Other familiar numbers of German origin are, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," "Sun of My Soul, My Savior," "Christ Whose Glory Fills the Skies," "As With Gladness Men of Old," "Christ the Lord is Risen Again," "Praise the Fields and Scatter," "Hail to the Lord's Anointed," "Oh Happy Land of Pilgrims," and "Commit Thou All Thy Ways."

Lutheran hymns are popular not only in the Wesleyan Methodist church which is allied to Lutheranism, but also in the Church of England, which regards itself as a part of the ancient Catholic church and not a part of the reformation.

Since the Wagner nights excite as much enthusiasm as ever in the Queen's Hall concerts, it is not believed that the agitation against German hymns will find a strong following.

PLAYGROUND POSSIBILITIES

C. F. Weller Tells What Modern System Would Cost in Duluth.

Trained Supervisor Would Be Employed Following Initial Survey.

With an expenditure of about $1,500 Duluth could get a thoroughly up to date recreation and playground system such as is now laid out in many of the leading cities of the United States.

This is the opinion of Charles Frederick Weller, one of the field workers of the Recreation and Playground Association of America, who has been in Duluth for several days making a thorough study of the city. Leading citizens of Duluth have already pledged $300 of this fund, he said to The Herald today, and a large number of the most prominent men in the city are studying on the matter and are strongly in favor of the plan.

First Cost $1,500.
The $1,500, Mr. Weller says, would pay the expenses of a field secretary for about eleven weeks during which time he would get the plan thoroughly systematized and everything in readiness for completion of the system. If the system were completed here he estimates that the yearly expenditure would be from $3,000 to $4,000. A thoroughly trained supervisor would have to be employed.

Conditions in different towns and cities vary, said Mr. Weller. If conditions are not ripe for the establishment of a complete playground and recreation system a model recreation center and a model playground are established as a start. This gives an accurate and complete idea of what a complete system should be and serves as an experiment.

Mr. Weller says that he has discussed the proposition with Duluthians in various walks of life and finds the sentiment very strongly in favor of such a system.

Outlines of Work.
In defining the work of a field worker, Mr. Weller gave an outline of the things that such a worker would do. First, he would study the community from the leisure time point of view—visit the schools, neighborhoods, and vacant places, and also learn what the people do during their spare hours. Second, he would work out a program that would be suitable to the city or town. He would consult with the "key" people such as the school officials, officers and teachers, ministers and various organizations. In this way he could secure a program that would have the unanimous approval of the public.

Third, he would put the community behind the program, so that it would be supported.

The Recreation and Playground association is backed by persons of national reputation, said Mr. Weller. Among its members are: Joseph Lee of Boston, who gives $5,000 a year to the work; Henry E. Davidson, president of the J. Pierpont Morgan company; Mrs. Thomas A. Edison; Charles W. Elliott, president emeritus of Harvard university; Harold McCormick, Elihu Root, Jr., and Harold H. Swift. These are all officers or directors of the association.

Cities That Have the System.
Among the most prominent cities which have already established a recreation and playground system are: Dayton, Ohio; Kansas City, Mo.; Bennington, Vt.; Kenosha, Wis.; Easton, N. J.; Birmingham, Ala.; Milwaukee, Wis.; Richmond, Va.; Providence, R. I.; Rochester, N. Y.; Scranton, Pa., and Tampa, Fla.

Only high grade men are employed by the association. These workers study conditions all over the country and give a crystallized opinion whenever they make investigations and estimates.

GETS LETTER FROM RUSSIAN POLAND

Visitor in Duluth Hears From Sister in Province of Kalisz—Inhabitants Fled and Hid in Cellars—Often Longed for "Great Washington Land of Freedom."

Separated by the war from his parents and brothers and sisters, a young Russian Pole, visiting in Duluth, yesterday received a letter from his sister telling of the terrible conditions in his home city and the plight in which his relatives find themselves.

The young man, who asks that his name be withheld, came here, shortly before the war broke out, to study methods used in brewing beer in America. His father and brother conduct a large brewery in the city of Kolo in the province of Kalisz, Russian Poland. His brother-in-law has an iron foundry there. The following letter from his sister which was translated by a Duluthian, gives some interesting sidelights on the war:

"No doubt you will be surprised to hear from me from the city of Barysowa. The Russian war began when the Germans invaded the city of Kalisz and its neighborhood, burning the town. When I learned of the approaching enemy, I with my child and nurse, left for Barysowa, leaving my husband in Kolo to look after their interests, as we felt that the men folk were able to look out for themselves. The police from the province of Kalisz had left, for the Germans' desire was to get at them first.

My husband, who is the fire chief of the city of Kolo, at present, while the burgomaster of the city, is looking after the welfare of the people, patrolling the city on horseback, and doing what they can for the inhabitants. The conditions in Kalisz are impossible to describe. Those who were fortunate enough to escape with their lives, stayed in cellars for a week, hungry and destitute.

"My husband's uncle, Zawacki, was in Kalisz during this campaign, and the result was his hair turned absolutely white from the effects of this uprising. He spent one whole week in the basement of his home listening to the cannon which demolished his home. After one week in the basement, he managed during the night to leave his prison and escaped to the woods. From there he managed to reach a friend's house and the friend helped him to reach us. He stayed with us one day but we were unable to learn from him the situation of his mind on account of his losses. For the last few days it has been quiet and the Germans are frequently seen with autos trying to mobilize all the available men for their armies, but they were unable to secure any of the men here. You can't picture the effect this proclamation of mobilization had on the woods, from 15 to 20 years of age, and it left no one here but the women and children.

"Thus far we are all alive but under great fear, but thank God the Russian soldiers are defeating the Germans on the north of us and we are all in great hopes they will reach us and save us.

Millionaires Penniless.
"Just imagine, dear Zenon, such millionaires as Mr. Wajcik, the head of the big brewery in Kalisz, and his big brewery in ruins. Such catastrophes are here by the thousands, and we are in the same plight waiting to hear at any moment that our homes and buildings have been destroyed. It is not enough that we are left penniless and our property destroyed, but we are losing daily our beloved ones.

"Warsaw is very quiet and no Germans are there, but Cheshochowa is in their hands. Every one that could leave Kalisz escaped into Russia. I and my child are here alone away from my husband and father, but I leave everything in God's hands for their safety. Do you think that they could leave everything to the Germans? We have so many horses and other property that stay until the last moment in the hope of saving something. I write to Warsaw where one of our former servants receives the letters and later delivers them to my husband.

"What is the news in America? Many a time we wished we were with you in that great Washington country of freedom."

London, Oct. 30.—A dispatch from Flushing, Holland, to the Daily News says: "An examination of the map of the North sea with known mine areas marked, makes one wonder that any mariner dares sail. The Germans, English and Dutch all have been active in mine laying during the last few weeks, and as a result, the sea is a veritable powder magazine."

"The Germans are sending out motor boats to patrol the coast which they occupy. The patrol boats are also sowing mines wherever they are likely to be useful. The motor boats were brought overland from the Baltic."

MINNESOTA GETS HONOR

University Bull Wins Second Place at National Dairy Show.

Important Conference on Problem of Marketing Farm Products.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—(Special to The Herald).—Rex Mar, from the dairy herd of the University of Minnesota, department of agriculture, won high honors in the Guernsey "aged bull" class at the National Dairy show here yesterday.

Rex won second place, but that is only a part of the story. In getting second place Rex Mar was surpassed only by Hayes Cherub, owned by W. Marsh of Waterloo, Iowa.

Hayes Cherub, which won the grand championship at the National Dairy show two years ago, fell below Rex Mar; also Pilot of the Glen, which this year won first honors at the Illinois state fair. Therefore second honor for Rex Mar means a real triumph for the Minnesota College of Agriculture, and T. L. Haeker, head of the dairy and animal husbandry division of the college, his associate, E. W. Major, and others of the college men, feel greatly honored.

The judging was done by Will Forbes of the United States department of agriculture, dairy division.

Problem of Marketing. At an important conference on marketing, held in connection with the dairy show yesterday, L. D. H. Wood of the Minnesota College of Agriculture had the leading place in the program. Mr. Wood discussed the problem of marketing farm products and was listened to by students of the subject from all over the country.

The divergence of prices between the producer and the consumer, said Mr. Wood, does not necessarily depend on the number of middlemen.

"The weakest link in the chain of butter-making," he added later, "is in getting the cream from the farm to the creamery, and for this the farmer largely is responsible."

Mr. Wood began by calling attention to the fact that the prices paid for butter by the consumer are received on an average from 35 to 45 per cent. He cautioned his hearers, however, against jumping to the conclusion that such differences were peculiar to the marketing of farm products. He said that conditions of like sort ruled in the manufacturing world. For example, the sewing machine that cost $10 for the making retailed at $40.

In general, agricultural products were marketed more cheaply than manufactured products. Again, he said, that marketing was a part of the producer's expense, as much as the growing of crops. Division of labor was praised in manufacturing. Why not in marketing?

Cost Varied Greatly. Then, once more, Mr. Wood said that the cost of marketing varied greatly with the different products. For example, in 1914, for example, the per centage of the farm prices to the consumer's retail prices was as follows: Butter 77 per cent; eggs 68; potatoes 45; chickens 27; and apples 25. This did not mean, however, that the handlers of potatoes and poultry got more than handlers of apples and eggs, but that certain features of the commodities made the marketing of potatoes and poultry more expensive, such as perishability, shrinkage, irregularity of shipment, smallness of volume, etc.

In saying that the farmer was largely responsible for a loss in the marketing of farm products, Mr. Wood meant simply that the different conditions of efficiency.

From this Mr. Wood passed to the subject of price quotations, and called the "commission idea" antiquated and said the future of the farmer lay in the hands of the government, which should regulate the marketing of commodities, eliminating commissions unless the merchant acted in a truly agent capacity.

PEACE WITH FRANCE SOUGHT BY GERMANY

Proposal Has Been Rejected; Involved Territorial Grant.

London, Oct. 30.—The Daily Chronicle's Paris correspondent says that, with a view to detaching France from the allies, Germany made an offer to conclude peace on the basis of cession of Metz and possibly a portion of Alsace to France. The offer, according to the correspondent, was rejected.

The proposal, the correspondent says, was made by the German government, Frenchmen who were expected to act as intermediaries. The proposal was that the German government, recognizing the courage of the French army and never having regretted France as a principle enemy, was ready to make peace on terms, not merely honorable, but generous for the republic.

These terms would include the transfer of Metz and the neighboring portion of Lorraine.

FEARS FOOD RIOTS AMONG BELGIANS

Capt. Lucey Says Situation Has Not Been Exaggerated.

London, Oct. 30.—"It is feared that in their desperation the hungry people will attack the authorities. This would cause serious loss of life."

So stated Capt. T. F. Lucey, representative of the American commission for relief in Belgium, in a telegram to Herbert C. Hoover, chairman of the commission, from Rotterdam yesterday. Capt. Lucey added that he had been told by representatives of the national relief committee that in Brussels, Charleroi, Liege, Namur, Mons and Dinant 3,000,000 persons were being starved and that only four days' supply of flour was on hand.

In the vicinity of Liege conditions were said to be desperate. There the necessary soft life were urged.

Flour Needed Most. "Beans, peas and rice are acceptable," Capt. Lucey's telegram said, "but the great necessity and the urgent appeals from all concerned are for wheat flour."

The message concluded: "You may be convinced that any

Washington, Oct. 30.—Five thousand dollars was added by the American Red Cross yesterday to the international relief committee for the fund to maintain the prisoners' bureau at Geneva, through which information of the sick and wounded prisoners of all countries may be obtained. Officials here consider the bureau a tremendous value to the Red Cross in alleviating anxiety among the soldiers' families, should the conditions of the prisoners be made by the thousands daily.

GERMAN SHELL HITS BRITISH DESTROYER.

Dover, England, Oct. 30.—The British torpedo boat destroyer Falcon was hit by the last shell fired Wednesday afternoon by the Germans, off the coast of Belgium.

The shell struck the bridge, killing Lieut. Herbert O. Wauton, commander of the boat, and members of the gun crew forward.

The dead and four wounded were brought here yesterday. Other members of the crew who were injured, were put ashore at Dunkirk.

The destroyer arrived at Dover Thursday afternoon and proceeded to Portsmouth.

DISTRESS SIGNALS BY HOSPITAL SHIP

Gale and Heavy Seas on Yorkshire Coast Prevent Aid.

London, Oct. 30.—Signals of distress have been sent up since last night off Whitby, on the Yorkshire coast, from a steamship believed to be the Rohilla, a British vessel of 7,000 tons being used as a hospital ship. The gale, however, has caused such heavy weather that launching of lifeboats has been impossible.

Early this morning four seamen were found among wreckage thrown upon the coast, they having evidently tried to swim to shore. The wreckage was the name "Rohilla of Glasgow." One of the seamen is still living.

The vessel, which was breaking up, was bound from Queen's Ferry to Belgium to bring back wounded soldiers. She ran on the rocks half a mile south of Whitby at 4 o'clock this morning, carried four nurses and several doctors and full hospital equipment.

Every one of her boats, except the last one launched, was smashed by the sea and washed ashore. The remaining boat was swamped near shore and the crew were forced to cling to the wreckage with extreme difficulty brought ashore two loads of the vessel's passengers after which further attempts at rescue with the boat were abandoned. The five-seated persons clinging to the vessel which had her after end broken nearly off. Her crew are entertained for rescuing them.

COURTMARTIAL IS HELD IN ENGLAND

German, Who Passed as an American, Is Tried.

London, Oct. 30.—A court martial, the first convened in England for many generations, met today under the presidency of Lord Chelmsford at the Middlesex Guild hall, in the shadow of Westminster Abbey, for the trial of Carl Hans Lody, alias Charles A. Inglis, on charges of espionage.

The Lody had presented a novel court scene with virtually all the officers of the court, except the prosecutor, in uniform.

Prosecutor Archibald H. Bodkin, opening the case, declared that an enemy was properly triable by a court martial, and that the defendant was an alien enemy—a German subject although he bore an English name.

Based on American. The accused posed as an American tourist and visited Edinburgh, London, Liverpool and Dublin. On Aug. 4 he received a passport in Berlin under the American name Charles A. Inglis. Late in August, Lody arrived in this country, going to Edinburgh and from there to various other places.

The prosecutor alleged that the accused had sent valuable reports to Berlin.

SOUTHEAST RATES ARE READJUSTED

Commerce Commission Issues Decision Supplemental to Earlier One.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Freight rates throughout what is known as southwestern territory—east of the Mississippi and south of the Potomac and Ohio rivers—were generally readjusted today by a decision of the Interstate Commerce commission. The decision, supplemental to one announced several months ago, concerning the operation of the long-and-short haul law, with respect to class and commodity rates from all sections of the country to destinations in the South Atlantic and Gulf states, authorized the carriers in most instances to continue existing class and commodity rates.

States on both class and commodity freight from New York and the east generally, from St. Louis and Chicago, and from all Ohio river crossings and Louisville and Cincinnati, to and from points in the South Atlantic and Gulf states, are affected. In most instances existing rates are authorized in which there are technical violations of the long-and-short haul provisions, but in five specific instances the commission declined to grant permission to the carriers to exact higher rates from the northern and eastern points named to intermediate destinations than to the more distant points.

The decision is effective April 1, 1915.

Housewives Armour's Bulletin

Three Food Requisites

Wholesome foods to make young bodies strong. "Taste good" foods to satisfy the appetites of young and old.

"Good to the last morsel" foods, in which there is no waste.

Armour's Quality Food Products are all of these—leaders of the world in quality for half a century, and all "government inspected and passed."

Earning a Reputation

A reputation earned is a battle won. And the reputation that Armour's "Star" Ham and Bacon have built up in the last fifty years is a well won victory indeed. It is the result of using only the choicest of meats—firm, tender, well mixed fat and lean meats, cured and smoked thoroughly so that none of the goodness is lost. Try a whole ham today and note how good every bit of it is even to the skin which is such a delightful addition to vegetables in cooking. And thin sliced streaky Armour's "Star" Bacon for breakfast. It melts in your mouth! Insist on "Star" brand: It is your guarantee of quality and purity.

Economy

Armour's Cloverbloom Cheese is the favorite cheese for cooking purposes, because it contains the most nourishment for the least money. Insist on the Armour label. This guarantees quality as well as purity.

Fried Cheese Balls

1½ cups of Armour's Cloverbloom Cheese (grated)
1 tablespoon of flour
The whites of 3 eggs
Salt, pepper, cracker dust
Beat the whites of the eggs; add the other ingredients; make it into balls and roll in cracker dust. If the amount of flour is doubled, the mixture may be dropped from a spoon and fried without being rolled in crumbs.

Select Eggs

Eggs in some form or other are with us at every meal, and it is necessary to keep a good supply on hand at all times. Get Armour's Select Eggs every time and insist on the carton which has the Armour Label. That is an assurance of eggs that are fresh, large and heavy. Packed in cartons—guaranteed.

"Bread an' Butter an' Brown Sugar"

The toothsome "schoolroom" dessert which never loses its appeal. When butter is high use Armour's Oleomargarine. It is just as wholesome and palatable, provided you get the best.

Armour's Glendale Oleomargarine

made (under U. S. Government supervision) wholly from the essential food fats of everyday diet, including a generous percentage of pasteurized creamy butter, and a little salt.

Look for Armour's Housewives Bulletin Next Week

Successful Frying

"Use the best lard and plenty of it" is the first rule for frying, and the lard you can pin your faith to for both frying and baking is Armour's "Simon Pure" Leaf Lard. Open kettle rendered, made only from delicate leaf fat, this lard is guaranteed 100 per cent pure. It comes in sealed pails, each bearing the "U. S. Government Inspected and Passed" label. Buy a pail today and you will find the high quality, the purity and wholesomeness reflected in every article you fry.

Philadelpia Fried Oysters

Put selected oysters in a strainer and pour over cold water, allowing two-thirds cup to a quart of oysters. Carefully pick over oysters, taking each one separately in the fingers and remove any particles of shell which adhere to the tough muscle. Dry between towels, sprinkle with salt and pepper, dip in flour, egg and stale bread crumbs, fry in "Simon Pure" Leaf Lard and drain on brown paper. Remove to hot platter and garnish with parsley.

"Woman's Work is Never Done"

That is true if a woman insists on standing over a hot stove to cook every meal. It is so much easier and simpler to use the Armour's Devonshire Canned Meats which are already cooked—and cooked in the most perfect way. Keep your pantry well stocked with these and you will have dishes for every meal—whether heavy dinner, light lunch or a hasty snack. Some suggestions: Pork and Beans, Sardines, Corned Beef, Lunch Tongue, Lamb's Tongue, Chile Con Carne, Sliced Dried Beef, Deviled Ham, Corned Beef Hash, Deviled Chicken, Ham Loaf, Deviled Tongue, Veal Loaf. And be sure they have the Armour's Devonshire Label.

Soup First!

The soup course at dinner is most important. It starts the digestive juices going—and takes the sharp edge off the appetite so that the heavy part of the meal—the meat course—is eaten sensibly and rationally. Clear soup is best—Bouillon—and the best bouillon is made by dropping an Armour Bouillon Cube in a cup of hot water. Then you have a delicious blend of beef flavor with vegetables and the correct seasoning.

If you want variety you can add a clove, bay leaf or slice of onion for a minute. The cubes come in boxes of 12—50—100.

Devonshire

Farm Style Sausage

The very name suggests the country, and the delicious, wholesome eating we always associate with the country. That is why Armour and Company have chosen this name for their finest pork sausage—a real farm style country sausage—chopped, not too fine, and seasoned "just right."

Ask for Armour's Devonshire Farm Style Sausage—in link or "unpacked" (ready for sausage cakes, balls, etc.) and—

See that you get it!

"ROUGHING" WITH CHARLES COMISKEY

Duluth Men Took to the "Wilds" With Old Roman — "What Will You Have?" Each Morning.

Jack McGreevy, Dr. Patton, Len Culbertson, Paddy Doran, John Doran and Charles Campbell are back from the annual visit to Comiskey's famous camp at Mercer, Wis. It makes one hungry—yes, and thirsty, too—the tales they tell of the luxuries of this "rough camp" life.

Said John McGreevy: "There were two chefs and four colored waiters. A man woke you up in the morning with the question as what you would have. One of these trips cost Comiskey $10,000. I don't know how much this one cost the old Roman. My head got dizzy when I tried to figure it out."

"The Chicago bunch came down on two special cars. The last day the Duluth delegation was in the camp another car load of Chicago people rolled in."

"Ban Johnson was there and I didn't hear him saying much about the Federal war. Someone said that he said the O. B. forces were going to fight to the end. But that I don't know. Joe Farrell, who made the trip around the world, and a lot of big business men from all parts of the country were there. It was some party—going nice—thank you."

No hotel or restaurant in the world could have set better things to eat on the table. It was a great work and we sure met some fine fellows."

PLAN SOCIAL EVENTS FOR "Y"

Committee Will Outline Weekly Programs for Winter.

H. S. Hoshour, chairman of the committee on social work at the Young Men's Christian association, has called a meeting of his committee for some time next week at which work for the fall and winter will be outlined. It will be the aim of the "Y" to offer a weekly social program during the remainder of the fall and winter. Many kinds of "stunts" are being suggested, and it is probable that each entertainment will be somewhat different from the others. The "Y" concerts will probably be instituted again for one Tuesday of each month. These entertainments were among the most popular ever given at the "Y," and members will be glad to have them revived again. Original ideas will be in demand as it is planned to arrange programs that will interest all members.

NEW MEMBERS' DINNER.

"Y" Will Instruct Novices in Work of Departments.

The Young Men's Christian association will give a banquet for the new members at the "Y" building tonight. Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock and a program of addresses will follow. All new members, who now number about fifty, are invited.

The purpose of the dinner and meeting is to get the new members together and familiarize them with the work of all the departments of the association. The heads of nearly all the departments will speak as well as others. The speakers selected are: Bert Wade, general secretary; F. A. Hathaway, J. E. Hayer, S. W. Harris, A. F. Olson, and A. J. Turner.

MURCHISON ILL.

Commissioner's Condition More Serious Than at First Believed.

Commissioner Roderick Murchison, head of the division of public works, is more seriously ill than was first supposed.

It was reported at the city hall this morning that he had spent a restless night and that no one is being allowed to visit him.

At his home, 417 Eighth avenue east, it was stated today that the commissioner is not dangerously ill and that Dr. A. C. Taylor, who is attending him, hoped that he would be able to be about again in a few days. It was explained that he had taken a severe cold which had affected his stomach and that he is weak. That the cold had developed into pneumonia, as was rumored at the city hall, was denied.

"The Country Store" at the Empress Hippodrome tonight.

Let's make this town the best in the county, this county the best in the state, this state the best in the nation, and this nation the best in the world; and the place to start with is the town.

BOTH CARRANZA AND VILLA ARE ELIMINATED BY PEACE MEETING OF THE MEXICANS

ZAPATA PLAN TO DISTRIBUTE LAND ADOPTED

Big Estates, Some of 400 Years Standing, to Be Seized.

Carranza's Letter Starts Demonstration By the Spectators.

Fabela Pessimistic as to Outcome; Restlessness at Vera Cruz.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 31.—Gen. Carranza as head of the Constitutional government and Gen. Villa, commander of the division of the North, were eliminated from power by a decree adopted late yesterday by the Carranza-Zapata-Villa peace conference at Aguas Calientes. This was learned here from a message sent to the Associated Press by the publicity agent of the convention.

According to the terms adopted, the message said, the provisional president will be named later by the convention. The complaints of the Zapata element in Southern Mexico will be taken up with this new executive.

Adopt Plan of Ayala.
Chihuahua, Mex., Oct. 31.—Reports from Aguas Calientes say the plan of Ayala, which was framed by Zapata and under which he has been fighting, has been received favorably by the convention and it probably will be adopted in place of the plan of Guadalupe, which Carranza favors. The strong plank in the Ayala plan is the one referring to the distribution of lands at once, each person to receive his allotment within a year.

Confiscate Big Estates.
Mexico City, Oct. 31.—All the large landed estates owned by Huerta sympathizers, some of them principally in extent, will be confiscated by the new Constitutional government of Mexico, according to the decision.

CANADA PLANS ON PENSION SYSTEM

Half Pay for Soldiers' Widows and Wounded Men.

Ottawa, Oct. 31.—For the wives and children of Canadians killed in active service in the war, the government has decided to pass an act at the next session of parliament authorizing pensions at the rate of half the pay of officers and men. The pay of the Canadian private is a dollar a day. Soldiers incapable of service will be pensioned at the same rate.

SEVEN SISTER LAWS AT WORK

Two Oil Companies Are Indicted in New Jersey.

Standard Oil and Gulf Refining Concern in Rate War.

Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 31.—It was reported here today that criminal indictments had been voted by the Hudson county grand jury against the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and the Gulf Refining company, which have been engaged in a rate war on gasoline in Hudson and Essex counties within the last few months.

The indictments, according to the report, were two in number and were returned last night. It was said that they were found under the so-called Seven Sisters laws, which were placed on the statute books through the efforts of Woodrow Wilson when he was governor of the state.

Ten witnesses testified yesterday before the grand jury as to the part played by the two companies in the recent rapid lowering of prices of gasoline in Hudson county.

Big Cut in Price.
A public examination, conducted before Judge Sullivan of the common pleas court about a month ago, added evidence that within a space of two months the price of gasoline had been cut more than 50 per cent. It was charged then that the Standard Oil company had cut the price to drive competitors out of business, but this, Judge Sullivan held, was not proved.

Under the so-called Seven Sisters laws a corporation could be found guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by fine of $1,000 or more, or imprisonment of the officers whose acts were adjudged illegal, or both.

GERMANS TAKE TWO TOWNS IN THE BLOODY GIVE-AND-TAKE BATTLE IN WEST FLANDERS; ITALY GIVES SIGNS OF JOINING IN THE WAR

HAMMOND VICTORY IS PREDICTED BY CLOSE OBSERVERS OF FIGHT

Enthusiastic Crowd at St. Paul Auditorium Cheers Hammond's Speech.

Compares His Temperance Record With That of His Opponent.

Voted for Webb-Kenyon Law While Lee Dodged County Option.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—D. D. Daly, chairman of the executive committee of the Democratic state organization, said yesterday that W. S. Hammond will be elected governor. Others have recently made similar predictions, but Mr. Daly's case is exceptional.

For many years the executive committee chairman has been closely identified with Democratic campaigns. He is credited with knowing more people in Minnesota personally than any other two men.

Never before, however, on the eve of an election, not even during the Johnson campaign, has Mr. Daly been optimistic. He always has been a pessimist as far as political prognostications are concerned.

National Committeeman Fred B. Lynch was at his office yesterday for the first time in nearly two weeks. He has been in the East, but has kept in close touch with the Minnesota situation.

"I am confident Mr. Hammond will be elected," he declared. "There has been a remarkable change in sentiment the last few days and I would not be surprised to see the congressmen (Continued on page 4, third column.)"

ITALIAN FORCES ON ISLAND OF SASENO

Admiral Patris Lands Battery and Marines Near Avlona.

Paris, Oct. 31.—A dispatch from Rome to the Havas agency reports that the island of Saseno, in the Gulf of Avlona and near the Albanian port of Avlona, has been occupied by the Italians. Admiral Patris, the dispatch states, has landed a battery and a company of marines.

The Scharnhorst and Goeben were six days on the Baltic coast, where they bombarded Russian capital of Tallin, the principal of the Society Islands, and under French control. Considerable damage was done to the town and a small loss of life was reported.

Plausible Report.
The most plausible report has it that the three have gone to Holland, and the Scandinavian nations are conducting a flourishing trade with Germany through trans-shipment of supplies from the United States, and even from England.

The newspapers of all those countries assert that their importations are for their own needs alone, while English papers insist that they are receiving a continuous stream of petroleum, grain and foodstuffs generally which far exceed their normal requirements.

FINISH OF TURKEY IS SEEN BY RUSSIAN

Servian Says Balkan States May Not Enter the War.

Rome, Oct. 31.—The Russian ambassador to Italy, A. Krupenski, in a statement here today regarding the Turkish attacks in the Black sea, said that the action of Constantinople can only be defined as "Turkish." He declared that the Turks had committed a fearful error, and that it would mark the end of Turkey as a European state.

The Servian minister, L. Michalovich, declared that the Turkish invasion would help toward the solution of long pending questions, such as that of the Dardanelles. He said he did not believe that the Balkans would be affected as Turkey would be obliged to gather all her forces against Russia.

TSING TAU FORTS BOMBARDED OCT. 31.

Tokio, Oct. 31.—The navy department announces that the Japanese squadron, assisted by English warships and masked by a mist, approached and victoriously and effectively bombarded the forts at Tsing Tsin on Oct. 31. Some of the defenses were destroyed, and on the next day the bombardment was recommenced. Only one fort replied to the bombardment.

PORTE DENIES KNOWLEDGE OF NAVAL ACTION

Grand Vizier Pleads Illness as Excuse for Not Seeing Russian.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The Turkish minister of finance informed the French ambassador at Constantinople yesterday that the raid of Turkish warships on Russian seaports took place without the knowledge of the Ottoman government and presumably under the influence of German officers and crew. This information was conveyed in a dispatch today from Ambassador Morgenthau to the American government.

Grand Vizier Ill.
Mr. Morgenthau added that the Russian ambassador received instructions at 2 a. m. yesterday to demand his passports and made an effort to see the grand vizier, who pleaded illness and did not receive him.

The Russian, French and British ambassadors, according to the same dispatch, are preparing to leave Constantinople together tonight. On receiving instructions to leave Constantinople, the Russian ambassador immediately placed the interests of Russia in the hands of the Italian ambassador.

Ambassador Morgenthau's dispatch made no mention of any declaration of war or internal conditions in Turkey. He will take over the French and British embassies.

OIL CARGO TAKEN BY BRITISH AUTHORITIES

Diversion of Liner Nieuw Amsterdam Finally Is Explained.

New York, Oct. 31.—Why the liner Nieuw Amsterdam was taken into Plymouth on her last trip from New York, when she was bound for Rotterdam, was explained by her officers upon her arrival here today. They said that the vessel had aboard 1,400 barrels of cylinder oil which the British authorities diverted to their own uses. When the work was completed, the Nieuw Amsterdam was permitted to proceed to Rotterdam. The liner had aboard today 1,270 passengers.

American Right.
It is contended here that the United States has a right to demand full protection for American cargoes shipped in American or neutral bottoms to neutral ports, leaving it to Great Britain to obtain guarantees from the neutral countries to which the cargoes are consigned that conditional contraband goods will not be re-exported to belligerent. Italy already has placed an embargo upon exports of all war munitions and supplies, but so far as is known here, Greece has not taken such action.

CROWN PRINCE'S ARMY ROUTED BY RUSSIANS

Heir Himself Defeated in Fighting at the Vistula.

London, Oct. 31.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Daily Mail says the German crown prince, at his own request, had charge of the recent German operations to force a passage of the Vistula, break the Russian center, reduce the fortress of Ivangorod and disorganize the Russian army before winter set in.

"For this plan very large forces were assembled," the correspondent says. The best Prussian troops were allotted to the crown prince in the center with heavy siege guns and Austrian cavalry. On the left wing, Gen. von Hindenburg commanded the Bavarians, while the Austrians on the right wing, the general idea being for the center to attack Ivangorod, while the wings should envelop and crush the Russians.

Prince's Army Gave Way.
The unexpected vigor of the Russian counter attack carried all before it. The crown prince's army gave way, abandoning much material and thirty-six heavy guns, which were bogged in the mud.

All attempts to rally the Austro-German forces were in vain and on Tuesday the crown prince arrived back at Radom, whence he had set out a fortnight before with such high hopes, beaten and a fugitive.

He then tried to establish his army along the line from Jedlinsko to Ila, with Radom in the center, but the vigor of the Russian cavalry pursuit prevented this. The Russians entered Radom next day and the pursuit continues."

NEW ZEALAND WANTS CANADIAN WHEAT

London, Oct. 31.—A dispatch from Melbourne Reuters agency says that the government of New Zealand has arranged to obtain 100,000 bushels of wheat from Canada before a shortage occurs there. The government proposes to sell wheat slightly below its cost. Otherwise famine prices prevail in New Zealand.

NEW FIRST SEA LORD OF BRITISH ADMIRALTY

ADMIRAL FISHER.

DEMANDS SHIP BE RELEASED

Washington Makes Formal Protest Against Holding Koonland.

England Is Asked to Explain the Action at Gibraltar.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Formal protest to the British government against the detention of the American copper-laden steamer Koonland at Gibraltar was made today by the state department through Ambassador Page.

The British authorities are asked whether the vessel is held because of the nature of her cargo, which has been declared conditional contraband, or because German and Austrian revolutionaries are among her passengers.

Full information concerning the case is lacking, but upon the facts in hand state department officials take the position that the ship either should be released or taken forthwith into a prize court.

American Right.
It is contended here that the United States has a right to demand full protection for American cargoes shipped in American or neutral bottoms to neutral ports, leaving it to Great Britain to obtain guarantees from the neutral countries to which the cargoes are consigned that conditional contraband goods will not be re-exported to belligerent. Italy already has placed an embargo upon exports of all war munitions and supplies, but so far as is known here, Greece has not taken such action.

CHOLERA ON THE INCREASE

Austria-Hungary Is Affected to an Alarming Degree.

Lack of Field Surgeons Causes Suffering Among Wounded.

Venice, via Paris, Oct. 31.—Reports received here from Austria say cholera is increasing to an alarming extent throughout Austria-Hungary, and that there is not a single crown land in Austria and scarcely any in Hungary where fresh cases are not reported daily.

The epidemic is said to be worst in Galicia, where about 100 deaths are said to occur daily among the troops in the field. The bodies of those dying from the scourge are cremated immediately.

The Hungarian minister of the interior has issued a notice saying that doctors are urgently needed at hospitals. The ministry offers to pay doctors the equivalent of $6.25 a day in addition to their board and traveling expenses.

Lack Field Surgeons.
The reports say that the wounded everywhere are suffering intensely because of the shortage of surgeons in the field. Many of the wounded who have arrived in Vienna and Budapest are in a terrible condition.

Vienna is sheltering considerably more than 100,000 Galician refugees and is feeling the strain. The burgomaster has visited the premier several times urging the government to so send the refugees back to their homes. The government, however, is helpless because a majority of the refugees decline to go into the country, where the cost of food is enormous.

KAISER'S TROOPS ON OFFENSIVE

Russia Reports Austrian Defeat on East Prussian Line.

Germans' Determination to Capture Calais Said to Be Unshaken.

Roman Press Says Turkish Action Involves All Mediterranean.

***** ALLIED ARMIES ARE ORDERED TO ADVANCE *****
London, Oct. 31, 1:40 p. m.—The impression created here by the latest news is that a general advance of the allied forces in France and Belgium has been ordered, so main interest again is centered in the cockpit covering a 30 or 40 miles from the seaboard. *****

Such fragments of war news as the censors permitted to pass today indicated that along the North sea, the chief point of present concern, it was still a battle of give and take.

Of immediate interest was a semi-official note from Rome indicating that Italy might take a more definite stand in the struggle. It is said that the late and of Sasso, commanding the harbor of Avlona, Albania, ownership of which has long been disputed by Greece and Italy, has been seized by Italian forces, and GERMAN GAIN ADMITTED.

The French war office, in today's official statement, acknowledges that the fiercest German onslaught, shifted a few miles to the east and south from the coast, has met with success at point. Two towns south of Xpres in Belgium, just north of the border, are mentioned by the French as having been captured by the Germans.

PARIS WILL BECOME CAPITAL ON NOV. 20

Paris, Oct. 31.—Unofficial announcement was made today that the government will return to Paris from Bordeaux on Nov. 20, and that parliament will meet on Dec. 15 to pass emergency laws.

A little in little Paris appears to be returning to more normal conditions. The houses in Avenue de l'Opera, which had their doors locked and the windows whitewashed, have now been reopened. Each day another restaurant or bar on the boulevards or elsewhere resumes business, and the newspapers which ceased to publish at the time of the mobilization, have begun to appear again. The situation of repelling the bourse is also discussed.

Carranza's Letter Starts Demonstration By the Spectators.

Fabela Pessimistic as to Outcome; Restlessness at Vera Cruz.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 31.—Gen. Carranza as head of the Constitutional government and Gen. Villa, commander of the division of the North, were eliminated from power by a decree adopted late yesterday by the Carranza-Zapata-Villa peace conference at Aguas Calientes. This was learned here from a message sent to the Associated Press by the publicity agent of the conference.

According to the terms adopted, the message said, the provisional president will be named later by the convention. The complaints of the Zapata element in Southern Mexico will be taken up with this new executive.

Adopt Plan of Ayala.
Chihuahua, Mex., Oct. 31.—Reports from Aguas Calientes say the plan of Ayala, which was framed by Zapata and under which he has been fighting, has been received favorably by the convention and it probably will be adopted in place of the plan of Guadalupe, which Carranza favors. The strong plank in the Ayala plan is the one referring to the distribution of lands at once, each person to receive his allotment within a year.

Confiscate Big Estates.
Mexico City, Oct. 31.—All the large landed estates owned by Huerta sympathizers, some of them principalities in extent, will be confiscated by the new Constitutional government of Mexico, according to the decision (Continued on page 4, second column.)

CANADA PLANS ON PENSION SYSTEM

Half Pay for Soldiers' Widows and Wounded Men.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 31.—For the wives and children of Canadians killed in active service in the war, the government has decided to pass an act at the next session of parliament authorizing pensions at the rate of half pay of officers and men. The pay of Canadian private is a dollar a day. Soldiers incapacitated in service will be pensioned at the same rate.

SEVEN SISTER LAWS AT WORK

Standard Oil and Gulf Refining Concern in Rate War.

Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 31.—It was reported here today that criminal indictments had been voted by the Hudson county grand jury against the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and the Gulf Refining company, which have been engaged in a rate war on gasoline in Hudson and Essex counties within the last few months.

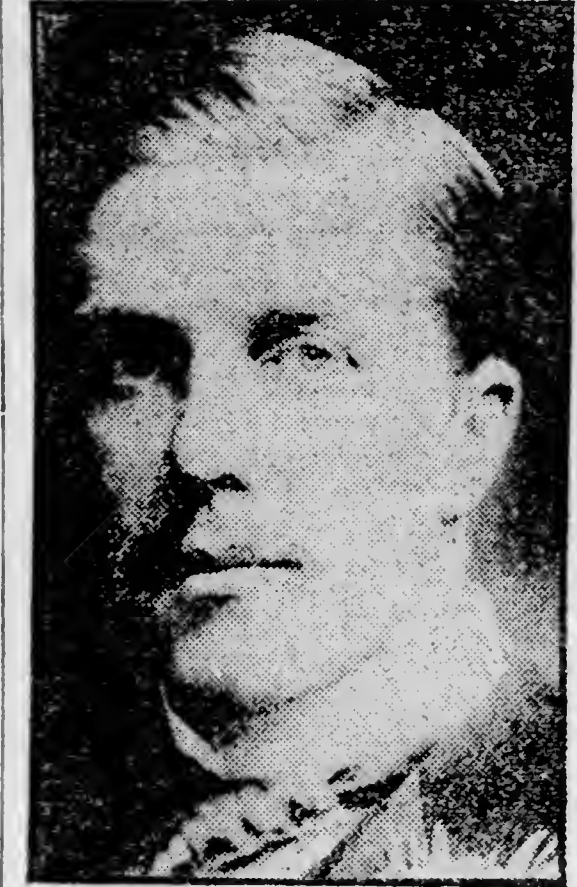

The indictments, according to the report, were two in number and were voted last night. It was said that they were found under the so-called Seven Sisters laws, which were placed on the statute books through the efforts of Woodrow Wilson when he was governor of the state.

Ten witnesses testified yesterday before the grand jury as to the part played by the two companies in the recent rapid lowering of prices of gasoline in Hudson county.

Big Cut in Price.
A public examination, conducted before Judge Sullivan of the common pleas court about a month ago, adduced evidence that within a space of two months the price of gasoline had been cut more than 50 per cent. The Standard Oil company had cut the price to drive competitors out of business, but this, Judge Sullivan held, was not proved.

Under the so-called Seven Sisters laws a corporation could be found guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by fine of $1,000 or more or imprisonment of the officers whose acts were adjudged illegal, or both.

BRITONS' TRIP MYSTERIOUS

Lloyd George, Haldane and Reading Visit the Continent.

Questions of Neutral Trade May Be the Reason.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)
London, Oct. 31.—The British government has sent three of its highest officials to the continent on a most mysterious and important mission. The delegation consists of David Lloyd George, the chancellor of the exchequer; Lord Haldane, the lord chancellor, and Lord Reading, the chief justice.

The destination of this mission is being kept a profound secret, as well as its object. Its importance is evident from its membership, and apparently the business to be transacted concerns both financial and legal matters. Lord Haldane and the chief justice, who, as Sir Rufus Isaacs before his elevation to the bench, was the keenest legal light at the English bar, rank about the foremost authorities upon the law in the United Kingdom.

Plausible Report.
The most plausible report has it that the three have gone to Holland, and possibly will extend their journey to the Scandinavian countries, to deal with the matter of the shipment of goods from neutral countries into Germany.

The statements of the English papers are correct, Holland and the three Scandinavian nations are conducting a flourishing trade with Germany through transshipment of supplies from the United States, and even from England.

The newspapers of all those countries assert that their importations are for their own needs alone, while English papers insist that they are re-exporting consignments of petroleum, grain and foodstuffs generally which far exceed their normal requirements.

Servian Says Balkan States May Not Enter the War.

Rome, Oct. 30.—The Russian ambassador to Italy, A. Krupenski, in a statement here today regarding the Turkish attacks in the Black sea, said that the action of Constantinople can only be defined as "Turkish." He declared that the Turks had committed a fearful error, and that it would mark the end of Turkey as a European state.

The Servian minister, L. Michalovich, declared that the Turkish invasion would help toward the solution of long pending questions, such as that of the Dardanelles. He said he did not believe that the Balkans would be affected, as Turkey would be obliged to gather all her forces against Russia.

TUNG TAU FORTS BOMBARDED OCT. 31.
Tokio, Oct. 31.—The navy department announces that the Japanese squadron, assisted by English warships and masked by a mist, approached and vigorously and effectively bombarded the forts at Tung Tau on Oct. 31. Some of the defense works were destroyed, and on the next day the bombardment was repeated. Only one fort replied to the bombardment.

Voted for Webb-Kenyon Law While Lee Dodged County Option.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—D. D. Daly, chairman of the executive committee of the Democratic state organization, said yesterday that W. S. Hammond will be elected governor. Others have recently made similar predictions, but Mr. Daly's case is exceptional.

For many years the executive committee chairman has been closely identified with Democratic campaigns. He is credited with knowing more people in Minnesota personally than any other two men.

Never before, however, on the eve of an election, not even during the Johnson campaigns, has Mr. Daly been optimistic. He always has been a pessimist as far as political prognostications are concerned.

National Committeeman Fred B. Lynch was at his office yesterday for the first time in nearly two weeks. He has been in the East, but has kept in close touch with the Minnesota situation.

It is a confident Mr. Hammond will be elected," he declared. "There has been a remarkable change in sentiment the last few days and I would not be surprised to see the congress (Continued on page 4, third column.)

Lays Attack on Russian Ports to Germans on Ships.

Grand Vizier Pleads Illness as Excuse for Not Seeing Russian.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The Turkish minister of finance informed the French ambassador at Constantinople yesterday that the raid of Turkish warships on Russian seaports took place without the knowledge of the Ottoman government and presumably under the influence of German officers and crew. This information was conveyed in a dispatch today from Ambassador Morgenthau to the American government.

Mr. Morgenthau added that the Russian ambassador received instructions at 2 a. m. yesterday to demand his passports and made an effort to see the grand vizier, who pleaded illness and did not receive him.

The Russian, French and British ambassadors, according to the same dispatch, are preparing to leave Constantinople together tonight. On receiving instructions to leave Constantinople, the Russian ambassador immediately placed the interests of Russia in the hands of the Italian ambassador, Ambassador Morgenthau's dispatch made no mention of any declaration of war nor internal conditions in Turkey. He will take over the French and British embassies.

OIL CARGO TAKEN BY BRITISH AUTHORITIES

Diversion of Liner Nieuw Amsterdam Finally Is Explained.

New York, Oct. 31.—Why the liner Nieuw Amsterdam was taken into Plymouth on her last trip from New York, when she was bound for Rotterdam, was explained by her officers upon her arrival here today. They said that the vessel had aboard 1,400 barrels of cylinder oil, which the British authorities diverted to their own uses. When the work was completed the Nieuw Amsterdam was permitted to proceed to Rotterdam. The liner had aboard today 1,270 passengers.

It is contended here that the United States has a right to demand full protection for American cargoes shipped in American or neutral bottoms "to neutral ports, leaving it to Great Britain to obtain guarantees from the neutral countries to which the cargoes are consigned that conditional contraband goods will not be re-exported to a belligerent. Italy already has placed an embargo upon exports of all war munitions and supplies, but so far as is known here, Greece has not taken such action.

CROWN PRINCE'S ARMY ROUTED BY RUSSIANS

Heir Himself Defeated in Fighting at the Vistula.

London, Oct. 31.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Daily Mail says the German crown prince, at his own request, had charge of the recent German operations to force a passage of the Vistula, break the Russian center, reduce the fortress of Ivangorod and disorganize the Russian army before winter set in.

"For this plan very large forces were assembled," the correspondent says. "The best Prussian troops were allotted to the crown prince in the center with heavy siege guns and Austrian cavalry. On the left wing, Gen. von Hindenburg commanded the Bavarians, while the Austrian forces were on the right wing, the general idea being for the center to envelop and crush the Russians.

Prince's Army Gave Way.
"The unexpected vigor of the Russian counter attack carried all before it. The crown prince's army gave way, abandoning much material and thirty-six heavy guns, which were bogged in the mud.

"All attempts to rally the Austro-German forces were in vain and on Tuesday the crown prince arrived back at Radom, whence he had set out a fortnight before with such high hopes.

"He then tried to establish his army along the line from Jedlisko to Ilica, with Radom as the center, but the vigor of the Russian cavalry pursuit prevented this. The Russians entered Radom next day and the pursuit continues."

DEMANDS SHIP BE RELEASED

Washington Makes Formal Protest Against Holding Koonland.

England Is Asked to Explain the Action at Gibraltar.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Formal protest to the British government against the detention of the American copper-laden steamer Koonland at Gibraltar was made today by the state department through Ambassador Page at London.

The British authorities are asked whether the vessel is held because of the nature of her cargo, which has been declared conditional contraband, or because German and Austrian vessels are among her passengers. Full information concerning the case is lacking, but upon the facts in hand state department officials take the position that the ship either should be released or taken forthwith into a prize court.

American Right.
It is contended here that the United States has a right to demand full protection for American cargoes shipped in American or neutral bottoms "to neutral ports, leaving it to Great Britain to obtain guarantees from the neutral countries to which the cargoes are consigned that conditional contraband goods will not be re-exported to a belligerent. Italy already has placed an embargo upon exports of all war munitions and supplies, but so far as is known here, Greece has not taken such action.

CHOLERA ON THE INCREASE

Austria-Hungary Is Affected to an Alarming Degree.

Venice, via Paris, Oct. 31.—Reports received here from Austria say cholera is increasing to an alarming extent throughout Austria-Hungary, and that there is not a single crown land in Austria and scarcely any in Hungary where fresh cases are not reported daily.

The epidemic is said to be worst in Galicia, where about 100 deaths are said to occur daily among the troops in the field. The bodies of those dying from the scourge are cremated immediately.

The Hungarian minister of the interior has issued a notice saying that doctors are urgently needed at hospitals. The ministry offers to pay doctors the equivalent of $6.25 a day in addition to their board and traveling expenses.

Lack Field Surgeons.
The reports say that the wounded everywhere are suffering intensely because of the shortage of surgeons in the field. Many of the wounded who have arrived in Vienna and Budapest are in a terrible condition.

Vienna is sheltering considerably more than 100,000 Galician refugees and is feeling the strain. The burgomaster has visited the premier several times urging the government to send the refugees back to their homes. The government, however, is helpless because a majority of the refugees decline to go into the country, where the cost of food is enormous.

LEAVES DECISION TO COMMITTEE

Commercial Club May Pre- sent Bid for Fire Hall.

At the meeting of the West Duluth Commercial club last night the club's hall committee was instructed to use its judgment as to whether a bid from the club should be made to the city for the purchase of the fire hall. Some opposition to the scheme developed at the meeting, those opposed to the city taking the plan contending that it would be cheaper for the city to purchase vacant property for a new hall than to dispose of what has.

A suggestion was presented by Frank Watson for the establishment of a branch fire company, bureau for firemen in West Duluth. At present such a bureau is being operated by a small group by the city and under the charge of the caretaker at the public comfort station. It was suggested that the caretaker might also handle the fire for the men. No action was taken by the club on the project.

Halloween Celebration.

West Duluth is expected to turn out in force to the Halloween celebration that will be conducted at the playground in front of the Irving school this evening. The celebration will begin at 7:30. At that time two musical organizations will start a march for the playground, one leaving the fire hall at Central avenue and Raleigh street, the other from the public comfort station. The march will be followed by a parade of the children, who will be carrying lanterns and flags. The parade will be followed by a picnic at the playground. The celebration will close at 10 o'clock.

Infant Welfare.

An "Infant Welfare Day" will be held by the West Duluth Women's Christian Temperance union at Golly's hall on Thursday afternoon. The program will begin at 2 o'clock. A feature of the session, the giving of physical tests to babies and Dr. O. W. Rowe will answer questions relating to the care of infants. Miss Heikkinen, a nurse, will also give a short address on the subject of infant welfare.

LABOR STRONG FOR HAMMOND

Leading Union Men Investi- gate Record and Urge His Election.

Bert Wheeler, Prohibition- ist, Indorses Richard Jones, Socialist.

That organized labor is strongly in favor of Congressman Winfield Scott Hammond for governor of Minnesota there remains no doubt. A claim made a few days ago by the Republican headquarters to the effect that labor was for William E. Lee, the Republican candidate, brought a hot denial from E. G. Hall, president of the Minnesota State Federation of Labor, and the leaders of organized labor in Duluth have come out flatly for Mr. Hammond, as are leaders of union labor all over the state. A statement has just been gotten up among the local leaders which signed by them individually as follows:

Henry Percut, vice president of the Minnesota Federation of Labor, R. J. Coole, president of the Duluth Federation of Labor, J. J. Tinkham, president of the Building Trades council; Henry Dworschak, former president of the Federated Trades assembly; Walter Dunlop, secretary of the Barbers' union, No. 67; G. G. Cadlin, member of the executive board of the Duluth Typographical union, No. 132; Fred Holman, secretary of the Cigar Makers' union; L. F. Lierger, president of the Duluth Musicians' union, No. 18; P. C. Bladet, president of the Barbers' union, No. 67, and J. Gordon O'Neill, president of the Longshoremen's union, No. 12. The statement follows:

"We, the undersigned, citizens of the city of Duluth, and members of organized labor, have made a careful investigation of the official record of Congressman W. S. Hammond, and as a result of such investigation, we are most heartily in our endorsement of him as a man in whom the wage-earners of the state of Minnesota can safely trust with the interests of labor in matters of legislation in which they may be affected. Congressman Hammond is known to be a fair-minded man, and we feel that he will be a credit to our state for the next two years, all our people are assured of a square deal and we recommend that you cast your vote for Mr. Hammond."

Again the well-known and indisputable true phrase, "Politics makes strange bedfellows," is illustrated in a peculiar way in the latest development of the political situation in two of the legislative districts of this county. Bert N. Wheeler, Prohibitionist, who has been elected to the House of Representatives from the Fifty-seventh district, has issued a statement in the shape of a letter being circulated in the Fifty-eighth district, unreservedly endorsing for the state senatorship from that district Richard Jones, Socialist. Nothing has been heard, however, of Mr. Jones returning the compliment; but perhaps Mr. Wheeler does not think he needs it, or perhaps he fears that the endorsement of a Socialist might injure his chances.

Margaret McAndrews Shot While on Way Home for Lunch.

Margaret McAndrews, 19 years old, daughter of Mrs. Katherine McAndrews, 2312 Twenty-third street, Billings park, was shot and instantly killed at noon today while on her way home to her noon luncheon. The shooting occurred just after she had left Butler street on Twenty-first street. Boys shooting in the area of the Northern railway yards are said to be responsible. One of a crowd of boys was caught and is being held pending investigation. His name is given as William Christianson, aged 12 years. The boy carried with him a .22 caliber rifle and had a number of shells in his pockets as well as the loaded gun. The bullet struck Miss McAndrews in the heart causing instant death. Other people on the street noticed her throw up her hands immediately following the shot and fall without a cry. The police were notified and arrived quickly on the scene and a search for the boys was started at once.

IS DRAGGED BY CAR. Normal School Student in Hospital With Concussion of Brain.

Miss Gilda Anderson, aged 15 years, a normal school student, is in St. Mary's hospital suffering from a concussion of the brain as the result of being dragged several feet by a Billings park street car after she had got off at Wyoming and Twenty-first street at 5:30 o'clock last night. Her dress had become caught in the steps in some manner and she was thrown heavily to the ground and dragged about twenty feet before her predicament was noticed. At the hospital it was found that she had sustained a slight fracture of the skull but hopes for her recovery are held out by the attendants. The young woman had been making her home with her uncle, John C. Anderson, 2005 Wyoming avenue.

Will Add to Park.

Condemnation proceedings against eight blocks adjoining Central park were started in court this morning before Justice J. B. French. The property is to be used for additional park purposes. The city has in the past few years purchased a number of single lots near the park, and the remaining property has been wanted in order to make the park complete.

Man and Check Gone.

Superior police are looking for a recent patient, who was discharged from St. Mary's hospital Thursday. The man had made the acquaintance of Albert Kellar in the institution and on leaving had been requested to get the check cashed for Kellar. Both the man and check have disappeared.

REPORT OF PEACE OFFER UNFOUNDED.

London, Oct. 31.—The report that Germany has made peace proposals to France offering special concessions, is repudiated by the German consul general at Amsterdam as "completely unfounded," says a dispatch from the Reuters Amsterdam correspondent.

ITALIAN STEAMERS SEIZED FOR CARGOES

Gibraltar, Spain, Oct. 31.—The Italian steamers Regina d'Italia and San Giovanni were seized by the British navy as prizes, owing to the fact that parts of their cargoes consisted of war material, it is said. The vessels will be held pending a decision of a prize court.

PRACTICAL INSTRUCTION IS THE AIM OF THE Y. M. C. A. EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT

The educational department of the Y. M. C. A. is showing ambitious young men how to increase their pay in their chosen professions, or starting others afloat in new lines of endeavor. The accompanying cut shows a class of the Y. M. C. A. receiving practical instruction in the cutting and welding of metals by the oxygen and acetylene gas process. The work being done as shown in the picture is not very widely known. The work is done by the use of a torch to weld the pieces of metal, or to weld them in a moment and make the "mend" the strongest part of the piece of metal. ## CLAIMS JURY WAS PREJUDICED

Hulting's Attorney Asks
New Trial, Alleging Improper Evidence.

Because the county attorney confronted Alfred Hulting, recently convicted in district court on a charge of indecent assault, with an unmarred half-witted girl and asked him if he were not true last night, Hulting's attorney today asked for a new trial. Hulting had been born to her, James A. Wharton, Hulting's attorney, is in district court today asking a motion for a new trial of the case.

Arguments on a motion for retrial of the case are being heard before Judge Cant, who presided at the trial of the action. Warren E. Greene, county attorney, is in court to oppose the granting of a motion for a new trial.

Hulting, a carpenter by trade, residing at 2006 West Fifth street, was found guilty by a jury on a charge of indecent assault on a young woman, Mrs. Selgrid Gystad, a widow, after he had invited her to take a ride with him in his automobile and she had consented. She claimed that she was looking for some friends when she met Hulting and that he offered to take her to her home in his automobile. She testified the alleged indecent assault took place. A physician testified as to marks which he later found on her body. Hulting disclaimed that he had any intention of wronging her.

During his direct examination in his own behalf, Hulting testified that he had never been in any kind of trouble with women before. When County Attorney Greene took the witness for cross-examination, he went into this point in detail, and after Hulting had strenuously denied that he had ever wronged any woman, he called a half-witted girl into the court room from the corridors with whom he confronted the witness.

Hulting was asked if he was the father of her child and if he had not paid her hospital bills and other expenses. Hulting admitted that he knew the girl but declared that as she was of age he had not wronged her. Further questioning was stopped by an objection and the county attorney did not develop the proposition further.

Attorney Wharton argued that the county attorney's action prejudiced the minds of the jurymen against Hulting to such an extent that he was found guilty.

Sir Frederick Villiers Laing Robinson of the Third Northamptonshire regiment. A casualty list of non-commissioned officers and men gives 60 killed, 120 wounded, 365 missing, of whom 300 belong to the Suffolk regiment.

SUGGESTS NAME FOR AUTO HIGHWAY

"Duluth Wonderland Trail" to Run From Here to Seattle.

The "Duluth Wonderland Trail" is the name suggested by E. J. Filtrant of the Mutual Auto company for the proposed Duluth-Seattle highway. Recently a movement was started out West for an automobile highway extending direct from Duluth to Seattle and already every state included in the proposed line has pledged its support. Mr. Filtrant has included Duluth to the name suggested by many Westerners and has promised to start a campaign in that direction.

"SAFETY FIRST" CAR MAY COME HERE

Duluth May Be Included in Nation-Wide Tour, Says Peacha.

The "Safety First" car, which is touring the United States in the interest of the safety-first movement, may come to Duluth, according to word received by Joseph Peacha, Jr., of the Interstate Auto company, from Frederick Elliott, secretary of the Safety First Society of America, who is in charge of the tour. The "Safety First" car started from New York on Sept. 10, carrying a note of greeting from Mayor Mitchell to be conveyed to mayors, chamber of commerce heads and the municipal officers of all the cities visited. Mr. Elliott conceived the idea of organizing a movement in the interest of public safety and he is personally in charge of the automobile, which is completely equipped with modern safety devices and accessories tending to make motoring more safe.

This week the automobile is in Missouri and from there a trip north will be made and there is a possibility that the automobile may visit Duluth after making its scheduled visit to the Twin Cities.

INTEREST IN DECREE.

Supreme Court Gives Ruling Regulating Auto Traffic.

Duluth auto owners will be especially interested in the decision handed down by the state supreme court this week regulating auto traffic on public highways. The decision in connection with the case of Louis Nelson against Samuel Halland follows:

1. It is the duty of the person operating an automobile upon a public highway, when meeting a team of horses being driven thereon, to exercise reasonable care to avoid frightening the team, and if necessary, to slow down or stop his car, as the situation may require.

2. The operator of an automobile is not relieved from this duty by the failure of the driver of the team to signal him to stop his car. Whether the failure to so signal will constitute

IMPORTANCE OF BRAKES IN AUTO

Safety of the Occupants Depends on Their Reliability.

"When it is fully realized that the entire safety of the occupants of an automobile may depend upon the brakes in critical situations, too much importance cannot be attached to the construction of the braking system," declares M. W. Turner, distributor of the Haynes car in this city.

"Without adequate surface at the rear drums, full braking cannot be realized. The Haynes designers have been very liberal in providing an unusually large area on the Haynes Light Six car which has a total braking surface of 308 square inches. In addition both the emergency and service braking surfaces are inside the drums on the rear wheels, where the brake lining is thoroughly protected from all mud and dust. This feature of protection eliminates the wear on the lining that would arise from the grinding action arising when exposed on the outside of the drum, and a far greater reliability may be placed in securing the full effect of the brakes."

Next in importance to the area obtained in the drums, is the arrangement of the levers and connecting rods. The greatest of simplicity must prevail to insure positive and dependable results. Brake action is very closely related to tire up-keep. The problem is to provide a system of brakes that will control the car at all speeds and that at the same time will be so flexible in its action that the wheels will not be skidded, unless in an emergency.

"A slight pressure on the brake foot pedal should be sufficient to control the car under ordinary conditions. Safety and tire expense depend upon the flexibility of this action. With the development of the light weight car, with the high speed, high powered motors, much greater speed is being attained with the ordinary touring car than in past years, and consequently more attention should be paid to dependable brakes."

HAS REFRIGERATOR FOR COOLING MILK

Kissel Truck Gives Fine Service to Wisconsin Farmers.

A 1500-pound Kissel Kar truck owned by the Edgewood farms of Newport, Minn., and made by the Kissel Motor Car company of Hartford, Wis., is equipped with a refrigerator which insures keeping cool and sanitary the bottled milk and milk in cans which this truck carries. The body is of sheet steel, and besides being very rigid, is of pleasing lines, the top being carried forward over the driver's seat in a slight curve.

The body has four doors, a double door being provided at the rear and a single door large enough to permit of the loading of the standard 10-gallon milk can on each side, directly to the rear of the driver's seat. Besides being used for loading and unloading the 10-gallon cans of milk, these side doors are also used to remove bottled milk, butter and cheese which are carried in the body directly behind the refrigerator, which is attached to the forward end of the body.

The refrigerator is positioned directly beneath the roof. It is supported by uprights at its rear side, which also act as supports for the shelves which are placed beneath the refrigerator. The refrigerator is lined with a material which protects against radiation, is enclosed on all sides within several inches of charcoal. Its capacity is 500 pounds of ice. The water resulting

DETACHABLE TOP FINE MAKESHIFT

Is Serviceable Either for Touring or Closed Car.

"While I had every confidence that the Kissel would make the detachable sedan top a viable proposition," says J. T. Peacha, Jr., local agent for the Kissel Kar, "I did not realize until I saw it that such a combination could be manufactured without showing some ear marks of a makeshift. One has to actually see this job to fully appreciate how this has been avoided."

"As a touring car it is complete to the smallest detail, has a one-man top, glass front, individual forward seats, graceful yach-like lines and the latest bullet shape body. Yet, with the aid of a screw driver and wrench and an hour's time, this beautiful touring car may be converted into one of the best appointed closed cars distinguished by all the luxuries of the highest priced Sedan."

In keeping with the elegance of the Sedan body, the new Kissel Kar, which it is mounted, are all that can be expected of the highest type of automobile constant without the slightest vibration, no rattle of any description, flexible springs and deep soft upholstery that insures a restful ride.

"We have been complimented by our competitors who, like many others, cannot understand how such a complete and successful combination can be manufactured at the price."

MAXWELL MAKES WIDE APPEAL

Farmers Convert Autos Into Engines for General Work.

With its many new features, the 1915 Maxwell touring car has won its way into the hearts of thousands of American automobilists, not only because of its beauty and mechanical perfection, but because of the many uses to which it can be put.

Several farmers, owners of Maxwell touring cars, have converted their cars into temporary stationary engines and have cut their sawing, sawing wood, even pumped water for their stock by this means.

Doctors and traveling men, whose overland routes have almost forced them of necessity to buy a car, find that the Maxwell fulfills every requirement placed upon it. Its hill climbing ability makes it a most valuable in hilly country, while sand and mud literally "melt away" under the power of the Maxwell engine.

But the latest feature of the new Maxwell was discovered by some Seattle, Wash., boys, who drove their car on a fishing trip. They found that the front seat could be directly removed by taking out the four adjustable bolts and that by moving the back of the seat and arranging the cushions, a comfortable sleeping place could be had. The original idea of the adjustable front seat was to provide for the convenience and comfort of drivers of all heights, but the boys will welcome its possibilities as sleeping quarters as much as the original idea.

RECORD WEEK FOR OVERLANDS

Willy's Company Ships 1,400 Cars Worth $1,300,000.

The biggest week in the history of the Willys-Overland company closed Saturday, Oct. 17. The volume of business done during the six working days broke all previous records of the company.

Actual shipments were made totaling 1,400 Overland cars, representing a value of more than $1,300,000. This figure is exclusive of shipments of motor trucks, and other products sold by the W. O. company, which would greatly increase the total.

At the start of the fiscal year in July, 11,000 cars had been shipped up to and including Oct. 15. This is an increase of 40 per cent over the shipments made during the corresponding period of last year and is 500 per cent greater than those of two years ago.

"We submit these figures," declares John S. Willys, president of the company, "as tangible proof that in spite of the European war, the automobile business is better than ever."

"I believe that inflated claims and idle statements of good business do not benefit the industry, although, for the time being, they may gain a little prestige for the motor car manufacturers who spread such reports. But bona fide figures showing business prosperity, when made public at this time, are reassuring to the public and business in general."

SAYS FRANKLIN LEADS LIGHT-WEIGHT CARS.

Joseph Peacha, Jr., local agent for the Franklin car, is sending out the following letter to all prospective automobile buyers in Duluth and adjacent country:

"Franklin cars now lead all cars selling at $2,000 or over. For some time the Franklin has held second place, but they now lead all others."

"The Franklin car was not only the first light-weight car, but has always carried a light-weight car. And all of their experience has been in light-weight, it is no wonder that the Franklin is the standard light-weight car of the world."

There is another item of automobile construction that is being passed on to the future and was originated by the Franklin company, which is the overhead valve. The Franklin began using the

COOLING SYSTEMS.

Water and Air Are Two Methods Used in Automobiles.

There are but two cooling systems in general use today on automobile gas engines. One is the water circulation system, and the other is the air circulation system. Water circulated around the cylinders, and then cooled and circulated again is the ordinary means. Air circulated around the cylinders and used but once is a means which has been in use from the time automobiles were first produced, but it is not as extensively used today as the water circulation type.

A cooling system is necessary on a gas engine in order to maintain the temperature of the cylinder walls at such a point that the lubrication will be effective. The better the quality of lubrication, either in form of oil or in method of supplying it, the higher the temperature at which the engine can be worked. No cooling system would be necessary if the engine could be lubricated at the 1,000 odd degrees temperature the cylinders would reach without any cooling means. Commercially, then, it is necessary that the cylinders be cooled, and this means that a certain amount of energy or work must be thrown away in order that the rest of the energy may be utilized.

The water cooling system starts with a unit called the radiator, carrying the water which must be used for cooling the motor. This water is in general drawn from the bottom of the radiator

LIGHT CARS BEST.

Heavy Cars Unsuitable for War Purposes, Says Agent.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 31.—H. B. White, general European manager of the Ford Motor company, just returned to Detroit from Paris, has some interesting observations on the use of motor cars in the great war.

"The French government," said Mr. White, "has requisitioned only the big cars—from 40 to 60 horse-power and just those with enclosed bodies. These are being used generally to carry dispatches and reports between field headquarters and transporting staff officers. What one might expect with such heavy cars is happening. On our run from Paris to Havre we passed dozens of these big heavy cars out of business and abandoned on the roadside. I prophesied that in two months most of them will be out of commission entirely."

The light, strong Ford, before the war began, had proved wonderfully successful in the army maneuvers, being able to go even across country. Many Fords are armed with rapid-fire guns. I believe that within three months if the war continues, light cars like the Ford—and all the Fords that they can get—will be in general field-operation in the war zone."

Gen. Lyauter, commander-in-chief of the French forces in Morocco, has received a shipment of fourteen Fords which, because of their lightness, strength and durability, have been proved peculiarly well adapted to operation in the sands of Northern Africa.

AUTO DELIVERY.

Cleveland Uses Overlands in the Parcel Post Service.

With five new Overland delivery cars at his disposal, the postmaster of Cleveland, Ohio, has announced his intention of putting into effect a plan which will be a decided innovation for Uncle Sam's postal department.

The purpose is to make the parcel post an agency for greater service. All farmers living in the vicinity of Cleveland, who have butter, eggs and general produce for sale have been invited to forward their names and addresses to the postoffice. Their names will be printed free by the government and the list will be displayed in the Federal building and sub-stations throughout the city and in addition will be distributed direct to Clevelanders by mail carriers.

The prospective consumers will communicate with the producers regarding prices, orders will be mailed and goods received within a day or two. Uncle

Motor Truck Sales Reflect Good Times Everywhere.

The farmer is not the only person who is enjoying prosperity nowadays; merchants, manufacturers and other business men are getting their share according to Martin L. Detroit, Mich., Oct. 31.—In January the Ford Motor company announced the amazing $10,000,000 profit-sharing plan for Ford employees. In August came the announcement of a further extension of that profit-sharing to Ford retail purchasers, providing 300,000 Fords are sold between Aug. 1, 1914, and Aug. 1, 1915.

Forty thousand miles without overhauling

W. A. Knight of Minneapolis has driven his KisselKar 1500-pound Truck 40,000 miles without repairs and on a gallon of fuel to each 13 miles.

Mr. Knight relates this incident: "We left the factory with our KisselKar Truck at A. M. for Parker's Lake, near Wauzata. In the midst of a terrible blizzard. We found the roads extremely hard, but reached our destination, completed the work, and were back at the factory the same day at four in the afternoon."

Extreme test proves stamina

Under extreme conditions KisselKar Trucks show their mettle. A good power plant—lock on the differential preventing stalling if one drive wheel gets into rut or slippery place—and four speed transmission, permitting speed on the empty trip without racing the engine—these are features that count in hard service requirements. If you are considering trucks, investigate KisselKar Trucks and KisselKar Service.

trucks it is a pretty good sign that the times are prosperous, says Mr. Pulcher. "A dealer or manufacturer who buys a motor truck is putting the money back into his business—it isn't a luxury as is a pleasure car. Travel the country over and you will not find any clear-headed man who will put money into his business if he has any doubt as to whether he will get it out.

"Buying a motor truck is just as much of an investment as getting more space for one's place of business. People are pretty sure of their ground before they do either."

MOTORCYCLE NOTES

"Old Man" Stagg, coach at the University of Chicago, has been making them "sit up and take notice" for a good many years in the football world, but he "out-Stagged" Stagg this year by adding a motorcycle to his football equipment.

The Maroons, as they romp through their practice on Stagg Field, are directed by Stagg from the side-car of a fleet motorcycle. Up and down the field go the players—and up and down the field chugs Stagg in his sturdy two-wheeler. He covers ground faster than they do, and a lot easier. Stagg's most recent innovation is due to an attack of neuritis which has made walking out of the question. He evolved the idea of a motorcycle with a side-car attachment, and there he sits as snug as any one could wish, following the plays at close range in absolute comfort.

In addition, Stagg is enabled to dash to all parts of the big field and oversee the detailed practice in blocking, tackling and putting that is always going on. During the actual games Stagg sits in his side-car along the side lines. Even if his legs were as good as ever, so some of the fans think Stagg would find many advantages in the motorcycle and the side-car which are now contributing materially to the success of the Maroons' season.

MaJ. Richard Sylvester, superintendent of police of Washington, D. C., has recommended that all mounted police be supplied with motorcycles.

"The motorcycle has become the most effective means of accomplishing not only hurried calls for police service," says MaJ. Sylvester, "but it has been found to be the greatest preventive against violations of law by those operating motor vehicles, especially in the suburban sections, where many unimproved roads prevent the use of bicycles. The application of the motorcycle has gone to improve general conditions in the force without an increase in the number of men employed, and I believe the members of the force assigned to mounted duty should be given motorcycles instead of horses."

Twenty-eight new motorcycles have been ordered for the police department of Los Angeles, Cal.

Officials of Balboa canal zone have ordered three motorcycles from the United States, to be used in the police and fire departments.

Eight motorcycles have been placed in service in the collection department of the Milwaukee postoffice.

Frank J. Patrick, a rural mail carrier of Utica, S. D., says she covers about 1,000 miles a year on his motorcycle.

from the Indiana section of the Society of Automobile Engineers to outline municipal and state legislation on the subject of blinding searchlights and headlights.

Ground has been broken at the big Detroit plant of Dodge Brothers for additions to their already extensive group of factory buildings. At present the plant of Dodge Brothers has over eighteen acres of floor space and with the addition of the new buildings, five more acres of manufacturing space will be added to the factory. The largest of the new buildings will be known as the pressed steel shop. This building will be 400 feet long, 77 feet wide and four stories high, though the walls and foundation are designed with a strength to carry ultimately six stories.

That the farmers of Iowa are prosperous is indicated by the number of motor cars being registered daily with the state license department, according to W. S. Allen, secretary of state. At this time of the year the registrations generally dwindle down to only a few days. This year in September and October the registrations have come in at the rate of fifty to sixty a day. There are but 1,000 pairs of 1914 plates left and it is likely that another order may be sent in for additional plates.

Plans are being made in Baltimore for a state motorcycle militia company of about 3,000 motorcycleists of Maryland. It is believed that a full regiment of 1,200 riders could be furnished. It is the plan to have the cyclists wear regulation khaki suits for actual service, but special uniforms for reviews and parades. Each company will have its own motorcycle mounted band, the musicians riding on the rear seats of the two-wheelers.

Montana's first annual motor car show, held in Billings on Sept. 15, 16 and 17, was an unqualified success. Of about 10,000 spectators being attracted to the exhibit during the three days. The dealers of Montana have organized the Montana State Auto Show association and already are planning for next year's show. Because of its location

Billings has been selected as the permanent place for the exhibit.

The Pennsylvania state highway department has issued more than 125,000 licenses up to the present time, and it is calculated that before the close of the year the number will reach 150,000. More than $1,151,000 has been derived by the state in the sale of 1914 license tags.

The French government has announced a supplementary list of articles declared conditionally to be contraband of war under article XL of the Declaration of London. Among these are pneumatic and other motor car tires and the materials used in their construction.

To prevent hunters from shooting its road signs, the California State Automobile association has placed a bull's eye target on each post below the road signs with the lettering, "If you must shoot, shoot this."

Studebaker cars are, on request of dealers, shipped in envelopes from the factory. This precaution ensures a car reaching its destination without even a fork of dust on its glossy surface.

MINNESOTA UNIVERSITY

Freshmen "Aggies" Decide to Wear Green and White Caps.

A. J. McDermid of Duluth Elected President of Junior Miners.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 31.—(Special to The Herald).—The freshmen will collect class on the agricultural campus met in a body in a rousing meeting at 7:30 Wednesday morning in the administration building and decided to wear a class cap of green and white. Possibly the most enthusiastic group of students ever assembled in mass meeting braved the cold to demand as a privilege the wearing of a class cap to establish this tradition. A transferee from the Michigan college of agriculture told them how the tradition was established on that campus and by an unanimous vote it was decided to adopt the cap at Minnesota. The class then voted favorably on having a Halloween party and a committee was then appointed to have charge of the arrangements.

In the annual class election held last Tuesday, J. McDermid of Duluth was elected president of the junior miners.

Service on the university trolley line between the two campuses will begin Monday, according to the administration. The university farm end of the line has been completed now. Passenger cars running between the campuses will be marked "Inter-Campus" but otherwise will be the same as the other cars of the company. It is planned to give a 10-minute service.

In an exhibition characterized by much brutality, as well as a conspicuous lack of interest, the freshmen contingent noised out the sophomores in the annual class scrap Saturday afternoon by a score of 30 to 25. The struggle for supremacy lasted for two hours. The first-year men jumped in from the start and won the tug-of-war in two straight pulls, in which about twenty members of each class contested. This event netted twenty points toward their victory.

The School Mines society gave its annual reception to the freshmen miners last Monday night at the Delta Kappa Epsilon house. Nearly the entire student body of the school of mines was present and also several members of the faculty. Paul Williams, president of the School of Mines society, gave a short talk on the prospects of that organization for the coming year. He then called on Prof. Comstock, who spoke at some length on the plans for the new school of mines building. A classroom is planned in the new building for the use of all students where they will have an opportunity to get together. The society is planning to raise the necessary funds to furnish this room.

The dairy men of the agricultural college are attending the national Dairy show which is in session in Chicago this week. One of the mile-long meetings is to honor Prof. Haecker of Minnesota for the work he has done for dairy cattle in Minnesota.

The Advantages of Magneto Ignition

THE new Overland is equipped with the finest high tension magneto.

This is entirely independent of the starting and lighting system.

High tension magneto ignition is conceded by the great majority of experts and engineers to be the most efficient. Also it is the most expensive.

All high-priced cars are equipped with a magneto.

Most popular priced cars have no magneto. Only the cheaper and less effective battery ignition is furnished.

Those manufacturers who use the battery ignition do so to cut down their manufacturing costs. They do not furnish a magneto because it is too costly.

A high tension magneto is furnished with the Overland because—

- it means a faster getaway.
- it means a livelier motor.
- it means more power at all speeds.

—it keeps the motor cool.

—it develops more power due to a hotter spark, which increases its heat as the motor speed increases.

The heat of an Overland spark, by actual test, is ten times greater than the spark of the ordinary battery ignition.

The high tension Overland magneto requires no dry cells.

The absence of a high tension magneto on a car is an indication that the car is not all it should be. Something very important is lacking, consequently there might be many other important things left off, of which you are not aware.

The Overland has every practical and essential improvement.

When you purchase an Overland you get the most stylish, most comfortable, most convenient, most complete and most carefully constructed car for the price in the world.

The Alphabet Tax on Your Purse With 26 Good Reasons

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| A Nobody knows what anything actually costs until the expense is ended. B The buyer who says that his car cost him four thousand dollars means that he paid that sum for it. C In the end, it may cost him fifteen or twenty thousand dollars. D The Ford comes the nearest to meeting the ideal requirements of one expense. E In operation and upkeep, it figures close to a "car-fare" basis. F In other words, the Ford exacts the minimum tax for automobilizing. G Anything that calls for operation has some steady expense. H The Ford, in motor car fields, has the least. I Therefore, the Ford does not put a tax on your purse. J It exacts no penalty. K Paying 40 cents a mile for motoring doesn't make the scenery any better, or the air any purer, than paying 12 cents a mile. L To "keep" a costly car without money to throw away is like sporting an opera hat and evening clothes, and taking a street car to the theater. M In a word, costly cars demand costly habits. The "appearances" of a costly car cost as much as the upkeep of a Ford. N They create a further tax that must be charged against the actual cost. O A high-priced car shows wear quicker than a Ford and its appearance and other costs not bargained on in the purchase price. | P No man has really paid the full price for his automobile until he has finished with it. Q The Ford gauges its eventual cost by its first cost. Its ownership gives use without a heavy tax on your purse. R Every time a business man looks at his high-priced car, he must see the great loss of idle capital—money that can never be returned and he must think about the excessive tax the mere ownership places upon his pocketbook. S The Ford appeals to any person who pauses to add and multiply—who looks beyond the size of the purchase price and sees the volume of the subsequent cost. T It appeals to people with ideas of business economy, because it delivers the highest service for the lowest cost. U And—money is an argument and particularly when well-known demonstrated Ford quality is taken into consideration. V No man or woman need fear to look into the future, so far as motor expense goes, when buying a Ford. W It is not the car that mortgages the home or keeps father's nose on the grindstone of worry and hard work to meet the taxation of operation. X It is a quality car with the very lowest tax. Y It is the car of steady service for you to look into. Z It is therefore common sense to place an order now for a Ford, thereby insuring a delivery and all for the reasons given above. |

When Opportunity Comes Grasp It.

What an important part opportunity plays in the making of men. We hear much about the "self-made man" and he always comes in for a goodly amount of praise. Some of it is merited, some of it is not.

It is a pity that so many of the "self-made" men are so unfortunates that most of them are bestowed upon the "successful" ones and too little to the "self-made" men who are doing a work that has a mighty influence for good upon mankind.

We do not count a man "self-made" until he has achieved success—the kind of success that is bounded by fame, power and wealth. All of the elements which contribute to this sort of success—industry, thrift, perseverance, sacrifice and the rest count for little if the one element—opportunity—is missing. Thousands of men and women are living—conscientious, worthy, noble lives, possessing all the attributes that make for success, but because they are never blessed with opportunity, their work is not recognized and acclaimed by men.

Success in the material affairs of life is so much a matter of opportunity. The millionaire does not belong to a peculiar genus of being. Most men who have acquired riches are not superior in mentality, skill or talent to hundreds of the rank and file of men who never acquire more than moderate means. Their success may usually be traced to opportunity.

Probably most of us, for one reason or another, would like to acquire wealth, or, at least, every one of us wishes to gain a competence to provide for the needs of old age. The majority of men do not attain the former ambition, nor fame in any line of endeavor, but the greatness of this country lies in the fact that it has men in abundance who are ready for and equal for any opportunity. And we have reason to be thankful, too, that we have men and women who, in their struggle to gratify personal ambition, do not lose sight of their higher ideals.

They may be destined to walk obscure paths and they may never gain the plaudits of men, but they are doing their life work well, and its influence in the betterment of humanity is never-ending.

At the cotillion given last evening by the Cotillion club at the Kitchi Gami club, pumpkin blossoms, lanterns, apples and oranges in Halloween symbols combined to make an artistic background for the dancers who wore Yams Yams and Raggedy costumes and witches' caps. The failure of the electric lights early in the evening added to the Halloween spirit of the dancers whose costumes were so much alike that it was hard to distinguish between them by even a bright light.

SOME GREAT FOOTBALL FIGURES ARE COACHING COLLEGE TEAMS

Frank Hinkey Was Greatest End of All Time, and Stagg and Haughton Were Great Players; Yost and Williams Were Not Famous as Players; Phil King Was Another Great Figure; Wrestling Receives a Boost; The Curling Club Campaign.

BY BRUCE.
SOME stellar gridiron figures are represented in some of the prominent football coaches of the day. First and foremost, when it comes to considering his ability as a player, stands Frank Hinkey. Small and slight of stature, this man stands gloriously forth as the greatest end of all time.

Clear back in 1889 Walter Camp inaugurated the mythical All-American team. In 1891 Frank Hinkey was chosen for one of the end positions and for three succeeding seasons the doughty Yale wing guard was similarly honored for the same position.

Scanning the honor roll of American football, as represented in the choosing of the dean of American football, Walter Camp, it will be found that Hinkey and Newell of Harvard, and Gordon Brown of Yale are the only men who have been given the great and proud distinction of being placed on the All-American team for four years.

Hinkey was an end of feendish football energy. With old "Sport" Donnelly of Princeton, the Yale end was classed in the days that have passed and told their tale, as one of the roughest players of the gridiron. A famous struggle between Yale and Harvard, played at Springfield, will live long in the minds of students. Alonzo Amos Stagg is a Yale man and was placed on the first Camp All-American team that of 1889. Stagg was one of the greatest football players produced at Yale in those early days, and ranks with "Dutch" Carter and Hildebrand and one of the greatest college pitchers ever produced.

Percy Haughton was one of the greatest punters of modern football. While Dean Camp never accorded the Harvard man a place on any of his carefully guarded All-American teams, nevertheless Haughton was one of the big football men of his times.

Fielding H. Yost never gained real and undying fame as a football player. Yost went to Lafayette and played a tackle position there. As a football player he was never among the immortals, though he was rated as a hard player and was not considered a hole in the line or anything of that nature.

There is a story regarding the playing of Yost after he left college that may be worth repeating, even though it is familiar to some of the readers of this page.

Yost became coach of Ohio Wesleyan in about 1897. A game was scheduled with the University of Michigan team. On the eve of the game one of the players of the Ohio team became ill. In those days material was very scarce at the Ohio college. Upon the request of the Ohio men Yost was allowed to go in and patch out his team. Wesleyan played so well with its coach in the lineup that Michigan was held to a 0 to 0 tie.

Dr. Harry L. Williams was better known as a track man at Yale than a football player. Dr. Williams played football several years at the Eli institution, winning a regular place on the team in his senior year. As a high and low hurdler the Minnesota coach was the intercollegiate champion and his high hurdle mark remained unbroken for a number of years. The genial doctor also was considerable of an allround athlete and won several big contests at the varied-event program.

Phil King's departure from the classical and slightly political environs of Madison removed from the West one of the most picturesque mentors of the modern days.

Phil King was a grand fellow—a good fellow in all that mellow term implies. King was one of those genial souls who considered it not the least harm to give the members of his team champagne after a game. Another detail—Phillip would dig down in his own pocket and buy some of the grape for the boys he loved. Like "Old Man" Stagg, only in a far different way, King was idolized by the men who played under him. The famous former quarter and half back of Princeton, a player who made the All-American team three years and was captain of Princeton at baseball and football in the same college year, possessed an ornate vocabulary. He was able to talk through clenched teeth and he left scars when he so chose. But when the call was duly registered, King became the pal and friend of the football player. Old Wisconsin players will swear by the diminutive and later exceedingly round blonde coach of some of the greatest teams that the West has ever turned out.

Stagg, King, Williams and Yost were the big four of the West. King went into business and forsook the gridiron, much to the sorrow of the students of Madison. Some rumors have it that this is the last year of Stagg. Yost is growing old in the athletic sense and Dr. Williams is not exactly a spring chicken.

A great football figure lends romance and enchantment to the team he pilots. Yost has a remarkable personality and the same is true of Percy Haughton. These two men stand today as two of the most remarkable football men of their time.

WRESTLING received a decided impetus as a result of the Miller-Walker contest. Duluth has been particularly fortunate in having some of the best and biggest matches of the country. The support of the fans enabled the promoters to bring the best here. Never has there been a better or faster contest than the one of Friday evening. Miller showed in a large measure that he is one of the real contenders, for he never looked so well, and young George Walker, the doughty Canadian, is sure to be heard from in the near future.

THE ADAMS ELEVEN.
JOHAN GEISTMAN, the hustling manager of the Adams football team, has finally succeeded in getting a team together that looks to be equal of anything in the Twin City independent field. Last season the West end team was outclassed by the Marines of Minneapolis. The addition to the blue and white team of players of the stamp of DeLong and Turner has strengthened the locals to the extent of placing them on a par with the class of St. Paul and Minneapolis.

THE CURLING CAMPAIGN.
 On Monday the officials of the Duluth Curling club will inaugurate the contest for an increase in the list of the club membership. One of the liveliest organizations of the city, made-up of some of the best fellows in the world, the effort of the directors to increase the membership list should meet with the most hearty success. The Duluth Curling club has made this town the curling center of the United States and has been a consistent booster for the best in sports from its inception.

FINAL GAME OF SEASON

President's and Vice President's Event on Northland Links.

The annual game between the president's and vice president's golf teams of the Northland Country club, will be the feature event of the club for today. The members of the losing team will provide a dinner to the members of the winning team. As this event closes the official season, and is an annual affair that is eagerly looked forward to, one of the largest galleries of the season is likely to be on hand.

With weather conditions ideal for golfing and the course in the very best of shape, the farwell game promises to bring out some very good golf.

One of the features of the day will be the presentation of a number of medals to winning players of the season.

Levinisky Scores Again.
 New York, Oct. 31.—Battling Levinisky of New York, outgolfed Sal Pritts of Brooklyn in a 10-round bout here last night. A fight to the level, caused Pritts to take a count of nine in the third round.

It will be noticed that the players are numbered, which makes it easier for the spectators and members of the newspaper fraternity to distinguish the members of the different elevens in the various formation plays.

WET GROUNDS MAY SPOIL FORWARD PASSING GAME

Walter Camp Declares That Time May Come When Game Will Be Played Under Favorable Weather Conditions—The Open Game Has Fulfilled Predictions.

By WALTER CAMP.
 The quarter should be the eye of the team.

Judgment in a coach is a great asset; prejudice is a grievous failing.

A team needs a change of play just as a field needs a change of crops.

Plenty of coaches can tell you what is wrong, but precious few know what is right.

It is hard to say which do the most harm, your rivals with the worst intentions, or your friends with what they think the best advice.

October has borne out the predictions made in this column at the outset of the season to the effect that we should see the game open as never before in the history of the gridiron sport. The passing game has come in with a rush and instead of the spectators seeing the ball, outside of punts, only a few times in a half they are now on their toes with the expectation of something happening every minute, and in that happening an opportunity to see the brown leather egg tossed with almost reckless abandon from one man to another. It is a revelation to the old player, who is familiar with having the ball placed in his arms by the quarterback and then hugging it for dear life and bounding into a mass of men as hard as he could, to witness a game of this modern type. At first he is inclined to catch his breath as he sees the way the ball is handled, but when a team using these passes goes well he soon loses his fear and begins to think there is something in it, after all. The long dry spell that prevailed throughout the latter part of September and until the middle of October left, however, no opportunity to discover what may be a serious and fatal weakness in this style of play, and that is the handling of a slimy ball when the runners are skating through a slippery footing of mud.

Some of the plays are still possible under these conditions, but as a rule they will be very much handicapped, and a team must therefore have a set of plays that can be made reasonably effective under such conditions. That brings up a point which has never in the history of the game in this country troubled football players or the football crowd. If a man had a date to go to a football game he could rest assured that if he went there he would find his seat in the grandstand.

For Good Weather.
 The open game is a game for good weather conditions, and it is possible that we shall reach a time when, like baseball, the game will not be played unless the conditions are fairly favorable. What would happen to the football schedule under a ruling of that kind no one can tell, but it is easy to see that if such a rule had prevailed last year several of the important games would have been postponed. It would be impossible to get through the games unless postponed games were played in midweek, and what college faculties would say to this is doubtful. The only thing that we can do this season is to hope that the Saturdays and Thanksgiving day will be clear, bright weather, or at least that we shall not have the frightful conditions that prevailed in games like the two at Princeton in 1913, when Dartmouth and Harvard played there.

The study of defense already is interesting, not only to players and coaches, but football critics also. Can the defense be adjusted to withstand the variety of assault that this new game is developing? That is the question. Those who argued that under the present rules there would be very little scoring, owing to the fact that it seemed so difficult to get from a 15-yard line over the goal line, have taken their criticism away with them and lost it, and, instead, the defense is strained to its utmost to cover the innumerable ways in which the attack may assault its territory. Various formations for defense have been devised, but none of them is yet satisfactory. One somewhat, it is true to the fact that the individual "sizing up" of plays has not developed rapidly enough as yet. However, there is a very marked improvement in the vision of defense, or what the coaches call "keeping one's eyes open," and it is safe to count upon this quality developing pretty rapidly under the test to which it is being put.

The loss to Harvard of its captain, Charles Brickley, one of the most remarkable football players of his time, or any time for that matter, is a serious blow. The attack of appendicitis, making it necessary to perform an operation, probably means that it will be impossible for him to take his place on the field again this year. Every football enthusiast, whether a player or spectator, not alone at Harvard, but at rival institutions, will be disappointed that the young man could not round out his career for the season as captain. He was great, not alone in his drop kicking, but in two other respects of vital import to the Harvard team, namely, his ability as a line-breaker and his remarkable precision in defensive work against the forward pass. But there are others who will take up his work, and the more so, the more it must in a measure impair the efficiency of the team, will not lessen its ability as a dangerous contender for the premier position this year.

LOOK FOR WIN BY ILLINOIS

Experts So Figure Result of Game at Minneapolis.

Wisconsin Crippled, But Determined to Down Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Semi-final games of the "big nine" championship race in the West and an important inter-sectional game in the East—Michigan against Harvard—was the football schedule presented to Middle-Western followers of the gridiron sport today.

Chicago and Wisconsin at Madison and Illinois and Minnesota at Minneapolis were the games that held the interest in the Western conference. The only other "big nine" eleven to go into action today is Indiana, which was scheduled to play Miami at Bloomington in a game that practically held no interest. The other four conference elevens, Iowa, Purdue, Northwestern and Ohio, were resting today in preparation for their final spurt toward the finish of the year, all of them hopelessly out of the championship race. Nebraska alone of the prominent Western schools has a game for today, the Cornhuskers playing Ames in what is considered a practice struggle for the Nebraska players.

Bitter Contests Likely.
 Chicago's championship eleven was ready to face Wisconsin with high hopes of victory. A desperate contest was predicted as Wisconsin, though weakened by the crippled condition of certain players, was determined to put Chicago out of the championship race if possible. Neither team has been defeated this season.

Experts predicted a victory for Illinois over Minnesota, although they are agreed that Minnesota's qualities, though practically are unknown, Illinois, however, is recognized as the speediest of the conference. With excellent kickers, both of the punt and field goal variety, Coach Zuppke of the Illini was confident of a victory.

Schedule of Games.
 Following are the important games scheduled for the Middle West:
 Chicago vs. Wisconsin at Madison.
 Illinois vs. Minnesota at Minneapolis.
 Nebraska vs. Ames at Lincoln.
 Indiana vs. Miami at Bloomington.
 Notre Dame vs. Haskell at Notre Dame.
 Kansas Aggies vs. Missouri at Columbia.
 Oklahoma vs. Kansas at Lawrence.
 Grinnell vs. Coe at Cedar Rapids.
 One of the outstanding qualities of the North Dakota vs. South Dakota at Grand Forks.

BOTH TEAMS ARE QUITE CONFIDENT

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 31.—With twenty-two players here and every one in perfect physical condition, according to Coach Zuppke, the Illinois football men are hopeful of defeating the University of Minnesota eleven this afternoon. If they do it will be the first victory of the Illini since Dr. Williams became coach in 1900, according to the University records.

The local athletes are making no boastful assertions, but their friends insist the team has a chance of winning its first game since the season was shown its utmost ability.

The weights of the players have not been given out. It is said the visitors will have a slight advantage in that respect. The probable lineups are:

Illinois—
 Backs—Armstrong, Chapin (Capt.), Rosenthal, (Capt.), Dunnigan, Stewart, Townley, Erdrick, Clark, Hamilton, Macomber, Scholinger, Solon.
 Referee—Magnusson.

AWAIT THE WHISTLE.

Harvard and Michigan Elevens Ready for Big Game.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 31.—Football as played in the West and taught by Yost was matched against the Eastern game exemplified by Haughton when the Michigan and Harvard teams met today in the first stadium built in this country. Nearly 40,000 enthusiastic followers of the most popular form of fall sport had purchased tickets for the contest. The sun shone brightly, the temperature was moderate and the gridiron was dry. The Harvard eleven was a pronounced favorite before the game started. This was due principally to the defeat of Michigan by Syracuse a week ago and to the absence of some stars from the Michigan lineup.

The Harvard line was bolstered up by the return of Penneck, one of the All-American guards of last season. It was expected that Mahan would not start in the game, as the coaches wish to reserve him for the Princeton contest.

Both teams spent the night quietly far away from the customary "night before" celebration of the students. The Michigan players were ten miles out from the city, and walked about the Newton Hills this forenoon and some of them played golf on a nearby course. Most of the members of the Harvard eleven were busy with recitations.

The game was set for 2:46 p. m., but the coaches announced that an effort would be made to start it a few minutes earlier.

Harvard entertained some of the best players and coaches from other colleges, including Princeton, Brown and Yale, who were given the best seats. Some of them were on the side lines and all the scouts were prepared to watch the Harvard players very closely in the hope of picking up points for use in the remaining games of the season. The lineup as announced this forenoon:

Position Michigan—
 J. Colledge ..... Benton
 Parson ..... McIlwain
 Weston ..... McIlwain
